CCC Dependents Receive $7,000,000

The War Department today, advised Robert Fechner, Director of Emergency Conservation Work, that approximately 50,000 young colored men and war veterans of the Civilian Conservation Corps camps have sent home to dependents more than $7,000,000 out of their earnings since April 1, 1935. The Department stated that most of this amount was allotted to dependents by enrollees when they entered the CCC camps and forwarded direct to the families of the forest workers by disbursing officers of the Office of the Chief of Finance of the U. S. Army.

The basic cash allowance paid enrolled CCC men is $30 a month. All CCC enrollees with the exception of a few war veterans and a small number of locally enrolled men allot approximately $25 out of their $30 a month cash allowances to dependents immediately upon being enrolled. At the end of each month, the War Department deducts the amount of each enrollee's allotment from his cash allowance and mails this money direct to the designated dependents. Thus out of $30 paid each CCC youth, normally $25 is mailed direct to the young man's family and the balance of $5 is paid in cash to the enrollee. In addition, each enrollee receives his board and lodging and all necessary summer and winter clothing.

During the first ten days of December, the Office of the Chief of Finance, through disbursing officers in all sections of the country, mailed out about 460,000 checks to the families of enrollees. Although final figures have not reached Washington, the War Department estimated the aggregate value of the checks at $1,250,000. More than $1,000,000 of this amount went into the homes of colored enrollees. This sum, representing the amount allocated to dependents by enrollees out of their November earnings, is the largest amount sent to the families of CCC men in any month since the corps was founded.

"The millions of dollars that have been sent home by CCC enrollees represent approximately five-sixths of the money which the young men and war veterans have earned through their work in forests, parks and eroded fields," Director Fechner said today. "Since the CCC was formed, it has afforded approximately 1,500,000 men an opportunity to contribute substantially to the support of their families. The largest number of enrolled men, including Indians and men engaged in CCC-type work in Hawaii, Alaska, the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico, that have been in the conservation camps at any one time is 519 861. War Department records indicate that the average enrollee spends eight months in the CCC."

90 Per Cent Of Baptists Members of Incorporate Body

Chicago, Jan. 4, (ANP)—That of the 3,000,000 Baptists in America, 90 per cent are members of the churches affiliated with National Baptist Convention, Incorporated, was the declaration made to the Associated Negro Press here last week by Dr. L. K. Williams, president of the organization.

This statement was made following the announcement made by Dr. Henry Allen Boyd, secretary of the un-incorporated group, that he had been appointed to represent 3,000,000 Negro Baptists. Dr. Williams stated that this announcement was an error, pointing out that the cencus of Religious Bodies of 1926 bore out his contention that 90 per cent of all Negro Baptists in America are affiliated with the incorporated body, and remarking that this latter group would hardly elect Mr. Boyd to represent them.

Hell In Heaven

By Davis Lee

New York, Jan. 4, (ANP)—Hell broke loose in Heaven last Tuesday night! Two angels in Father Divine's kingdom, 20 W. 115 street, fought a battle that made the Louis-Baer fight look like a Piker.

The battle which began in the kingdom ended in the street between a Miss Pretty and her husband. Both at one time were members of the kingdom. However, feeling that Divine's being God is a lot of hooey, the husband withdrew from the kingdom and made several unsuccessful attempts to persuade his wife to do so.

The fight started when the husband found that his wife was turning all of their valuables over to Father Divine which included papers to his automobile and two insurance policies. He followed her to the kingdom and pleaded with her to give him his papers. This she refused to do, and upon entering into the kingdom she attempted to slip them to one of the angels, thus Hell broke loose in Heaven.

Father Divine was holding a meeting at his kingdom on 63rd street during the battle. However, at two o'clock Wednesday morning three big cars rolled up to the 115th street address. The front and rear car was filled with armed white men. In the middle car two armed men rode in front and two on the rear seat. Father Divine sat between the two on the rear seat.

He was ushered into the large dining room where more than two thousand angels were waiting. Father and Mother Divine took their places in the center of the table. Food was served. Then here and there an angel would stand and give testimony as to how Father had blessed her.

Presently four female agnels situated at strategic points claimed that Father's "vibration" had reached them. They fell upon the table, upsetting dishes, food and all. The entire two thousand followed suit, tables were completely upset, dishes and glasses were broken. A grand stampede was on with many being mashed and trampled under foot. Thus for the second time in one night Hell broke loose in Heaven.

Charlotte Hawkins Brown Answers Dr. Mary Waring

Sedalia, Jan. 4, (Special to the Associated Negro Press)—Mrs. Charlotte Hawkins Brown, the dynamic and popular president of the North Carolina Federation of Negro Women's Clubs and principal of Palmer Memorial Institute here, gave her version of the projection of the National Council of Colored Women in a statement issued here this week.

"Dr. Waring is in error as to the motive, aims, and purposes of Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune's call to Negro women" Mrs. Brown said. "Charlotte Hawkins Brown acknowledges no defeat for the presidency of the National Association of Colored Women either at Chicago or Cleveland, since she both times received the largest national vote. Dr. Waring succeeded both times on a small margin of 40 votes out of 300 or more cast, carrying the local delegation of 100 or more at Chicago, and 65 or more Chicago votes at the Cleveland meeting.

"Local politics in both instances elected Dr. Mary Waring. The country at large has been dissatisfied, not with the woman's character or natural ability, but her inability to corral the women of the country in a united effort to put the national program over.

"Charlotte Hawkins Brown objected strenuously at the meeting in New York to a permanent organization lest Dr. Waring should accuse Mrs. Bethune of splitting the National Association. There was absolutely no desire on the part of the women who met, (for many of them had never attended a National meeting) to in any way impair or hinder the work of the National.

National Council Idea Not a Jim Crow Proposition

"Persons who have been connected with the National Association over a period of 25 years have seen politics creeping in to the extent that nothing else of a constructive nature has been done," Mrs. Brown continued, "the main idea has been to elect a president.

"The place and problems of women in American life comes up for no discussion; no committees are appointed to look into the affairs where Negro women are concerned. It has ceased to be a clearing house for Negro women, and has become a political machine, a bally-ho for section, while its national headquarters is about to be put up for mortgage sale.

Praises Mrs. Bethune.

"Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, the most unselfish woman in the world, had no other desire but that the Negro women might pool their efforts and thoughts in a concerted attack against prejudices affecting the lives of Negro women. It was no attempt to pull away from the National organization, but the small representation in the group gave no chance to work on fundamental problems in the development of strong womanhood. There is, however, no intention of withdrawing from the National Council of Women of America.

"Charlotte Hawkins would not permit the National to split on her; she considers the opportunities for doing something too great. She has other interests that are so absorbing and so nation-wide that other than the right of any individual to run for office, if through that office that individual would hope to do something more than wear flowers and parade up and down the country, that she has permitted her friends from all over the country to promote her candidacy, but has always left the convention with good feeling and a smile.

"With malice toward none, and charity for all, she renews her attack upon the problems of prejudice, illiteracy, and lack of culture among her people, with a desire for peace and fellowship, and a "Thank Godd" for Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, who is bigger than any organization that we have been able to perfect up to the time because of her unselfish and sacrificial spirit for the good of her group."

Suggest Deportation For Julian

New York, Jan. 4—(By Davis Lee for ANP)—That Hubert Julian, the Black Eagle and recently a Colonel in Emperor Selassie's army, is a menace and should be deported from the U. S. is the contntion of certain organization of Negroes here in Harlem who are now circulating a petition to have the State Departmet take such action, this writer learned today.

According to information given out by one of the members of the organization Julian made several disparaging and injuriour statements about Ethiopia which was carried by the white papers last week. The Black Eagle is also contemplating a lecture tour of the United States in the interest of Italy, this the organization hopes to prevent by deportation proceedings.

This writer also learned that the Black Eagle was once a dining car porter o nthe New York Cectral Railroad. In an interview with a porter on the Railroad with whom Julian worked and once roomed, this bit of information was gleaned:

Before getting the job with the railroad company, Julian was on the bum-down and out. He was not able to pay his room rent and went without eats several days at the time. After going without eats for a couple of days Julian is alleged to have fallen out and played unconscious. He was rushed to the hospital. This was his scheme to get something to eat, het porter explained.
