Club Denies Plot to Scalp Butler

Commissioner's Removal Not Sought by Tenth Ward, Members Say.

Delegation from the Tenth Ward Improvement club called at central police station yesterday to repudiate a report that petitions circulated asking the removal of Police Commissioner Dan Butler emanated from its organization.

The delegation included Frank A. Johnson, 3550 Cass street, chairman of the executive committee; J. S. Ward, 319 North Thirty-sixth avenue, secretary, and Mike O'Connor, 3402 Davenport street, and H. S. Morrison, 321 Thirty-sixth street, members.

Mr. Johnson declared none of the persons who signed the petition is in any way connected with the Tenth Ward Improvement club.

"This organization never has been political in its character, and never will be," he said. "It is purely an improvement club. Politics never has entered the discussions of the club."

He denied that the delegation planned to assure Butler of their support. He retiterated his assertion that the club is nonpolitical.

City Attorney Will Bring Paving Suit

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.

Grand Island, Neb., July 19.—City Attorney Prince has been instructed by the council to bring suit for $50,000 against the bondsmen of the Tyner Construction company, Kansas City, for defective construction in the paving of three of the city's largest districts within the past few years.

Negotiations extending over some months have been made for a settlement without avail, and the near approach to the expiration of the bonds leads the council to the present action.

It is alleged that the plans and specifications that formed the basis of the contract have not been fulfilled. Chemical experts have been employed by the city durings its investigation.

Swamp Girl Captured; Confesses to Crime

By Associated Press.

Wausau, Wis., July 19.—Mary Lawando, who was found in a swamp near here late yesterday after an eight-day search, confessed to Sheriff Arthur Slewert early today that she attacked her stepmother, Mrs. Anna Lawando on July 10, beating her over the head with a club. The girl, according to the sheriff, refused to make known the reason for the attack other than to say that she had "trouble" with Mrs. Lawando.

Dog Relishes Auto Tires; Owner Pays

Special Dispatch to the Omaha Bee.

Watertown, S. D., July 16.—David Boland of this city is the owner of a dog which has the habit of chewing automobile tires. As a result of one instance of this kind Boland was made the defendant in a damage action in the local small claims court and had to pay $10 to William J. Hoare.

Boland was found liable for the damage when Hoare exhibited two front tires which showed the imprint of the dog's teeth, where the rubber was torn from the fabric. Witnesses testified concerning other tires the dog had been guilty of tearing with its teeth.

New Dairy Regulations Proposed in Columbus

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.

Columbus, Neb., July 19.—Over the protests of more than 30 dairymen and cream manufacturers and creamery men, the city council, without comment, today passed through first and second readings of a new ordinance providing for the inspection and regulation of dairy herds, dairies and dairy sales methods. The ordinance, prepared by the board of health, is the result of protests made by veterinary surgeons that milk from tubercular cows was being sold here and that several dairies were indescribably filthy.

Man Appeals Test Will Case to Supreme Court

Special Dispatch to The Omaha Bee.

Beatrice, Neb., July 19.—Frank Thimm, owner of the tract northwest of the city where the test well was drilled last year, and who afterward sued the city for $15,000 damages, has filed an appeal to the supreme court. A jury in the district court awarded him $709 some months ago.
