Wayland Dean, Hurling First Major League Game, Defeats Dodgers 3 to 2

Giant Recruit Invincible After Third Inning

Johnston, Fournier Hit Home Runs in First Frame Off Former Louisville Hurler.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Wayland Dean, McGraw's $50,000 pitching recruit, got off to an auspicious start here Thursday in the New York Nationals' 3 to 2 victory over Brooklyn. Dean engaged in a brilliant twirling duel with Vance, which was decided in the 10th inning on singles by Groh, Frisch and Kelly.

Johnston and Fournier hit Dean for home runs in the first inning, but the youngster quickly settled, only two hits being made off him after the third inning. A home run by Groh tied up the score in the fifth inning for the Giants. Score:

Vangilder's Wildness Costly.

Chicago, April 17.—Chicago hit opportunely behind Vangilder's wildness and erratic support and defeated St. Louis, 6 to 3. George Connally, Texas league recruit, pitched in fine form until the ninth inning when he weakened and gave way to Ted Lyons. Ken Williams and Second Baseman McManus were ordered out of the game by Umpire Holmes for objecting to a decision at second base. Score:

Athletics Win Close Contest.

Washington, April 17.—Weather more suitable for football than baseball prevailed Thursday for the third game of the season here which Philadelphia won, 4 to 3. A mental slip by Zahniser who threw to second instead of home when a double steal was essayed by the Athletics in the eighth inning gave Philadelphia its winning run. President Johnson of the American league was a spectator. Score:

Tech High Wins Easy Game From Neola (Ia.) Nine

Mickle, West, Maroon Hurlers, Allow Iowans One Bingle; Visiting Pitcher Whiffs 11 Techsters.

Technical High's diamond crew walloped the Neola (Ia.) nine, 10 to 1, Thursday afternoon on the Techster field. Coach Drummond's protegee, bunching their hits and taking advantage of the wildness of the Neola hurler, had little difficulty in turning the trick.

Mickle and M. West, on the mound for the Techmen, held the Iowans to one hit, besides retiring an even dozen "Farmers" via the strikeout route.

Joe Burns, Neola twirler, struck out 11 Maroons. He was wild as a March hare, issuing nine free trips to first. He also garnered the lone bingle charged up to the Iowans.

"Art" Swartz, husky Maroon catcher, had a great day with the willow. Out of four trips to the rubber he smacked out a triple, a double and drew a brace of walks.

Tech started right off the reel to tuck the game away when Snyder, leadoff man, drew a walk, "Lefty" West took a base on balls and Swartz sent them around with a sizzling two-bagger. Swartz scored on McCormack's single.

The Maroons counted twice in the second on a flock of errors, and scored one tally in the fourth. Four runs were shoved across in the fifth on a trio of bingles and two walks.

Neola scored their lone marker in the sixth inning. Menke walked, stole second and scored on Othmer's error.

Central Defeats Bluffs Nine, 5 to 2

Central High school baseball nine pried the lid off of the 1924 baseball season when they defeated Abraham Lincoln High school of Council Bluffs to the merry tune of 5 to 2 at Thirty-second and Dewey avenue Thursday afternoon.

Throughout the entire contest the heroic boys across the "Big Muddy" fought like demons to solve the delivery of Heinie Glade, stellar "Purple" moundsman, who had the Bluffmen eating from his hands. Before the game was over Glade whiffed 11 enemies.

From the first inning to the fifth the Centralites were on the shorter end of a 1 to 0 score. In the disastrous fifth inning the Central heavy stick wielders got busy and sent a pair of counters across the pan. Again in the sixth Central crossed the platter three times.

"Wally" Marrow, Central "four letter" man, started at shortstop. Considering that it was the first time "Wally" played baseball, he filled the position like a veteran. Marrow also garnered two bingles, one of which was for extra bases.

Tankers to Enter Tryouts.

San Francisco, April 17.—Bernice Phelan, 15-year-old aquatic star, her father and Phil Patterson, diver of the San Francisco Olympic club, left here Thursday by motor for New York where Miss Phelan and Patterson will enter the Olympic games tryouts. Both are fancy divers. The party will stop enroute for training at the Illinois Athletic club in Chicago.

Chance Improves After Operation

Chicago, April 17.—Frank Chance, manager of the Chicago White Sox, Thursday was reported as being in splendid condition following an operation for sinus late Wednesday, when six incisions were made under his right eye. The sinus, it was said, was believed responsible for the asthma which has inflicted Chance of late and to have resulted from a case of "flu."

Chance insists he will be out of the hospital and take over the management of the team soon, but his physician was not so sanguine. Further incisions may be necessary, he said, and in any event he wants Chance to remain in the hospital some time.

Eddie Wagner won the Pennsylvania junior lightweight championship by beating Danny Kramer in 10 rounds at Philadelphia last Monday night.
