AGED IOWAN DIES WITH BROKEN NECK

Fall From Load of Hay Fatal to Adam Clark, 76.

Adam J. Clark, 76, was killed yesterday afternoon when he broke his neck in a fall from a load of hay near the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. C. Morehouse, living on rural route No. 5, Council Bluffs.

He had been a resident of Pottawattamie county for 60 years.

The aged man had been helping his son-in-law, R. C. Morehouse, and was riding on top of a load of hay which was being hauled from the field. He was thrown to the ground when the wagon passed over a bump in the road.

He is survived by his daughter, one son, Bertram Clark; two brothers, Henry J. and John T. Clark; a sister, Mrs. R. Winchester of Council Bluffs, and three grandchildren.

No inquest will be held.

48 MOROS SLAIN BY CONSTABULARY

By Associated Press.

Manila, March 14.—Forty-eight Moro outlaws were killed and a number wounded in a battle with Philippine constabularly forces at Dansalan, Lanao province, according to dispatches received here today. Lieutenant Alagar and six constabulary soldiers were reported to have been slightly wounded. The outlaws were led by Datu Santiago, who escaped during the fighting.

MATE KISSED HER AND DEPARTED

Christine Morgensen, 2723 Ruggles street, testified in domestic relations court in her divorce suit that her third husband, James, kissed her goodby one morning a few weeks ago and didn't come back.

She knew him 25 years ago, before her other two marriages. She said she thought the money left by her second husband attracted him.
