THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

LOCAL MATTERS.

Notices in this Column 10 Cents a Line

—Don't fail to subscribe for the CHIEF before March 14th.

—Garber's store was crowded full last Saturday. Traders brought money up.

—Most of the schools in the county will close within the next two weeks.

—The School School closes one week from tomorrow.

—Mr. A. Bailey of Goude Rock led the class in History very satisfactorily last Saturday.

—John Stabler of Hastings called the other day. Look out for a big "D" next week.

—Mr. Beiler's smiling face is about town every day and the way he sells plows is a caution to the uninitiated.

—Miss Janie Pryse read an interesting essay on "Wit and Humor" before the association of teachers last week.

—John Garber is at home again looking finely. He says that he likes home better than he did his place in Kansas.

—Some of teachers were fairly jubilant over Mr. Kaley's lecture before the Teacher's Association last Saturday evening.

—Lit and Ed Notes, is the name of the new paper stated at Kearney and is an interesting spicy little sheet. We hope it will succeed.

—The boys appear lost for a rendezvous since the new man took charge of the key, that unlocked the door down at the corner.

—Now they are coming. Who? Why the covered wagons every day some are stopping with us, others going up the valley, and others going to Kansas.

—Mr. W. N. Richardson bought eighteen hogs last week of one man, which averaged 425 lbs. each. Copy this, and show us a better feeding by any one person.

—Mr. Geo. W. Francis one of our most enterprising farmers from Stillwater called on us the other day, left a local, and subscribed for two papers, paying in advance.

—Mr. Calvert has sold his farm to J. D. Miner for $900. Mr. Calvert intends to move to town and devote himself to his trade. He proposes to build a dwelling house this spring.

—Stabler and Deisher of Hastings brought in three loads of agricultural implements last Thursday, and two more on Saturday. They have a salesman here on the spot all the time.

—Mr. Coon made us a pleasant call last Saturday. He hesitated about shaking hands with his right hand because there was money in it, but he quickly passed it and gave us a cordial grip.

—If you do not see the items that you wish to see, remember the editor has to get his information from hundreds of sources, and a little from you when we meet, will help to make up the sum total of an interesting local column,

—At a meeting of the Educational Board, to provide a cemetery south of the river, Mr. J. Boganrief was chosen chairman, and J. B. Stanser, secretary and J. Street treasurer. The board divided the terms of its members so that one-third retire in one, two, and three years each. A committee was appointed to prepare by laws. The work of fencing the ground will commence soon. Here is an example for Red Cloud. Go and do likewise.

—The discussion is over and again we are quiet. What good or what evil was accomplished, only eternity will reveal. The topic of discussion was "Vicarious Atonement." Rev. Pryse the first evening read his proof texts, leaving his opponent to disprove them, which instead of doing, he tried to make out how inconsistent God must be, if such things took place. The second evening the arrangements was prepared before hand. During the afternoon the chairman was proposed, and agreed upon, and it was also agreed by some that if a certain minister attempted to speak they would stamp him down and put him out of doors. Well so matters progressed until evening and the debate commenced. During some of Mr. Field's remarks, he was called to order by Rev. Maxwell, (which has since been submitted to be perfectly proper) and the racket commenced for a few moments Rev. Pryse, was on the floor and after much yelling, stamping, cries of "Down in front" order and quiet was restored and the debate went on. Mr. Fields maintained his equilibrium through it all for which we commend him, while on the other hand the indiscretion of our ministers came near bringing about what their opponents desired, a complete overthrow. Nevertheless we believe truth will prevail in our midst. The Spiritualists have added nothing to their strength, their attempted manifestations having failed to produce much wonderment or consternation among the people. We believe in spirit manifestations, but the spirit of the word of God and of his Christ call the spirit that makes itself manifest to man in his sane moments. We do not ask any one to accept our statements, unless they can endorse them, as they are our own, expressed as such, and not for another.

—Why certainly they are for sale! We mean that large lot of agricultural implements that Stabler & Deisher, the wholesale dealers at Hastings, sent down to be sold by our friend Heller. Buy of Mr. H. and you will not have to pay the half dozen commissions that are added when you buy of petty local agents but will get all the benefits of the wholesale emporium of Stabler & Deisher. Look out for the big ad. next week.

—Another colony, this time from Lewistown Miffin Co. Penn. are looking westward, and Webster Co. is the objective point. Messrs. Albright friends of Mr. Kaley, and W. H. Strohm Att'y. at Law and Dist. Att'y for his district, were here looking after lands upon which to locate the colony. They went up the river to look further.

—Among the late arrivals are from Clark, Co. Iowa, friends of H. S. Kaley, who came in last Saturday. Mr. Henry R. Simons and family, Stroub and Luther Rothrock, and Mr. Decker, who will take lands in our vicinity. Other families will follow these in a few weeks.

—Mr. C. W. Fiske is making the finishing repairs upon Mr. Miner's store building, putting in counters and shelves. The repairs in plastering have been made by Mr. Ludlow. Mr. Miner will put in a stock of goods the first of April.

—A suit was brought in Court against Dist. No. 25 and a demurrer was brought against a judgment in favor of the plaintiff, the demurrer was sustained, on account of some technical error in the petition.

—There seems no end, Cloverton is having its full of new settlers. Holgate, and Fisher, are among the new names there, and many others beside these, who are buying the railroad lands.

—The place to buy harness, saddles whips, brushes, collars & etc is at J. L. Mileer shop (sign of the BIG COLLAR) who carries the largest stock in the valley.

—Next week we shall commence the publication of a series of articles from Rev. J. M. Pryse on the Teaching of History from the earliest period.

—Mr. M. B. Thompson, our banker from Beatrice, is here and ready for business. He is locating himself in Mr. Richardson's new building.

—The new lamps at the school house add much to its appearance, and to the comfort of the audiences that gather there from time to time.

—Go to the Ladies Home Mission society, meeting at Mrs Bentleys this afternoon. Sociable this evening.

—Still they come. The Gregory Bros, and friends are looking over the county for land. They are from Illinois.

—The Sabbath School is increasing in interest very much under the superintendence of Mrs Howard.

—Our town is full of strangers attending court and buying railroad land.

—The town was full of teachers on Saturday, and the exercises of the Institute were varied and interesting.

—Jas. Laird, of Juniata, Ash, of Hastings, Childs, of Riverton, are among the lawyers in town this week.

—Look out for a big immigraton. The signs are portentous of a big rush

—Subscribe for the CHIEF NOW so as to get the first enlarged number

—Court is in session this week.

The Western Rural.

The Western Rural of Chicago, is rapidly growing in popularity and influence, for the enterprising and aggressive spirit it manifests. Its several departments are full of interest and admirably adapted to all the interests of the Farm and the Fireside. It advocates equal rights to all classes, and strongly opposes the encroachments of capital and the grinding monopolies which tend to get a foothold in our land. The summary of general news and market reports is excellent. In fact, the Western Rural has assumed the vantage ground as being the foremost of its kind in this country. We are not surprised that its circulation and influence are rapidly extending.

ILLUSTRATION BY PICTURES.—One of the great contrasts between the School Books used by the fathers and mothers of the land, when young, and those now used by the children, is the use of pictures. As a curious instance of illustrating the meaning of words by pictures, look at the three pictures of a Ship on page 1751 of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary,—these alone illustrate the meaning of more than one hundred words and terms far better than they can be defined by any description in words.

New Era.

The time has come when a man may know that he will get value received for every dollar that he invests. Quacks and humbugs are soon ventilated and are compelled to take a back seat, or be crushed by the wheel of progress. An article must possess real merit—must be what it is represented to be. Or, like the mushroom at noon-day, it will soon wither and die in the radiance of the brilliant discoveries of modern science. O. & C.'s Cough and Diphtheria Remedy can always be relied on. It allays the irritation or tickling of the throat, renders expectoration easy and opens the secretions. It is guarranteed to do all that it is advertised to or the money refunded to the purchaser. C. H. Potter, agent. 5-18-2m
