FRENCH PARTIES SUGGEST DICTATOR

Duke of Orleans Mentioned as Possible Choice by Royalist Organ.

By Associated Press.

Paris, April 29.—Two of the 14 political parties of France have boldly decided to recommend a "good dictatorship" to the French voters as the best solution of the problem of the day. One of them picks the duke of Orleans, pretender to the French throne, as the proper Mussolini for France, while the other thinks that Moscow can name the proper man. Neither the royalists nor communists, however, can count on a large representation in the chamber which is to be elected May 11.

"The example of Italy shows clearly," says the manifesto of the L'Action Francaise, the royalist organ, "that a real leader can do and what parliament cannot do. We ask you to realize the parliament understand that we need a leader and the leader we need is in the estimation of L'Action Francaise; must be the hereditary leader, consequently the legitimate heir to the 40 kings that made France."

The communists want the labor people properly armed, to replace the present army; their dictatorship would then, they think, be in a fair way to impose itself and to succeed in the carrying out of the following program: Extinction of the public debt by the confiscation of great fortunes; socialization of banks, mines, railroads, industries and insurance; requisition of dwellings for the benefit of the proletariat; creation of a workmen's and peasants' militia; constitution of a high court of justice to try the persons responsible for the war and for its prolongation and the military leaders and profiteers; cancellation of the treaty of Versailles; conclusion of a new peace without either war indemnities or annexations; putting in common of reparations and war debts; and substitution for the league of nations of a United States of Europe with an alliance with the soviets of Russia.

SPAIN CASTLES COME TRUE IN AD

Romantic Classified Ad Indicates Opportunities for Rare Vacations.

Give a wand and I show me castles in old Spain,
Spain towers and turrets just across the main.
Laughing senoritas, crowned with dusk-sun hair,
Dons and senors, strangers to all care,
Days that drowse and days in a wealth of sun,
Nights whose magic hovers on a hint of breeze,
Stars that shine like jewels, olives dwarfed and still,
And the peace of centuries resting o'er Seville.

Castles, mossy castles, castles in old Spain,
With their mighty silence call me back again!
Back to palmtree gardens, pebbled wingways,
And a rose-lipped maiden loved in other days.
Back to the days that daily, doing as you please,
Back to the nights whose magic stirs with memories,
Back where stars are jewels hung above the hill
And the peace of centuries hovers o'er Seville.

And the peace which centuries have gathered about Seville lingers there still for those who come to find and feel it. The wand which would bring it and the castles in Spain and all the rest has chosen a strange hiding place. Some one tucked it away in the classified columns of The Omaha Bee. It is expressed in the following: "University graduate going to Spain for the summer, would like another young man to go along; references."

The implication is that the right sort of traveling companion may qualify for a summer in Spain at slight expense to himself. And who wouldn't build castles in Spain for such an opportunity! Picture it—Barcelona, Cadiz, Valencia and Madrid! If you are romantic, it's permissible to throw in a few guitars and moonlight nights and clear glasses of Madiera and—

Well, we'll stop there. But what's the use of having castles in Spain if you have glistening carriages and all the rest!

HUSBAND WOULD "TAKE ON" LAWYER

Threats were made against Carl Self, attorney for Mrs. Anna Tinker, plaintiff in a divorce action against William Tinker, being heard in Judge C. B. Day's court this morning.

In the cross-examination of Tinker he charged that his wife had kept a man in her home. He insisted that he was unable to enter the house or see his wife without first obtaining permission from this man.

"How big was the man?" Self asked.

"He was a giant," Tinker answered. "I am not afraid of an ordinary man, but he was too big. I'll take you any time, now or later."

The judge explained that there would be no "taking" in his courtroom.

DOG SAVES LIVES OF FARM FAMILY

Lamberton, N. Y., April 29.—The lives of eight persons were saved by a collie dog when the farm house of Leslie S. Morrison burned early today. The dog sacrificed its own life.

Morrison was awakened by the dog's tugging at the bed clothes to find the house in flames. With the help of his wife and his cousin, James Morrison, he carried five children, ranging in age from 3 to 9, to safety. Two of them had been overcome by smoke.

The dog's body was found in the burn.
