City Election.

Apropos of the city election which takes place on the 1st of April it might be well for our people to select men who will pledge themselves, once and for all time to cut down the salaries of city officials. THE CHIEF only works for the best interest of Red Cloud, and the reduction of taxation should be one of the great subjects that the voters should insist on being lowered in our next council. There has been some talk of compromise. As far as this paper is concerned it has not been guilty of anything that it knows of, that it is necessary to compromise over. We know no factions and are not interested in the welfare of any party except the grand old tried and true republican party. The trouble with Red Cloud has been that "Faction" has been too numerously recognized to the great detriment of party and the best interests of the city. If faction had been forgotten ten years ago the city would have been just ten years better off. As far as THE CHIEF is concerned, it does not care a continental cent who is nominated or elected, just so that whoever is elected they will pledged themselves to the strictest economy and still keep up city improvements to the proper standard. THE CHIEF does not believe in compromises where there is nothing to compromise. Let the people put up good average intelligent business men for the city and elect them without regard to party affiliations or previous condition of servitude, and all will be well. THE CHIEF is for Red Cloud first last and all the time and for the republican party eternally. Selah!

"Charley Ross," well known in this city, was badly lacerated with a razor in the hands of a Newcastle ruffian the other day. It seems that Charley was taking the part of an old man whom the other fellow was mistreating when the chap carved him on the face and back. The wounds on his head are about eight inches long on both sides, from the crown of his head to his chin, and one on his back was about 18 inches long. He will recover however. His assailant was knocked down twice, shot twice, and had his nose broken in the melee.

The voters should see to it that good men are selected for aldermen. Ed Perkins has been mentioned for the south ward. Ed would make a good one and would do his duty fearlessly. Also the name of A. L. Funk has been mentioned. Also, Dave Rudd's name has been mentioned for re-election and several others. In the north ward the names of H. B. Simons, A. R. Kaley, J. K. Aults, Sam Temple, C. J. Platt, W. J. Perry and many others have been mentioned for the office of aldermen in the north ward.

Are not the parents of some Red Cloud boys doing the boys a great wrong in permitting them to roam the streets after night, free to see all the bad there may be, and free to form habits of evil. It is a blot upon our city record that boys not over 10 years may be seen loafing about the streets, puffing there cigarettes, as though it was manly thus to do. Certainly from this training school will come graduates that will cause many heart aches when it is too late.

The Farmer's Alliance in Webster county now numbers about 600. The farmers have at last found out that organization means something. They should however go slow and not be led astray from their purposes by false gods and political tricksters who may gain admittance to their society under the disguise of "farmers friend."

A bill has been introduced in congress providing for a reduction of the tariff. If it passes and becomes a law it will reduce the tariff over 60,000 000 dollars. The bill provides for a general raise on all farm products imported to this country which will have the effect of helping the farming world largely.

Our friend, Rev. W. A. Snider, leaves Red Cloud, about April 1, for Deadwood where he will probably remain having an excellent position offered him there He has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church here which takes place April 1st.

In Memory.

The following article attached hereto was taken from the Siloam (Ark.) Herald, and is written on the death of Mrs. E. B. Smith's sister:

Died: At her residence in Siloam, Ark. March the 8th, at 3:30. o'clock A. M., Mrs. Sarah Frazure. She was a young woman, aged 23. Was beloved by all who knew her. She was a kind mother to her only little boy, Lloyd, and a loving devoted wife to her husband, Jas. Frazure.

I was by Mrs. Frazure's bed side most of the time during her sickness of 24 days. No tongue can express no person can imagne what that dear woman suffered. Only those who, by her bedside, witnessed the terrible death throes can form a conception of it.

She lived in hope and died happy.

About an hour before she died she told her husband that she was happy. Her husband asked her if she realized that she would soon see her dear mother, and lovely little daughter Cora. She answered, yes; I will soon see them.

Mrs Frazure was a noble hearted woman, and her mind seemed to be in deep sympathy with the poor and needy of this world.

She was always pleasent and always met everybody with a smile.

May God reward her! She was too good for this unfriendly world but Oh! it seems so hard for us to have to give up such a good, devoted friend as she was, and be left in this troublesome world to ponder and to grieve, but God knows better than we. It is not our will, but God's will that we should give up our dear friend. What is our loss is her gain.
