CHARLEY BROWN.

—Phil Young, the gayest youngster in these parts has just returned from a trip down south to St. Joe and thereabouts. The boys insist that Phil has been getting married, but when asked Phil only laughs and says: "find out." We're puzzled to know just what the Young man has been up to.

—Now that the democracy has made a straight ticket in the main we hope this campaign will be narrowed down to two parties who alone have any chance of determining who shall manage our affairs for the next two years. It's either a democratic or a Republican victory in Cass County this year. All side issues are useless.

—The Surveying party of Mr. A. Schlegel returned home on Saturday last; in good health and sound as one of the dollars of our daddies. George Fairfield, preacher George, looks first rate and says he's ready to live and die with Bob Ingersoll for ever and ever. —The fellow who is supposed to have stolen goods from the Freight Depot, on Saturday, was arrested and brought before Judge Haines Tuesday evening. The Judge hauled him over the coals severely and charged him with the theft. All the fellow could say was that he had been drunk since last Wednesday, and if he stole the tobacco he never knew it. The railroad men all swear to the tobacco, and to his being the thief to the best of their belief. All they could get out of him was that he was drunk since Wednesday and couldn't remember what he did do. Under the name of Welch he was sentenced to $10 fine and 15 days hard work in the County Jail.

Serious R. R. Accident.

As the Western bound freight train, which left here Monday evening, very late, reached a point near South Bend, the engine encountered a land or rock slide, which threw the engine off the track, and demolished several cars and their contents. The engineer, Mr. Johnson, was severely injured about the head. Mr. Fred Lewis, the fireman, was thrown under the coal and other debris from the wreck, and lay there nearly drowned in the water, until help could be procured. A special engine and Dr. Livingston were telegraphed for at once. Mr. Lewis was brought back to Plattsmouth early in the morning, and on examination Dr. Livingston found his leg broken and one arm, besides being bruised badly. The wreck could not be removed from the track before Tuesday evening. The morning passenger train, baggage, &c. being transferred to another train brought up from Lincoln. Lewis has a wife and two children, and resides in Plattsmouth.

LOUISVILLE.

Two Conventions in a minute, as one may say.

One Swallows the other and then hasn't a hearty Meal.

Both want to Swallow the Republicans, of Cass, but will find they had better let the Contract out.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 23d, 1877.

EDITOR HERALD:—From the most reliable data obtained, it appears that the greenbackers who were prevented by the weather from holding a convention at Weeping Water on Saturday met at Louisville on Tuesday and made what they called the following nominations, viz:

For Treasurer J. M. Patterson; for Clerk John D. Tutt; for Sheriff D. Ramy; for Judge Wm. D Hill.

This convention was held at the depot, Mr. Schrader being Chairman. The outfit then adjourned to the village, where, what was called a democratic convention, was held, and they went through the farce of nominating a regular straight democratic ticket as follows:

For Treasurer J. M. Patterson, of Plattsmouth; for Clerk, John D. Tutt, of Salt Creek; for Sheriff, Dan. Ramy, of Salt Creek; Judge, W. D. Hill, of South Bend; for Commissioner, John Gyger, of Weeping Water; for Coroner Dr. Hildebrand of Louisville.

Mr. J. N. Wise was chairman of this convention, and B. S. Ramsay and Ed Ruffner, secretaries. No nominations were made for Superintendent or Surveyor. Either they don't think the cause of public education of any account, or they acknowledge the superior judgment of the Republicans at once whenever it comes to a matter of real knowledge.

If there is a man on that ticket who is not an out and out democrat, I should like to see him. If any honest greenbacker votes that ticket as an aid to his party or his principles, he is a bigger fool than I am.

It's the thinnest thing out. If the greenback party mean to nominate, why not nominate a ticket composed of some pronounced greenback men, be they Republicans or Democrats. If they wanted to join the Democratic party why not say so at once and save time fooling. The honest greenbackers believed they would not receive any benefit from either existing party, and wanted a new dish, not an old stew warmed over. No such greenback, nor democracy in mine.

A DISGUSTED GREENBACKER,
who proposes to vote the Republican ticket hereafter.

Notice of Funeral Service.

A Sermon will be preached on the 28th of Oct., at two o'clock p. m. at the United Brethren Church about two miles and a half south of Plattsmouth for the Relations and Friends of the departed Mrs. Wilhelmina Vallery, who died on Tuesday Oct. 20th 1877, at her residence in Cass Co., Neb.

The services will be conducted by the Rev. J. P. Yust, in German. Friends of the family invited.

—Organs and Pianos tuned and repaired, orders left at Johnson's Drug Store will receive prompt attention.

JAMES PETTEE,
Dealer in Musical Instruments.

Personal.

Mr. Allan, of the "Crete Union," was in town yesterday.

C. L. Mather, an old printer in this office, and whilome Editor of the "Red Cloud Chief," called on us Wednesday.

A. B. Charde of Burt County has had an attack of typhoid fever. We're sorry for Charde for a fever plays smash with good looking healthy chaps like Charde.

Hon. Joseph Beardsley is the happy father of a young legislator about two weeks old, the HERALD just heard it a few weeks ago. He can't vote this election but is growing up for business in the future.

The Niobrara Pioneer is just the cheerriest, heartiest paper that comes to our table, the Editors evidently are so happy over their new dress and their better prospects that it does one's heart good to read them.

The HERALD had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Thomas of the Red Cloud Chief at Lincoln lately. Glad to make his personal acquaintance at last and the Chief is always looked for as an old friend at the HERALD office.

—If you have an organ out of repair, leave your order at Dr. Johnson's Drug Store, and get it repaired.

—Our esteemed fellow citizen Gen. E E. Cunningham returned from the Black Hills a few days ago. He reports his business there as very prosperous indeed and has great faith in the mineral prospects of the Hills. On account of the continued ill health of Mrs. Cunningham her Physician has advised a winter in Florida and after a short visit to her relatives in Falls City herself and the General will proceed to some point in Florida where Mrs. C. will spend the winter.

The General returns to Plattsmouth again for a short time and then to the Black Hills.

Through all the many changes of political life, through all the fierce and savage contests of partisan warfare, as a man and a citizen no person ever residing here has stood higher or made warmer and truer friends than Gen. E. E. Cunningham. No man in the state has been better or more widely abused, no man ever took it more bravely. True to his friends, true to his word to those friends, he was always able to call on them in the time of need.

The HERALD did not always agree with General Cunningham nor approve of some of the methods he used towards success and always told him so frankly, squarely face to face, but when we compare him with some of the so called guns who have figured in politics in Nebraska, and who want to be known as great leaders they sink to utter insignificance. He was an untiring worker and had the courage of a Lion. He deserved better of Neb. than he has received. Now he says "Thank God I have left all politics behind me, it is an ungrateful unthankful business at best."

When the HERALD comes to say good bye to General Cunningham, we shall feel that we are saying good-bye to a friend, a gentleman, and in many respects a very able man.

With all thy faults, dear General, we love thee still, and if money will do you any good, and our wishes could aid you, we only hope the famous hills may empty her richest golden treasure in your—hat.

—Sage Brothers have just received a very handsome lot of new nickel plated Argand base burner hard coal stoves. Perfect beauties.

—See organ ad in another coulumn.

—If you want a fine organ, with valuable improvements, give me a call.

JAMES PETTEE, Ag't.

—Mr. Schnasse, our enthusiastic German Wisconsin friend, returned home last evening from a visit to Watertown and east to buy goods. We expect the old store will soon look like a Depot in the Centennial grounds last summer, it'll be so full of customers looking at new goods.

Consumption can be CURED

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.
Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic.
Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Are the only medicine that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Frequently medicines that will stop a cough will occasion the death of the patient; they lock up the liver, stop the circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and in fact they clog the action of the very organs that cause the cough.

Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of Consumption. Many persons complain of a pain in the side, constipation, coated tongue, pain in the shoulder blade, feeling of drowsiness and restlessness, the food lying heavy on the Stomach, accompanied with acidity and belching up of wind.

These Symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver.

Persons so effected, if they take one or two heavy colds, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly checked, will find the Stomach and liver clogged, remaining torpid and inactive; and almost before they are aware the lungs are a mass of sores, and ulcerated the result of which is death.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain opium or anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic dissolves the food mixes with the gastric juices of the stomach aids digestion and creates a ravenous appetite.

When the bowels are costive, skin sallow, or the Symptoms otherwise of a bilious tendency, Schenck's Mandrake Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared only by

J. H. SCHENCK & SON
