LOCAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

Transient, 25 cents a line. Regular advertisers, 10 cents per line. No advertisement inserted for less than 25 cents.

Legal notices at Statute rates.

Attorneys and officers of the law will be held responsible for all legal notices they hand in, and all parties demanding a proof of publication of any notice will be held for the publication fee of such notice.

COMMUNICATIONS.

As our space is limited, all communications must be brief and to the point, with no waste of words.

The paper is responsible for the correctness according to copy of paid matter and paid Legals, only.

1. Any person who takes the paper regularly from the post-office, whether directed to his name, or whether he is a subscriber or not—is responsible for the pay.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of INTENTIONAL FRAUD.

LOCAL NEWS.

—And still it comes!

The Beautiful Snow!

—Two inches this morning?

—The river is full of floating ice.

—Good Templar's Socials to-day 21st!

—Liederkeanz Ball on the 14th of April.

—Jno. B. Finch will be here next Monday.

—Go to the Platte Valley for good cheap board.

—Mr. Beckner has closed out his stock of goods.

—The Platte Valley House is the hotel to stop at.

—The beautiful snow still lingereth on the hill-side.

—Morrison's boat is again anchored at the foot of Main Street.

—The First National Bakery is the place to stop for a No. 1 meal.

—A ghastly sight was that of the unknown man killed Monday night.

—Stadelman's House, the only first class Hotel and Restaurant in town.

—Goerder's—Goerder's Agricultural Implement yard. Finest lot in town.

—Fitzgerald has not obtained his thousand dollars bail yet and therefore lies in Jail.

—We see our friend, Mr. S. S. Hinkle, is moving into the house just vacated by Mr. Newton.

—Guthman has just received a large lot of new goods—store full. Now is the time to buy cheap.

—Fred Goerder, the Agricultural Implement man of the county is now ready with his Spring Implements.

—R. Sherwood has added two silver mounted show cases to his shop which displays to advantage his new stock of fine shoes.

—The Watchman made its last issue in Plattsmouth last week; and goes to Council Bluffs the first of the month as a six column Daily. Such is life.

Elam Parmele has got a new thorough-bred Bus, and a white hat; a pedigreed hat. The Bus is a beauty and much needed here. The hat—well ask the women about that.

—"Old Missouri—all the way from Pike," will appear next week if the writer sends his name here. We cannot print anonymous communications for the best friend we have on earth.

—Misses Herrmann & Wurl are receiving their new stock of Spring Millinery of which they will give further account next week. They will be happy to have their patrons call and examine the new styles.

—Chas. Viall was brought out on Habeas Corpus on Saturday and he was admitted to bail in $500. On Monday Messrs. Peter Eveland, Israel Ward and Rodney Andrews gave the required bail and Viall is free until court sets.

—The members of the Plattsmouth Sportsmen's Club will take notice that a meeting of the Club, will be held at the office of Sam M. Chapman, on Saturday evening next, 22d inst, at 7 o'clock, P. M., for the transaction of general business. S. M. CHAPMAN, President.
JNO. O'ROURKE, Secretary.

—We see we are to have no chance to rest our "tired brain" after all. For six years our contemporary, the Watchman, has overshadowed and weighed us down with his profound knowledge of grammar, and now that weight is about to be removed, our cotemporary number two by his magnificent efforts in the spelling line, as exemplified in his last issue, will tire us out again, and we must struggle once more under the different burden of trying to equal our cotemporary "on the spell." As Samantha Allan says: "It's wearin' on us."

New Styles, Bottom Prices.

Parties wanting information in regard to Styles, Terms, &c., of MASON & HAMLIN ORGANS will please notice that I shall be at Plattsmouth most of the time for three or four weeks and ready to reply promptly to any calls by postal or otherwise. As my operations extend through several Counties and take me away much of the time it will be to the advantage of persons interested to communicate with me at once. JAMES PETTEE,
Special Agent Mason & Hamlin Organ Company.
Plattsmouth, Neb., March 19, 1879.

Personal.

Mr. Vandeman, our float member of the Legislature, called on Friday last. We regret not being in to see him.

We neglected to make mention last week of the return of Mr. Hermann Smith to his home, perfectly restored, we are very glad to hear, in health.

F. Ingwerson, one of our best Weeping Water subscribers called Tuesday and made the HERALD feel that there are lots of good folks left in Cass Co.

Just Arrived at Guthman's,

A large stock of Spring Goods, Dry-Goods and Notions in abundance. Call and examine.

—Dr. McCrea hands us the following which was clipped from a Muscatine paper by his son. It looks as if the gay grasshopper were still abroad:

Grasshoppers—F. Johnson, who resides on the Illinois side of the river, opposite this city, came to town yesterday, to do his trading in the best market between St. Louis and St. Paul. On his way, and when near the bluff beyond, his attention was called to myriads of grasshoppers which were emerging from their winter quarters, called forth perhaps by the genial sunshine. He gathered an envelope full, which he exhibited to the astonished gaze of the curious. The "animals" were about half grown, as fat as fleas and as lively as crickets. The question naturally propounds itself, what shall be done to stay the ravages of these pestiferous marauders, which threatens to be enormous?

Sensible Words.

We regret to see the indifference which many men of influence and intelligence here in our midst exhibit to the habit of liquor drinking. It is a vice second to none. It is the cause of the greatest proportion of the woes and wrongs of society. Since slavery has been abolished, intemperance may be called the sum of all villianies. There is no denial of the terrors which the liquor traffic inflicts. Everybody grants it; and yet, there are so many who affect to think it a weakness to mention it. There are men who are going down hill every day of their lives, through the use of Whisky; their friends know and see it; they talk about it, and mourn with each other over the sad prospect; and yet these same unfortunate men will resent any unfriendly allusion to an old whisky bottle, as quick as they would an attack upon the honor of their homes. Men who are conscious of every social and moral dereliction are blind as bats to the overwhelming evils of whisky drinking. Everything else they can eloquently discuss and perhaps denounce, but that vice, they will support with their money and influence.

It is high time every such man were calling a halt and asking himself if his influence in this matter is on the side of good—for the honor and welfare of his family, friends and society? It is the greatest question he can propound, and takes precedence of politics, railroads, bridges, in fact, everything, for there is no prosperity that intemperance will not poison or kill.

This community needs to think of this matter. Any thoughtful observer can see the victims of this vice going down one by one To rescue them, the friendly influence of every well-meaning citizen should be continually exerted. UNION.

From Rock Bluffs.

"Boss Eaton, of Rock Bluffs, has turned out a full-fledged doctor, and is now practicing."

"Mike" Archer says that in case of amputation of a canine's caudal appendage the application of the Boss's Green Mountain Salve will cause a new tail to grow to the dog, and a new dog to the old tail. How is that for sticking? J. W.

The Cass County Agricultural Society.

An adjourned meeting of the Cass County Agricultural Society, will be held at the County Judge's office, on Saturday, March 22, 1879, to hear report of committee on locating Fair Grounds, and to transact important business. A full attendance is requested. D. H. WHEELER, Pres't.
J. N. WISE, Sec'y.

Lumber, Lumber.

Mr. Richey, of the firm of Cummins & Richey, is here now, and in a few days our lumber will be here and the yard open. We expect to have as good a stock and sell as low as is possible for lumber to be sold in this market. We invite our friends to call and see us, examine our stock when it comes and see if we make our words good.
CUMMINS & RICHEY.

Settlement Notice.

Having gone out of both the Store and Lumber Yard business, I earnestly request all my customers, patrons, and debtors to please come up and settle their accounts. I do not want to sue; I do not want to make any man or friend expense; but I must have my business settled up at once. I therefore give notice that all accounts due me must be settled up, by note or otherwise, within 30 days, or they will be placed in the hands of a collector, with orders to be sued.
Respectfully, J. V. WECKBACH,

Good Bye.

PLATTSMOUTH, March 19, '79.

DEAR PUBLIC:—At last our friend, the Watchman, is going to leave us.—Friends and countrymen if you have tears to shed, prepare to shed them now.

For nearly seven years we have fought bled and died side by side every year, and now he's going off to leave us all alone, to conquer or get "busted." Although Mr. MacDonagh and ourselves have very often disagreed on local affairs, public matters, politics, religion, grammar, weary brains, and numerous other things, we have never had one serious personal quarrel. Although he is known to be good looking and we are homely, we have never called each other "idiot," more than once or twice, "scoundrel," seldom, and "darned fool," never, no never, that is hardly ever. Perhaps two County papers, so diverse in everything, or different in views and opinions never did exist side by side and have so little unmanly quarrelling.

All joking aside, we shall be very sorry to part with Little Mac. Time, which accustoms us to everything, has made his presence dear to our heart, and we hope he may succeed beyond his most boundless desires in his new venture. There is one thing we know he will do,—wake Council Bluffs up for awhile anyway.

Well, old boy, here's our ; come and see us often; give us fits when you feel like it. Call us "tired" and send us your paper chuck full of news.

Au Revoir, Watchy.

MACMURPHY,

SPRING IS COMING!

LIKEWISE THE TIME FOR SPRING HATS!

Of Which Mrs. Johnson and Miss Sweeney have a Full Supply.

Mrs. Johnson and Miss Sweeney have removed to Dr. Black's building, corner Main and 6th Sts., which they have fitted up in fine style, having purchased two handsome double show-cases to help accommodate their constantly increasing stock. They have received their first installment of Millinery and fancy goods, among which are the following:

Handsome pattern hats, one a cap shape in white straw trimmed with pale blue silk, white lace, delicate pink and white roses, exquisitely natural, and with rever on one side of garnet velvet; another in black with pipings of cherry and gold colored silk alternating, the frame turned up in front and at the side; a third in black ribbon with edge of brocaded ribbon, and flowers to match, and many others;

A complete assortment of flowers to which they will be constantly adding;

Ornaments in brilliants, something new;

Children's hats and baby's caps and bonnets;

All kinds and shapes of spring hats, and more on the road;

In their fancy goods department are:

A complete assortment of cardboard and card designs, including needle books, card baskets, mottoes, card cases, match safes, watch cases, &c.;

An assortment of newest styles in buttons, Japanese, pearl, &c.;

Silk handkerchiefs, from 25c to 95c;

Kid gloves, 6-button, $2.00 per pair;

Ruchings, ties, laces, ribbon, and a complete stock of fancy goods;

Butterick patterns;

Call and see them and learn the latest styles.

$4.50
Boots made to order at Merges for $4.50.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds, and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.
