The days are growing shorter at both ends.

An abundance of hay has been put up in this county this fall.

David Lutz orated at the Hummel school house last Saturday night.

We notice that a number of our farmers are sowing winter wheat this fall.

Hon. Martin Garber, of Iowa, arrived last week and is visiting relatives here.

Work on the court house vault is in progress; the foundations are already laid.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at Mrs. M. L. Thomas' next Friday afternoon at four o'clock.

The Greenback meeting held at the court house in this burg last Friday night was rather slimly attended.

Work on the round house at the depot commenced last Tuesday and will be pushed rapidly to completion.

We notice that a number of our citizens are taking an interest in putting down sidewalks, which we are glad to see.

Trade is livening up, now is the time to advertise your goods, and in the CHIEF is the place to plant your advertisements.

The price of hard coal is so outlandish high that people who have hard coal stoves wish that they had some other kind.

W. C. Gilham, familliarly called "Charley," is our authorized agent to receive subscriptions to the CHIEF and receipt for the same.

From the Cleaveland Ohio Leader we learn of the death, at the age of 82 years of Mr. Horace Scoville. Mr. Scoville was the father of Mrs. Jacob Wiggins, of this place.

Mr. Daniel Mearns left at our office a sample of sorghum molasses last week, of his own manufacture, that surpasses anything in that line that we have seen. Mr. Mearus has evidently found out the secret of making clear and pure syrup.

We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to the wedding reception of Mr. Jeseph Cadwallader and Mrs. A. A. White, G. W. V. T. of Nebraska. The reception was given by the Temple of Honor and Good Templars of Lincoln, last Monday, and was doubtless a grand affair. Sorry we could not be present.

The hungry crowd who went to Cowles from this place last Saturday night to talk politics, had the good fortune to enjoy the privilege of partaking of a most excellent supper prepared by the skilled hands of the accomplished Mrs. J. M. Callender, and all come away feeling that we had been entertained most royaly, and secretly wishing that we might soon have on excuse for repeating our visit in the near future.

To whom it may concern:—It is expected that J. B. Finch, the champion temperance lecturer will be in Webster county the first of November, and will hold temperence meeting in diferent places in the county, the lodges now organized are requested to correspond with A. Wells, D. D., also temperence men if there are any who would favor the organization of lodges at Guide Rock, Amboy, Blue Hill and Cowles please correspond with the undersigned at Cowles. A. WELLS, D. D.

A large and appreciative audience greeted the speakers at the school house in Cowles last Saturday night. Mr. Stephen Bayless was chosen chairman and Mr. S. C. Smith opened the meeting with a short speech. The editor of the CHIEF was then called upon, and made a few semarks, excusing himself from making any extended remarks on account of the arrangement that had been made allowing Mr. Thos. J. Ward to occupy his time in the meeting. Mr. J. S. Gilham then delivered a sound and logical address of an hour and a half, after which Mr. Ward made a short speech and the meeting closed. Everyone seemed well pleased with the speech of Mr. Gilham, and went home to ponder over the facts therein set forth, until next Saturday night when they will all turn out to the democratic rally at that place and hear the other side of the question.

Little Blue Items.

WELLS P. O., Webster Co., Neb.

Word was extended to the people of the north part of the county that there would be a republican meeting at the school house near Wells P. O., on Saturday, Oct. 9th, 1880, to be addressed by some of our most prominent republicans of Red Cloud, and so interested were our people in the event, that a large crowd gathered at the two school houses, the one east and the other west of Wells P. O., to hear some of our ablest county orators, but after wating till past eight o'clock and no one appearing at either school house to address the large crowds that had gathered at each place, the crowd at west school house dispersed, some going home and a large number going over to the east place, and just as the crowd was dispersing here, and some had started for home, were met by the crowd from the west school house and in the mean time a large number from Cottonwood precint Adams county had arrived with Charles Coman. Mr. Coman is one of the fine young men of this section who is very well conversent with the two political parties and, who can command the attention of his hearers. Mr. Coman did entertain us for nearly two hours with as good a republican speech as I have heard in many days, rehearsing the history of the democratic party from 1856 to the present time, making comparisons of the two administrations with abundant proofs of his assertions, and handling the issues of the day with that judgement and tact not often found in men even who are much elder than he.

Mr. Coman was followed by Mr. Frank Coyle. Mr. Coyle has always been one of our strongest democrats. Now he told us last night why he could no longer vote that ticket, and when he told us that in November he would vote the republican ticket for the first time in his life, I thought the house would come down with the demonstration in cheering, claping of hands and stamping of feet, and Frank's many republican friends in this county as well as Adams, where he is now living will rejoice with us to hear of his being on the right side once in his life.

Mr. Coyle was followed by Mr. John May, of Wheatland. Mr. May said he had rather sing than speak, and accordingly sang one of the best campaign songs of the season. From the Toledo Blade. "The democrats do not want the soldiers at the poles, they are afraid."

John gave us that in good style, with his excellent voice. He made the old school house ring, Everyone went home well pleased with himself and everyone else, with a full determination to give the largest republican majority, or vote, ever polled in this part of the county.

We would like to hear our friends in Red Cloub speak, and any time when they can make it convenient to address us at either school house, all the advertising they need is to arrive here about two hours before the time, and we will get a goodly number out—all any one house will hold.

News items, like hens teeth, are scarce. A. Hoffman formerly A. Hoffman & Co., is doing a lively trade. He is selling goods cheap and is commanding a large trade.

The new store of A. Butler & Co., is now open with a good line of goods, they are having a good trade.

Mr. Soper, our blacksmith, has been sick for some time, he is convelescent now and will soon be in the shop again.

Mrs. Hoffman is in Iowa visiting her many friends.

Old man Wells took in the state fair, he says it was a big affair.

Mrs. Dickerson, mother of Mrs. John Wratten, and husband are visiting here. I have met Mr. Dickerson and think him a genial and pleasant man—one we would be proud to have as a citizen among us, but I presume he will not think of leaving his large farm in Illinois.

Mr. Wm B. Thorne, father of W. E. Thorne, has been very sick at his home in Juniata, but is slowly recovering. We hope to see him among us soon.

The broom corn harvest is nearly over, it is a paying crop this year, there was a large accerage planted, and the farmers are happy.

Mr. N. Yenson and son had out 160 acers of broom corn, they have sold at sixty-two dollars per ton.

Corn is better in this locality than any other part of the county, but it is not an average crop.

Our old neighbor, Legrand Thorne, brother of Wm. E. Thorne, is back to Nebraska again, and is living in Juniata he, like all the rest of the good men that have left Nebraska because it is too far west to ever amount to any thing, have found the state removed much father east, or rather the east moved to Nebraska.

Mr. Augusta Budlong of North Franklin, Franklin Co., buried his little daughter Saturday.

FILE LEFT.

The gentleman signing himself "Citizen" published in the CHIEF last week another letter reflecting upon the past conduct of Mr. H. S. Kaley. As Mr. Kaley is the nominee of the republican party of this county, for the office of representative it is to be expected that he will be assailed by his political enemies, and of course it is understood that the charges against him are made for the purpose of taking votes from him and to give them to the other fellow. This being the case, and Mr. Kaley being well known throughout the county, it would be superfluous for us to say anything in extenuation of his conduct in the past or of his honorable intentions for the future, and were it not for the fact that there might be some recent comers in the county whose votes might be influenced by those misrepresentations we would not make even this short denial of the charges that have been trumped up against one of our most honored and trusted citizens. The correspondent is evidently a believer in the theory that anything is fair in politics. We are willing, as is Mr. Kaley, also, we believe, to leave the result with the fair minded citizens of the county, confident that his character as an upright and honorable citizen will be fully vindicated by an overwhelming majority at the coming election.

I can say the Acme Steel Bard Fence Wire is just what it is advertised to be pig tight, bull strong, and horse high.
