COMMUNICATION.

As our space is limited, all communications must be brief and to the point, with no waste of words.

1. Any person who takes the paper regularly from the post office, whether directed to his name or whether he is a subscriber or not—is responsible for the pay.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of INTENTIONAL FRAUD.

All parties wanting stands on the grounds at the Fourth had better attend the meeting Friday evening as some action on the matter will be taken then.

We are informed that several famous speakers have been engaged for the Fourth of July. A host of Fireworks are on hand and the committees really seem to have waked up all at once and are making preparations for a grand and glorious Fourth.

Our friend Wettlecamp had bad luck lately. He rather put his foot in it in a little squabble with a hired man, and a few days after, from spite, some rascals cut his harness all up and shaved the tails of several of his horses. Punishment should be severe for such lawless proceedings.

Robinson and beasts are liable to accident; a prompt remedy used at the right time often saves weeks and months of pain. Dr. Green's Crimean Liniment and Liver and Ague Pills should always be kept in the house. 50y1

NOTICE.

The Pioneer Association of Cass Co., Nebraska, are hereby called to meet at the Court House in Plattsmouth, on Saturday the 17th inst., at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements for joining the celebration of the 4th of July, in this the Centennial year of our Independence, and to transact any other business that may come before the Association. By request of 5 members.

A full attendance is expected to be present. WM. L. WELLS, Secretary.

Lightning struck the carpenter shop of Johnson Bros. on Sunday night, and knocked the Martin house galley west, besides ripping off the boards and shingles pretty lively.

THURSDAY, 2½ P. M.—Biggest rain of the season, huge waterfall. All the geese in town go through the Main St. sluiceway. Dick Streight gets soaked. The HERALD man's boots are ruined. The pigeon shoot goes to roost and Vine Street is weak.

Go to Stadelmann's for a new spring suit of clothes.

The Plattsmouth Fire Department will give a grand Ball the night of July 4th, in Fitzgerald Hall. The celebrated string band from Glenwood has been engaged. Turn out everybody and enjoy a good time.

Many members of committees say they would like to be free on the 4th. They simply want to go, and see, and enjoy themselves. So do we all of us, but somebody must get up the thing, must work. It won't run itself, you may rest assured, and it ought to be a great honor to help make arrangements to celebrate this Centennial 4th; as very few of you will ever help to get up another like this. After this you can lay back until 1976—if you like. Now we want you to work.

FOR FARMERS.

The largest assortment of the best and latest style Plow Shoes at Merges' Shoe Store, cheap for cash.

Buckle Plow Shoes only $1.25 at Sherwood & Stadelmann's.

We have received from Chas. Clucas & Co., 14 Warren street, New York, an exquisite chromo of that interesting historical character, the beautiful Beatrice de Cenci. The chromo is a copy of the famous painting by Guido hanging in the Barberini Palace at Rome, which $100,000 could not buy.

There is an indescribable sweetness and charm in the tender countenance of this loveliest woman of history, born, perhaps, of the sadness of her life, and delineated with the skill which only the hand of an old master commands; yet, as the eye lingers on the portrait, her beauty drives the remembrance of her sorrow from the mind.

For grace of posture and drapery, and loveliness of face and expression, this portrait has long been a model for the best painters. It is one of those wonderful and striking creations of art which, hung upon the wall, pervade the whole apartment with an air of elegance and refinement.

The chromo is an exact copy of the original, reproduced by 27 different impressions in oil colors size 2x2½ feet, and is presented free to every subscriber to the ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

Messrs Clucas & Co. are an enterprising firm. They publish a beautifully illustrated and interesting weekly paper, and are now making special efforts towards representing the Centennial Exhibition by both pen and pencil, and they promise that THE ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY during the next six months shall be the most complete, authentic and interesting, and the best illustrated history of this great national event.

This house also makes the extraordinary offer of a free railroad ticket from any point in the country to Philadelphia and return to any person who will raise a club of subscribers for them.

Professional canvassers should look after this immediately, and we recommend all our readers who possess the desire to attend the Centennial, but by reason of hard times or other causes are prevented, to write for information regarding this offer.

All inquiries should be addressed CHAS. CLUCAS & Co., Chicago.

Notice. I Robert Sherwood, of the Centennial boot and shoe store, will work against any man in Cass county for one hundred dollars, for good fits, neatness and solidity. ROBT. SHERWOOD, Centennial Shoe Store.

Clothing cheaper than ever before. I have just received a new stock of summer goods. Good working pants for $1, Elmwood collars 20c per box. A good No. 1 suit $8. And everything else in proportion.

A Chap with a Pocket Full of Revolvers Forgets to Steal Cartridges and is Captured by One Man.

WHOOP! LA!

Some time Thursday night last a villain broke into Frank Carruth's Jewelry Store and carried off about $70 worth of revolvers and jewelry. By daylight next morning Sheriff Cutler and others were on his track. Cutler thought he would search the outgoing early freight cars, and sure enough, he had not gone far when he found a burly tramp curled up in one. The Sheriff stirred him up, but soon found he had no traps.

IN THE THIRD CAR

from that he roused another who had bulgy pockets generally, and the butt of a revolver protruding from one of them.

"THROW UP YOUR HANDS"

and get out of that was the order—the fellow objected at first, but finally crawled out on the ground. By this time the other man came up, and Cutler thought he was in for it as he made no doubt both men had the stolen revolvers loaded, cocked and primed.—Just then, Geo. Laving, night watch on the R. R., came up and covered the big man with a revolver, while Cutler marched No. 2 down towards Main street. When part way down the thief dodged under a car and ran towards the river. Cutler bolted after and ordered a halt, firing once in the air to scare him. No go, and the next shot took him in the leg and crippled him. He then dodged back to the west side of the train. Cutler jumped between the cars and again ordered the man to halt, or he would shoot to kill. Pretty well crippled and bleeding freely the chap threw up his hands and stopped. Cutler marched him down to Main street where he met Mr. Mickelwaite who searched him and found all the things Mr. Carruth had lost, kindly informing him meanwhile, that he wished the Sheriff had shot 3 feet higher. By this time Laving had brought up the other chap who proved not to have been an accomplice in the robbery and was let go. Several small robberies have taken place lately, in which this same party is supposed to have had a hand. This breaks up the gang and we guess our citizens are safe, thanks to the prompt action of Mr. Cutler and his aids.

Funny enough the prisoner had forgot to steal any cartridges, and none of the half dozen revolvers he had were loaded.

MORAL.—Don't steal round here, or we'll shoot high enough next time.

New Stock and New Style of Business!

After careful calculation (notice figures) I concluded to adopt the strictly cash system, feeling convinced that it is the most satisfactory and profitable style of business in the end. For instance, $2,000 turned every thirty days at 10 per cent. will be $800; in twelve months $2,400; in five years, $12,000. The same turned every ninety days requires an increase of profit to 30 per cent to produce the same result. Besides, there are always unavoidably and surely a large amount of accounts lost in the credit system, which reduces the large profit gained in good customers. All those, then, who intend to pay for their goods will see the benefit and profit of calling on me for their shoe wear. While extending my thanks to the numerous friends thro whom I have established so large a trade, a trade equal to the best in the State, I would respectfully invite all to continue dealing with me, as well as all others who will call to buy cheap.
