Omaha Grain

Omaha, Nov. 24.

Our grain market, after an early dip, turned upward and displayed considerable firmness. Cash markets showed a better tone and the call for export grain developed more strength, Germany taking 800,000 bushels Manitobas and 235,000 bushels No. 2 hard was sold for export. Also the domestic demand was more active and there were some complaints of continued car shortage.

Total receipts of grain at Omaha were 206 cars, as compared with 65 cars last year. Total shipments were 98 cars, against 65 65 cars a year ago.

Cash wheat on the local market was in somewhat better demand, with price unchanged to 1 cent higher, being generally 1 cent up. Cash corn was slow, unchanged to 1 cent lower. Oats were about unchanged. Rye was quoted nominally unchanged and barley firm and unchanged.

Chicago Grain

By CHARLES D. MICHAELS.

Omaha Bee Leased Wire.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Grain markets reversed their action of the previous day, and while there was an undercurrent of bearishness, there was no pronounced pressure and it took but little buying to start values upward and the finish was at net gains of ½@1c on wheat and ¾@¼c on oats, while corn was unchanged to ⅛c higher.

Liverpool wheat was lower early, in sympathy with the decline in America the previous day, but turned strong at the last and closed ¼@¾d higher. The bulge there, with pronounced strength in Winnipeg and talk of liberal export sales of Manitobas and the sale of 235,000 bushels hard winter from Chicago to the east were the main bullish influences. Prospects of world shipments of over 16,000,000 bushels, including 14,000,000 bushels from North America, were ignored as a market influence.

Shorts Hunt Cover.

A good part of the trade was of a local character. Many of the pit element were short early and it took but little to start a covering movement. On the bulge some of the buyers on recent breaks turned sellers and checked the bulge. Cash wheat premiums here were firmer, with red up 1@1½. Kansas City reported a slow demand and some of the poorer kinds of springs at Minneapolis were 2@4c lower. Export sales of over 500,000 bushels were made to Germany.

Corn showed the same stubborn resistance exhibited for several days. There was a liberal line of May taken by a local operator, who has been a seller recently, but the trade in the aggregate was not large and the market easily influenced. Reports of an easier car situation in parts of Iowa and Nebraska had some effect on values toward the last, offsetting an advance of ⅛@⅛c in premiums on old yellow in the sample market. Receipts, 199 cars. Exporters took 75,000 bushels from Chicago handlers.

Exporters Buy Oats.

Exporters bought 120,000 bushels cash oats at Chicago, and cash houses were moderate buyers of December, the domestic trade continuing fair. Bulk of the business, however, was of a local character, with the strength in wheat the dominating influence. Receipts, 106 cars.

While houses with eastern connections were fair buyers of rye, the undertone was somewhat less firm with stop-loss orders caught early, while on the bulge, which followed in sympathy with wheat, the northwest was a good seller. Sales of 40,000 bushels were made to exporters. The two northwestern markets had 130 cars.

Pit Notes.

Russian grain crops this year are about 50 per cent in excess of last year, according to a detailed report covering that country. Total crop of all grains is estimated at 47,000,000 tons. While the total yield is less than the 1909-13 average, the statistical position suggests that there should be available for export a total of 9,000,000 tons of grain. Owing to faulty transportation and increased consumption probably 5,000,000 tons might be actually said to be in a position where it could be shipped, but clearances will depend entirely upon the extent the state and private machinery of trade is developed during the next few months. The crop figures include the yields in Kirghiz, Siberia, the southeast and the Ukraine. Up to October 10 roughly 3,650,000 tons of the 4,000,000 tons government grain tax had been collected.

Grain trade sentiment was mixed today. The late strength in wheat and corn made shorts uneasy and a reduction in the open interest was noticeable. The markets were said to be in a position where any good buying would start a general move on that side and advance prices, while it was said that it would require a heavy pressure to force and hold a lower level of prices.

Corn traders had it that leading holders were selling May through commission houses around 70½c for May. One local operator covered nearly 1,000,000 bushels at that figure and a bull house sold about one-half that quantity at the same price without causing any excitement.

New York Cotton.

New York, Nov. 24.—The list moved higher after uncertainty in today's cotton market, but late pressure limited the day's net improvement to 15 to 23 points.

In the morning there was quiet accumulation of contracts by the trade and Wall street bulls, and after an irregular opening, prices rose 25 to 37 points. Around mid-day the tone was decidedly firm, but there was little change either way in early afternoon dealings. Trade interests were fair buyers as were ring operators. Quietness prevailed in the last hour, but there was somewhat increased pressure from longs and the market eased off 10 to 15 points from its high. The final tone was firm.
