LOCAL MATTERS.

All local advertisements ordered in for an indefinite time, will be regularly charged up each week until ordered out.

Red Cloud will soon have waterworks.

Ratification meetings are now in order.

A large crowd of people were in town last Saturday, and trade was good.

W. N. Richardson started to Chicago last Monday with a few cars of stock.

Blanks of all kinds constantly kept on hand and for sale at the CHIEF office.

This part of the footstool was the recipient of a splendid rain last Saturday evening.

Bring along your job work, our facilities for job printing are unsurpassed in the west.

We want news from all parts of the county, don't be backward about sending it along.

Positively the largest stock of millinery ever brought to Red Cloud, at Mrs. Fowler's.

The Rev. Geo. O. Yeiser will preach at Guide Rock next Sabbath morning and afternoon.

The nominee for vice presidency, with the average republican, goes down with a big gulp.

We have heard of a number of farmers who plowed up their wheat fields and planted them to corn.

The dance at the Valley House on Friday night of last week came near breaking up with a disgraceful row.

Justices of the Peace will find it to their interest to interview the CHIEF when in need of blanks of any kind.

We saw more smiling faces on Saturday after the rain than we have had the pleasure of looking upon for some time.

Mrs. Gore departed last week for Illinois, where she will spend two or three months visiting friends and relatives.

We learn that in the south part of the county the rain on last Saturday was accompanied by considerable hail which did some damage to growing crops.

Get sick and then have one of those nobby prescription blanks filled out for you. They can be found at both the drug stores, and were printed at the CHIEF job room.

Dr. Sellers advertises in the CHIEF this week. His office is up stairs, first door south of the bank, where those wishing to avail themselves of his services can find him at all times.

To every old or new subscriber who pays a year in advance, we will give one of Kendall's horse books, which alone is worth the price of the paper a year, to any man who owns a horse. This offer only hold good until July 4th.

The semi-annual apportionment of school funds, from the state, gives to Webster county $2,235.98. This money will be divided among the districts in the county that have supported three months school during the last school year.

The bridge over Cedar creek just south of the river bridge was reported washed out by the flood last Saturday and, the river bottom on the south side was entirely submerged, causing a number of people who reside over there to remain in town until Sunday.

Three farmers from the north-east part of the county called last Thursday. They report that wheat has not been injured by the drouth as much as was at first supposed. Several fields of wheat in that part of the county bids fair to yield ten bushels per acre.

A number of the young men about town have taken it into their heads to organize a Gymnasium. Mr. Gore has ordered a couple of pairs of boxing gloves and a pair of fencing foils to be used by the boys in their scientific exercises. We hope the boys will push the matter on to success.

A law has been passed, we understand, allowing homesteaders and preemptors in north-western Kansas and Nebraska to absent themselves from their claims until October 1881. We are glad to note that very few if any holding claims in this part of the country will care to avail themselves of the leave of absence.

Rev. Dr. Lemon preached the dedication sermon at the M. E. church last Sabbath. A collection was taken immediately after the sermon to see how much could be raised towards wiping out the debt of $300 yet hanging over the church. Half the amount of the debt was promptly subscribed and a goodly share of it paid at the time.

The festival given by the ladies of the congregational church last Thursday night was not as well attended as it should have been, owing to the disagreeable weather, but about $30 was realized. Great credit is due Mrs. Bent, Mrs. R. D. Jones, Mrs. J. W. Warren, Mrs. Putnam and others for their untiring efforts and the zeal with which they worked to make a success of the undertaking..

Uncle Jack Rennecker was in town last Monday and gave us an account of the storm at his place on Saturday, He says that every window in his house, including the sash was broken out by the hail, and that 50 head of hogs were carried away by the flood and drowned. The creek was higher than was ever known before,his corral and stock yards were considerably damaged. Mr. Rennecker says that he is of the opinion that the old man has a particular spite at him.

Arrangements are being made to keep down the dust on our streets, and we sincerely hope they will be successful. A tank is being erected longside of the liberty pole that will have a capacity of 110 barrels of water. Pipes will be laid along the center of the streets, and at convenient distances hose will be attached. This arrangement will prove effective in the event of a fire and will make the sprinkling of the streets an easy matter.

The census enumerator called at the CHIEF office last week and engaged our foreman in conversation. The census man was after "statistical facts." The following are some of the questions asked and the answers given:

Do you always go to Sunday school?
Yes.
Are the Red Cloud girls pretty?
Most emphatically.
Can you drink much rattle-belly-pop? (Soda water.)
You bet.
Do you give all your money to the poor?
Yes.
Have you reason to believe that Mr. Johnson is in love?
Yes.
Do you ever "irrigate"?
No.
Were you ever married?
No.
Have you any children?
Not that I know of.
Ever have diagremscruits, corns, itch or bed-bugs?
No.
Do you ever flirt?
Most assuredly not.
Do you ever steal chickens?
No.
Did you ever tell a lie except when it was your professional duty to do so?
No, never—well hardly ever.
Do you ever sit up after ten o'clock?
No.
Were you ever fishing on Sunday?
N—o.
Do you covet your neighbor's wife, his ox and his ass?
No sir.
Did you leave the east to escape a breach of promise suit?
No siree.
Will you vote for Garfield and Arthur.
'Spect so.

At this point the census taker quietly folded his papers, and upon leaving remarked that he had never known of such virtue, no never!

THE NEXT PRESIDENT.

(From the Omaha Republican.)

The news of the nomination of Gen. Garfield for president by the republican convention was received in Omaha yesterday with great enthusiasm by the republicans, who had pretty much given up all hope of seeing either Grant or Blaine nominated. Inquiry among the republicans shows that the nomination of Garfield gives general satisfaction.

Gen. Manderson, who is from Ohio, said to a Republican reporter: It is a most excellent nomination. Garfield has been in public life for over a quarter of a century, and for twenty years he has been in congress. His military record is brilliant. Early in the war, while a colonel, he won his brigadier's commission by a substantial victory over Humphrey Marshall in Kentucky, and when nominated for congress, he was on General Rosencrans' staff, in the army of the Cumberland. His nomination was made without his knowledge, and was equivalent to election, the district being largely republican. He hesitated some time before accepting it. He was elected by an increased majority, and has remained in congress ever since. His election to the United States senate was as complimentary, in regard to being unsought, as was his nomination to congress, and also his nomination to the presidency yesterday. While at Chicago I had hourly talks with his friends and Garfield himself, and I know the nomination was unsought, and that he did everything in his power to prevent such a result.

Ex-Senator Hitchcock, who graduatd at William's college with Garfield in 1856, said: He suits me as well as man possibly could next to Grant, who was my choice long before Garfield was thought of. I have known Garfield for thirty years, and have been in congress with him, and have always been his warm friend. I have got every confidence in him, and know him to be a statesman, a man of ability, and amply qualified to fill the presidential chair with honor and success.

Hon. John C. Cowin, who is an Ohio man, said: I used to go to school to Garfield. He is emphatically a self-made man—an American in every sense of the word. When hostillities broke out between the north and south, he was the first to call a public meeting and address the people upon their duty. At one time he ran away from home and drove a team on a canal tow-path; he was afterwards induced to attend district school. He then went to the Hiram institute, where he was at first regarded as a green, over-grown boy. But he soon took the lead. He then went to Williams college, and there graduated. Upon his return, he was elected president of Hiram Institute, and that's where I first met him. While president of this institute he was elected a senator of the Ohio legislature, and was in the legislature when the war broke out. He went into the war as colonel of the 42d Ohio regiment. At the battle of Stone River he was complimented in special orders by General Hancock for his gallant conduct. Since the war his record is well known. He has always been a public man, and a successful one. At one time he was preacher of the Campbellite persuasion, but the only preaching he ever did was while he was president of the Hiram institute.

Hon. J. L. Webster said: The nomination of Garfield is the best that could have been made, except that of Blaine, who was my choice. I have known Garfield for fifteen years. He is a statesman who has an unimpeachable record. He will do more to bring about a harmonious feeling in the republican party than any other man. All factions will heartily unite in his support. I have the highest admiration for him. He is a self-made man.

Dr. Miller, editor of the Herald, said: I concede that the nomination of Garfield is a respectable one, and in some respects a strong one. Garfield is a man of marked ability, and is a fair man.

To all who contemplate buying stoves, we would refer them to the assortment of Besley & Perkins. Bought before the advance, and will not be undersold.

A NEBRASKA BLOW.

In this country it is nothing unusual to experience a blow, it can be expected at any time, so we perhaps will be pardoned if we indulge in a little blow on our own hook, about the first class grocery store of Perkins & Mitchell. It should be remembered that they keep in stock only first class goods, and to this fact is due, in a great measure, the immense popularity of this firm that has built up an immense trade during the comparatively short time that they have been here. For good goods and low prices you will always find it to your interest to call on Perkins & Mitchell.

Besley & Perkins are prepared to fill all orders for first class PUMPS. They have just received a large supply of wind mill and force pumps, and will put them in at bottom figures.

Don't fail to go to the Nimble Six-pence grocery if you want flour, meal or corn. 45t3

J. M. SELLERS, Physician and Surgeon, late of Pennsylvania, wishes to say to the people of Webster county that he has located in Red Cloud, to engage in a general practice of medicine. Particular attention given to surgery, chronic diseases and diseases of the eye and ear. I have for several years been treating Hernia and Piles, of which I perform a radical cure. Will answer all calls night or day.

BLUE HILL ITEMS.

JUNE 14th, 1880.

EDITOR CHIEF—We have plenty of rain now, and on the evening of the 8th we had a little hail storm a few miles east, they are said to have fell as large as a man's fist.

Jesse Carry and Charles Ranney returned from a trip up the Republican a few days ago, they reported things very dry.

J. B. Curry and wife left for Illinois on the 8th, they thought they could find a place where there was more rain and not quite so much wind.

The wedding of Dr. Lee and Miss Emma Brown last Thursday, excited quite a little talk, as it was very unexpected. It is believed that they have departed for parts unknown.

Also William Fuller and Miss Fannie Daue, were joined in the Holy bonds of matrimony on the same day.

Our town has two saloons, and another one building, and we are sorry to say, no church or school house. Beer seems to be a necessity, but school and church only a luxury.

Most of the farmers have given up a wheat crop for this year, we will have to live on jonhycake and sorgum next winter. B. B.

If You Want Bargains

Call at Newhouse's, where you can get white goods, ginghams, shirtings, dress goods, flannels, doeskins, jeans, hosiery, carpets, hamburgs, toilet sets, ruches, toys, groceries, and a great variety of other goods very cheap for cash. These goods will be closed out, call early and get bargains. 37tf F. NEWHOUSE.

Soda or Saleratus, like port wine, can be made almost any price, which is done by using cheap and deleterious substances. J. Monroe Taylor's Gold Medal Soda or Saleratus, is perfectly pure and unadulterated, and one paper will convince any intelligent lady that there is nothing equal to it. It will produce one-eighth more bread than any other; and much better to use with cream tartar. Grocers and Druggists sell it.

It is with no small degree of satisfaction that we announce to the readers of the CHIEF and the people generally, that Mr. T. J. Mosher has again taken charge of the meat market formerly owned and operated by him. In again taking charge of the business at the old stand, he wishes to say to the public that the same square dealing which has characterized his business relations with them in the past, will be continued in the future, and the people can always depend on getting the very best meats, sausages, fowls &c., at the old stand, that the country produces. 2-w

Ball are defendants, in accordence with said order I shall offer for sale at public auction, at the east door of the Court House, in Red Cloud, of said county, on Saturday, the 26th day of June, A. D. 1880, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon the following described property to-wit:

The west half of the north-west quarter, and the west half of the south-west quarter, of Sec. twenty, (20) Township two, (2) north of Range twelve (12) west, of the sixth P. M., in said county of Webster, and State of Nebraska.

Given under my hand this 26th day of May, 1880. J. W. WARREN, Sheriff.

LEGAL NOTICE.

Whereas Henry Jennings and Elizabeth Jennings, his wife, parents and lawful guardeans of Sarah Rowland a minor, did on the 17th day of may 1880, make a statement in writing duly sworn to and subscribed in the presence of two witnesses before me, C. W. Kaley, County Judge in and for webster county Neb., that they voluntarily reliquish all right to the custody and power and control over Sarah Rowland, a minor child, to the end that the said Sarah Rowland shall be fully adopted by W. E. Jackson, of Red Cloud Nebraska.

And whereas the said W. E. Jackson did on the same date make a statement in writing duly sworn to and subscribed before me in the presence of two witnesses that he freely and voluntarily adopts the said Sarah Rowland as his own child, and has made application to this court for a decree of adoption in accordance with said lost mentioned statement.

Now therefore all persons interested in said matter are commanded to be and appear before me Charles W. Kaley, County Judge in and for Webster county, on the 14 day of June, A. D. 1880, to show cause if any there be why such decree should not be granted. And publication hereof shall be made in the Red Cloud CHIEF, a paper published and of general circulation, in said county for three consecutive weeks from date hereof.

Dated at Red Cloud, Neb., May 19, A. D. 1880.

CHAS. W. KALEY, County Judge.

In and for Webster Co., Nebraska.
