THE TWENTY-SIXTH.

A troupe of native Minstrels, all good musicians and good minstrel men.

In a very pretty little story in Harper's Magazine for March, we find this: speaking of some families, 8 persons, who got along very pleasantly in life and with each other it says—"Not one of them has read the Nation for five years for they like to keep good natured." We re-print this for the benefit of our friend Holdrege, when he comes home.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Chas. Lazenby and family left us on Tuesday the 20th for Denver and Colorado.

Mr. Lazenby has been a resident here twelve years and over, and built in connection with E. Buttery the handsome brick stable, known as the "Bonner Stable." It was at that time the largest and finest livery barn in Nebraska.

Latterly Mr. L. has been in the grain and stock business. He leaves largely for the benefit of his health. As a neighbor and friend we shall miss Charley a great deal. As a citizen the town could ill afford to lose him. Hoping sincerely that he may meet with good luck and have the best of health in his new home, we sadly say good bye.

Capt. Kuhl and Henry Sierth at Omaha on Friday last, both old residents of Plattsmouth.

Dr. Schildknecht helps the HERALD out every now and then most manfully, or rather most Doctorfully. We are glad to learn that the Doctor has a most excellent practice and that it is increasing constantly. If he makes everybody feel as good as he did the HERALD last week pills and powders would not be needed.

Capt. Marshall received a distressing letter last week which he turned over to councilman Pepperberg.

We had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of Will H. Lynchard, city editor of the Omaha Daily Herald. His 'keard' asks "What is it? How did it happen? Oh, tell me all about it!" Guess Will will find willing mouths to do this in Nebraska.

J. Stine, of Eight Mile Grove, called on the HERALD, in the absence of the Editor last week. He claims to be an old friend of the days long gone by and the HERALD would very much liked to have seen him.

Hon. D. H. Wheeler, Secretary of the Senate, with Mrs. Wheeler accompanied the excursion to Topeka last Friday.

Mr. Donnelly has added to his otherwise complete arrangement for general repairing in Machinery by giving room in his shop to a good lathe, which prepares him for any kind of repairing. Farmers and others will do well to give him a call, as he warrants all work, and is prepared to make his warrants good. 43:4

Winter goods at greatly reduced prices for the next 30 days—must be sold to make room for a mammoth spring stock.
12. J. V. WECKBACH.

Messrs. Bryan and Chambers wish us to give notice that they have purchased the interest of A. P. Martin in the Harness Shop opposite the Platte Valley House, and are prepared to furnish harness and harness trimmings to order at Bed Rock prices for cash. All sorts of country produce taken in exchange for goods. 4712*

Mrs. Jonathan Wise has been ill for some time, as noticed last week. At one time she was very low, and her life despaired of, but on Wednesday she commenced to mend, and to-day we learn she is considerable better, all of which we are sincerely glad to announce.

Mr. Hatt, the well known and reliable butcher of Plattsmouth, has at last retired from business. He expresses his thanks to all his old customers, and hopes they may be suited in the future. He contemplates going to Sidney on the Black Hills route, we believe.—Good luck, old man.

The friends and neighbors of Hon. Joe Gilmore gave him a reception on Wednesday evening. A merry crowd gathered there. Somebody had bought all the oysters in town, and such an onslaught on bivalves was never known before. By the kindness of Mr. E. Parmele, the HERALD was spirited over there, and all we have to say is, That when in the course of human events it becomes necessary for Joe Gilmore's friends to give him another oyster supper, we hope the HERALD will be on hand. So does E. Parmele, only we don't want to have to hold him again, to prevent his going back in the morning to get some more.

In these days, when the country is flooded with worthless immitations, it is pleasant and profitable to come across a genuine medical preparation of merit such as Dr. Green's Family Medicines. They are prepared from the formula of a regular physician. tf

Nothing short of unmistakable benefits conferred upon tens of thousands of sufferers could originate and maintain the reputation which AYER'S SARSAPARILLA enjoys. It is a compound of the best vegetable alteratives, with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and is the most effectual of all remedies for scrofulous, mercurial, or blood disorders. Uniformly successful and certain in its remedial effects, it produces rapid and complete cures of Scrofula, Sores, Boils, Humors, Pimples, Eruptions, Skin Diseases and all disorders arising from impurity of blood. By its invigorating effects it always relieves and often cures Liver Complaints, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, and is a potent renewer of vitality. For purifying the blood it has no equal; it tones up the system, restores and preserves the health, and imparts vigor and energy. For forty years it has been in extensive use, and is to-day the most available medicine for the suffering sick, everywhere.
