A Foolish Mistake.

Don't make the mistake of confounding a remedy of merit with quack medicines. We speak from experience when we say that Parker's Ginger Tonic is a sterling health restorative which will do all that is claimed for it. We have used it ourselves with the happiest results for Rheumatism and when worn out by overwork. See adv.—Times.

WEEKLY NEBRASKA STATE JOURNAL

Has recently been enlarged to a Seven Column Quarto, and fitted out with an entire New Dress of Type. It is now the largest, handsomest, and published in the state. It contains all the news of the week, and is the only paper in the state that gives all Nebraska News. Subscription price, $1.50 per year, post paid. Address,

The Best Paper for Nebraskans

STATE JOURNAL CO.
LINCOLN, NEB.

Last Monday was a lovely day—to live under ground.

A prairie fire destroyed some hay on the south side of the river last week.

A. S. March went to Chicago last Friday for another large lot of new goods.

Of the 52 civil cases on the docket for this term of court, twelve are suits for divorce.

The ladies aid society will meet Friday afternoon at the residence of D. B. Spangler.

The B. & M. R. R. known as the Burlington Route, offers special attractions to travellers. See their advertisement in this paper.

The Germania Insurance Company of W. H. Seely, agent, have adjusted the loss on Mr. M. Shaw's house, which was burned last week. The house was insured in the Germania.

Mr. Seth Alter Comstock, a resident of this county, but now of Tacoma, Iowa, cannot get along without the CHIEF, and prefers to pay good cash the money to pay for it.

Every Sabbath school in Webster county should be represented in the Educational Institute which Co. Supt. Springer gives every week with interesting reading and information of importance to teachers.

A Superior woman didn't like to keep her money in the bank as she considered it unsafe so she carried it around in her stocking. She rather gave herself away the other day when she had a man arrested for stealing her greenbacks.

A petition asking for the pardon of Sergeant Mason who attempted to shoot Guiteau while in jail, and for his promotion to a captaincy in the regular army, may be found at the postoffice. About 200 names were signed in three days.

Jim Laird was seen on his knees in Red Cloud one day last week, the first time within the recollection of the "oldest inhabitant" that he had been seen in that position. He did not kneel to pray however, but to get out of a broken down hack.

Last Friday evening a large company of invited friends assembled at the court house hall for the purpose of passing an evening in pleasant social intercourse. The occasion being a birthday party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Albright and Mr. Reis V. Shirey, whose birthdays occurred on the 16th, 17th and 18th, respectively. Though we were obliged to decline an invitation to be present, it gives us pleasure to say that the affair was an enjoyable one. Refreshments were served in the hall and those present doubtless felt that the evening had been well spent.

The firm of Jones & Magee, lumber dealers, has recently been reorganized and incorporated under the name and style of "The Jones & Magee Lumber Company." The headquarters of the company will remain at Red Cloud, and will be, as heretofore, under the immediate supervision of Mr. R. D. Jones, who is well known as a business man of large ability and unquestionable integrity. The company desire to thank their patrons for past favors and to request a continuance of the same, with the assurance that the liberal dealings of the past will be continued in the future.

The commissioners closed the investigation of county records late last Saturday night, but so far as we have been able to learn they did not decide to give the public the result of their work. It appears that they made out a report and instructed the clerk to place it on the records, but made no arrangements to have it given to the public through the newspapers. The people of the county are interested in the result of the investigation, and would gladly pay the small cost of its publication, and we consider it unfair to the taxpayers to keep them in the dark as to the contents of the report, and also unfair to the newspapers to expect them to publish the document without pay. The cost of putting the matter in type, alone, would probably exceed $25.00 and it will be readily seen that newspapers cannot well afford to go to that expense when it is plainly the duty of the county commissioners to have the report published and to pay the actual cost of the same if no more. If the commissioners expect that the people will approve of their false ideas of economy in this matter, we opine they are badly mistaken. We will just say, lest some one should think that we are figuring for a job of printing, that we are willing to publish the report of the investigation free of charge if the county will pay the actual cost of putting it in type.

The following particulars of the death of Mrs. Edson, notice of which was made in the CHIEF last week, we clip from the Marengo, (Ills.) Republican.

Mrs. Clara Edson, of Red Cloud, Neb., died at the residence of her father, Mr. M. W. Foyer, near this village, on Sunday evening March 5th, aged 31 years, 5 months, and 23 days.

Mrs. Edson was an only daughter of M. W. Foyer, and a very amiable, excellent woman. She came here a few weeks since, for the benefit of her health, and for a time seemed to be benefited by the change of climate; but shortly after began to decline, and at last has gone the way of all the earth. Mr. Edson arrived from Nebraska last Saturday evening, and had the sad pleasure of being with his beloved wife during her last hours on earth. She leaves a husband and two children, her father, a brother, and many relatives to mourn her untimely death.

The funeral services were held at the residence of Mr. Foyer on Tuesday forenoon, Rev. J. K. Wheeler officiating. Her body was taken to Garden Prairie Cemetery, where her mother and other relatives are buried.

Educational Department.

Communications for this column should be addressed to Prof. W. W. Jones, county school supt. Red Cloud. Articles relating to school matters from any one are solicited and will be published if not too lengthy.

Notes from the Institute.

We saw several familiar faces from Webster Co. at the Institute.

Miss Victoria Morton has been teaching in Franklin county the past winter.

Hon. S. W. Salisbury delivered an able lecture before the Institute on the evening of the 10th inst. Subject, "Our Country." It was a good one, but we have not the room to give it in full.

Mr. C. L. Lees of Cohoes, spent a few days in the city last week. He reports the prospects good for a large attendance at the Normal next term.

Miss Julia M. Farrar of Grand Island, Neb., formerly of this county, is now in the Institute in Professor Hoose's class. She is a lady of much ability and a good teacher.

Mr. Frank Alter, formerly of Webster county, but now of Tacoma, Iowa, visited the Institute last week. He is now a student of the university, and is preparing himself for the work of a lawyer. We hope he will be with us next term.

Mr. Ira Hoover, formerly of this
