Mr. Magee, of the firm of Jones & Magee, lumber dealers, arrived from the east last Saturday. He will return to his home in Creston, Iowa, in a few days.

It is said that the extreme healthfulness of this climate is due, in a great measure, to the wild sunflowers that grow in such abundance in this congenial soil.

While Kansas and some other states are being torn all to pieces by cyclones, we of Nebraska can calmly sit by and view the wreck—and wait for our turn to come.

Mr. M. S. Ballard brought to our office last Tuesday a sample of new potatoes, grown the present season. They were "small potatoes" in the real sense of the term—about the size of a marble.

Geo. Garber has accepted a position in Marsh's store. George has the reputation of being one of the best clerk's in town, and his handsome face smiles as natural as ever from behind the counter.

The CHIEF wants a Live correspondent in every precinct in the county. Scribblers who will give the news and not seek to abuse their neighbors through the columns of the paper, prefered.

The Odd Fellows of southern Nebraska will celebrate the sixty third anniversary of Odd Fellowship at Red Cloud next Wednesday. A special train will be run from Orleans, Nebraska on that day.

W. A. Smith, of Hastings will, we understand, soon engage in the mercantile business at this place. He was in town last week for the purpose of securing a suitable room for the accomodation of an immense stock of goods.

The CHIEF was the first paper in the west to secure Kendall's Treatise on the Horse and offer it as a premium to its subscribers, and now nearly every paper in Nebraska and Kansas have followed suit and Kendall's book is obtaining a very wide circulation.

Notwithstanding the doctors, lawyers, preachers, editors, philanthropists and a host of other people claim that they are working for the elevation of mankind in general, the cold, hard, cheerless fact remains that they are all, in reality, in earnest pursuit of the almighty $.

A great many fruit, forest and ornamental trees are being planted by owners of property in Red Cloud the present spring, and we are glad to see it, for it will greatly improve the appearance of the town in a few years, to say nothing of the consequent rise in the value of property thus adorned.

Mr. Wm. Letson of Des Moines Iowa, has formed a co-partnership with Abram Kaley in the general merchandising business. Mr. Letson, we understand, is a gentleman of large experience, and we predict that the firm of Kaley & Letson will do a thriving business. See their advertisement in another column.

We learned while in Lincoln last week that it is the intention of the B. & M. company, as soon as their line is completed to Denver, to run two daily through express trains, one from St. Louis and the other from Chicago, and that the express from Chicago will stop for dinner at Red Cloud, and the one from St. Louis will stop for supper here.

We would not urge the county commissioners to institute criminal proceedings against Mr. J. A. Tulleys, but we certainly think that it is their duty to compel him to hand over that little balance of $400.00 yet due the county, or else secure it to the county and pay a legal rate of interest on the money from the time he shoved it down into his "jeans" instead of into the county treasury. This would be fair to Mr. Tulleys and justice to the county.

We have frequently been asked what had become of Commodore T. S. Kanes, who was for a short time an employee of the CHIEF about two years ago. It will be recollected that a report was circulated about the time he left here that he had been murdered down near the river and his body spirited away, though why such a fate should have been meted out to him no one ventured to say. We are most happy to inform the Commodore's friends and others who for any reason desire to know of his whereabouts, that he is now holding a "case" on the Monitor at Mankato, Kansas.

John Dustin, the gentleman from Missouri charged with stealing horses from J. C. Waller, and who was captured near Smith Centre, Kan., some time ago and taken to Missouri to answer to a charge of horse stealing in that state, was returned to this county to be tried for his offense against the laws of this state, the Missouri courts, as usual in such cases, failing to convict. Mr Dustin languishes in the Bastile, and Sheriff Warren, to whom great credit is due for bringing the man so near to justice as he now is, occupies a hard bed in the calaboose every night to prevent the possibility of the prisioner's escape. His case came up for hearing before Judge Wilcox last Tuesday and he was bound over in the sum of $1,000 to appear at the next term of the District court.

John McCullough.

The world renowned tragedian who last week visited Omaha sent many regrets that he was unable to give the good people of Red Cloud an opportunity to witness his great proficiency in the art he professes. He also remarked that he "would be sure of a healthy audience when he did come," if the people would only eat bread prepared from the choice baking powders and warranted flour, sold by PUTNAM.

Plain View Items.

Mr. EDITOR:—What has become of J. C. A.? We hope he has not left us—perhaps he is only gone on a visit, but we anxiously await his return.

After a very successful meeting at Jacob Altland's the S. D. society closed for the season.

Joseph Acree lost an infant child last week with lung fever. There are several cases in this vicinity.

Farmers are about done seeding and are commencing to get around ready for corn, of which there will be a large amount planted.

Plain View Sabbath school was organized the second inst., with Joseph Graves Supt. This is one of the best schools in the county.

At the annual school meeting in Plain View Dist., there was a close contest for moderator but the returning board finally declared Jacob Altland winner.

Mr John Hansen this week sold 22 head of young hogs for $286.00 and now Mr. Hansen says he can look the whole world in the face, for he is not a man, we wish there was more who could say the same.

Dr. Duke living west of here, last week, lost a cow, hay stalking machinery, &c., by prairie fire. The same fire also burned the frame schoolhouse near Alex. May's, situated on sec. 32 town 1 range 12.

There has been a few sprinkles of rain up this way this week, and sod houses and dug outs have leaked accordingly. Our better seven-eights says this sod housekeeping is getting old with her, and I think of "woman's rights," "female suffrage," and scratch my head.

We, like the Ary Times, have moved. As we are trying to send in a few items till J. C. A. returns, and as we cannot give the news from all over Glenwood we will only take in Plain View and vicinity.

Yours truly, ROSCOE.

ISAAC MAY, Ch'n.

J. P. BAYHA, Clerk.

Died,

April 15th 1882, at the residence of her son, E. N. Potter in Smith Co., Kansas, Mrs Hannah Potter who was born in Schenectady, New York, the 13th of April, 1804.

She and her husband were of the pioneer settlers of the Susquehanna valley. She united with the Baptist church at Oswego New York at an early day, and has been a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ for over sixty years. In the fall of 1879 she came west with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Q. Potter and has ever since lived with her sons. She united by letter with the Baptist church at Red Cloud Neb., soon after coming west. She adorned her profession to a life of usefulness. Humble and faithful service in the cause of her Saviour as long as she lived—ever seemingly enjoyed a conversation about the goodness of God, always expressing her great confidence in his promises to his children and manifesting a great willingness to submit to his providences and will. Had always a strong word for the aged, especially such as needed sympathy. Will not refer to her last words. Her last words were "Why do I stay, but I must wait his time. I would like to see all the children and want to see them above. I am willing to go, am all ready and will stay till there."

She leaves six sons and two daughters and a large group of grandchildren and friends to mourn her loss and follow her example. She passed peacefully away at 8 p. m. Truly, hers was a triumphant christian death. Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like his.

When physicians have made use of a preparation for years in their private practice with certain success, it is a duty they owe to mankind to put such remedies within reach of all, and this is done by "copy right,"—such is the case with Dr. Sherman's PRICKLY ASH BITTERS, and they have proved to be a blessing to mankind.
