LONG CORN EARS FOUND AT BLAIR

Frank C. Best, 310 Peters Trust bunilding, was seen driving from Blair with corn in his automobile. He displayed two ears of the king of cereals, one 14 1-2 inches long and the other 14 inches. The ears were picked from the farm of Louis Grimm near Blair and the field was not culled for long ears, Mr. Best stated. He believes that corn in that section is out of danger from frost.
