FLYER KILLED IN HAWAII OMAHAN

Victim of Crash Son of Preacher; Widow Former Teacher.

First Lieut. W. G. Moore, one of three army fliers that were killed when a Martin bomber plane taking off at Luke field in the Hawaiian islands struck an air pocket and crashed to earth Thursday, was a former Omaha man.

The plane burst into flames when it hit the ground.

Lieutenant Moore was the son of the late pastor of the Walnut Hill Methodist church and presiding elder of the Grand Island district.

Former Omaha Teacher.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, one brother and three sisters. His body will be cremated and the ashes brought to San Francisco for funeral rites, in accordance with his wishes, according to the brother, G. H. Moore, 4916 Cass street, who received a cablegram from Hawaii Thursday night.

The widow of the dead pilot was Miss Frances Bell of Omaha, daughter of H. G. Bell, and formerly a teacher in the eighth grade of Benson school.

Lieutenant Moore was estimator for the Western Heating and Plumbing company when he entered the army at the outbreak of the world war. He was assigned to aviation and commissioned. He was an expert instructor at Barron field, Fort Worth, Tex., during the war, and closed that field for the army after the armistice.

Visited Here Often.

From Texas he was assigned to open Miller field, Staten island, New York, where he was commanding officer. His assignment to Hawaii followed.

The dead flier leaves two daughters, Majorie, 13, and Jeannette, 9; and three sisters, Minnie Moore of Omaha, Mrs. F. W. Bross of Salt Lake City and Mrs. W. E. Patton of Midwest, Wyo., besides the brother and wife.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Moore have visited in Omaha many times since his departure for army service in 1917.

JOHNSON VICTOR ON PRESS COUNT

Only 146 Precincts Unheard From—McMaster Beats Sterling.

Sioux Falls, S. D., March 27.—Senator Hiram Johnson of California won the republican presidential endorsement in Tuesday's primary in South Dakota on the face of unofficial returns compiled by several newspapers.

Wiht only 146 precincts scattered through 22 counties missing, the unofficial tabulations gave Johnson a lead of 1,743.

The 1,684 precincts reported through the Sioux Falls Argus-Leader, Sioux Falls Press and Mitchell Republican, and compiled here, gave the California senator 40,243 votes and the president 38,500. The newspapers declare Johnson the victor.

The president would have to carry the unreported precincts nearly five to four in order to overcome Johnson's lead if the vote averages the same as in the last 300 precincts to report.

Johnson led in 27 of the counties that have reported complete returns and Coolidge led in 15.

The republican senatorial nomination went to Governor W. H. McMaster, who won out over Senator Thomas Sterling. In 1,456 precincts the governor received 40,808 votes and Sterling 29,195.

While no tabulation was made on returns on the democratic ticket contest, scattering returns received here were favorable to William G. McAdoo, for the presidential endorsement, and newspapers here declared he won decisively.

U. S. G. Cherry, majority candidate, won the democratic senatorial nomination, incomplete returns showed, and Tom Ayres of Mitchell was declared by local newspapers to have gained the farmer-labor senatorial nomination.

AGED RESIDENT OF OMAHA DIES

Mrs. Mary B. Murray, 66, resident of Omaha for more than 30 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Burt Howell, 1506 South Twenty-fifth street, Thursday morning.

She is survived by her daughter and one son, Frank Murray, of Chico, Cal.

The funeral will be held from the Howell residence Saturday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be in Forest Lawn. Pallbearers are: Peter J. Selzle, George Garlick, Lou Bole, Charles Scott, Will Hendricks and E. O. Furen.

MATE OUT LATE, WIFE COMPLAINS

Robert L. Kimball frequently stayed out nights and then told his wife, Wilma, it was "none of her business" where he was when he returned home, she told District Judge Day in her testimony for divorce.

She now lives at 125 North Thirty-first avenue. They were married in Lincoln in 1919.

BRITISH FLYER REACHES ROME

Rome, March 28.—Squadron Commander A. Stuart MacLaren of the British royal air force, who is attempting an around-the-world flight in a hydroplane, arrived at 7:40 this morning from Lyons, France. This was the third leg of the long journey.

MacLaren had stopped at Civita Vecchia for the night.

LONDON SUBWAY STRIKE TONIGHT

Chaos Threatened as City's Transportation Facilities Cease Operation.

London, March 28.—Premier Ramsey MacDonald's labor government made desperate, last minute efforts today to end the transportation strike and to prevent the subway employes from joining in sympathy. The subway strike is set for tonight. If it goes into effect London will be in csaos with the street railways, bus lines and subways all tied up.

The electrical workers are threatening to strike if the subway workers quit, leaving the city in darkness and without power.

Premier MacDonald is facing a grave crisis from the ranks of his own party.

The government is prepared to proclaim a state of emergency and call for volunteers to operate the essential services if the present strike is extended.

Such action would undoubtedly cause grave trouble as the strikers would resist and would call upon other labor unions to help them.

The government has been placed in an embarrassing position. If drastic measure are employed they may cause a split in the labor party.

Members of the privy council went to Knowsley to obtain King George's signature to the declaration of a state of emergency for use if necessary. Lord Ashfield, head of the transportation companies, said he had no further concessions to offer striking employes.
