THE FRIENDLY LITERARY GUILD OF ZION BAP. CHURCH

This organization was founded in April for the purpose of promoting a friendlier relationship between Zion's young women. To encourage self expression, to study together the things that tend to develop us mentally, physically and spiritually, thereby making it possible for them to live more affectively as Christians. Mrs. A. L. Hawkins, wife of Dr. Hawkins, was appointed as sponsor by the executive committee and was approved by the church and Rev. F. C. Williams. Mrs. Olive Davis was elected president. The Club meets the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month at the home of a member. The membership is growing, and we hope eventually to have a 100 percent attendance of Zion's women between the ages of 18 and 40.

The couple will reside at 2137 R Street in Lincoln, Nebraska.

MODEL PLAYGROUND HAS THREE ATTENDANTS

By C. C. McDonald

We wish to call your attention to the Corby Street Playground, 24th and Corby Sts. We also wish for all to know that it is a safe place for your children to play and enjoy themselves. Some of the parents often ask us whether their children are safe without their being present. Children using this Playground are under the watchful eyes and supervision of three attendants at all times. In charge are: Mrs. Marjorie Ware; Supervisor, Buddy McRae, Athletic Director and Mr. C. C. McDonold, Caretaker. In case of bruises and injuries, we have a first aid station. Remember, the boys and girls of today are the men and women of tomorrow. We want them to be happy and want their parents to feel they are safe in our hands and receiving proper attention while in attendance at the Corby St. Playground.

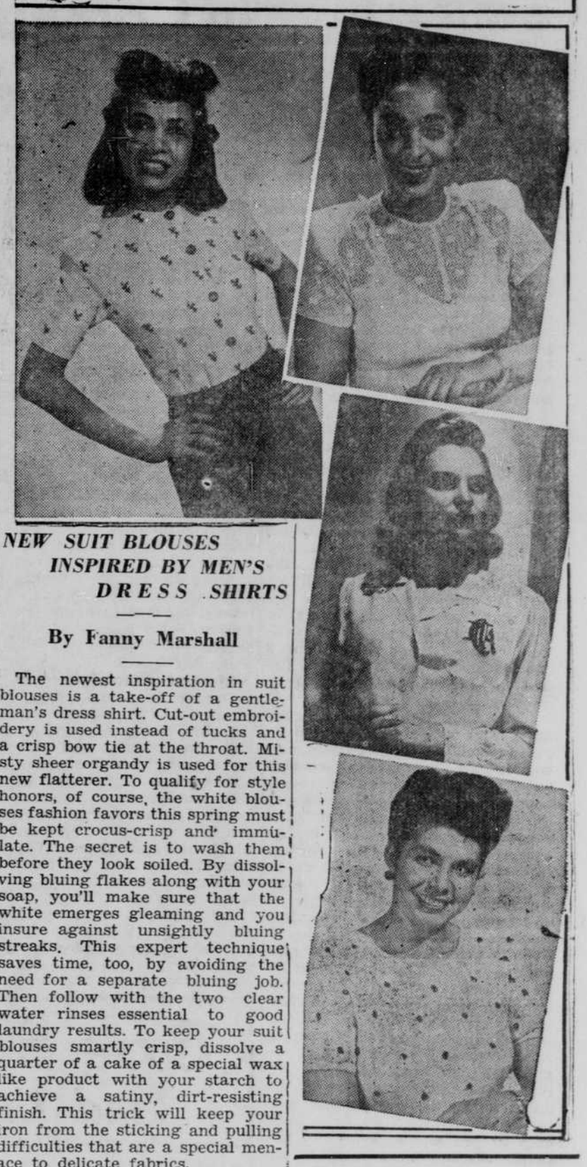
Variety—Sweaters and Blouses For Summer and Fall



NEW SUIT BLOUSES INSPIRED BY MEN'S DRESS SHIRTS

By Fanny Marshall

The newest inspiration in suit blouses is a take-off of a gentleman's dress shirt. Cut-out embroidery is used instead of tucks and a crisp bow tie at the throat. Misty sheer organdy is used for this new flatterer. To qualify for style honors, of course, the white blouses fashion favors this spring must be kept crocus-crisp and immulate. The secret is to wash them before they look soiled. By dissolving bluing flakes along with your soap, you'll make sure that the white emerges gleaming and you insure against unsightly bluing streaks. This expert technique saves time, too, by avoiding the need for a separate bluing job. Then follow with the two clear water rinses essential to good laundry results. To keep your suit blouses smartly crisp, dissolve a quarter of a cake of a special wax like product with your starch to achieve a satiny, dirt-resisting finish. This trick will keep your iron from the sticking and pulling difficulties that are a special menace to delicate fabrics.

For Modern Mermaids

THIS two-piece bathing suit is dusty pink spun rayon, printed and piped with black. It sports flirtatious ruffles at one side of the full skirt. Make sure your rayon beach finery is labeled with results of sun and salt water tests so that you won't be a bedraggled mermaid after a dip in the ocean. If you would like some easy-to-follow tips on choosing becoming colors for your summer wardrobe, write to the Women's Department of this paper for a copy of a new free leaflet, "Color in Your Wardrobe." Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

K. C. GOLFERS DEFEAT ST. LOUIS TEAM 13—5

Ten members of the Paramount Golf team of St. Louis invaded Kansas City June 16, for a team match with the Heart of America Club on Swope Park course No. 2. When the dust had cleared away the locals had counted eight victories and four loses to defeat the visitors by a team score of 13 to 5.

The morning round, an 18 hole match play affair, consisted of single matches with Kaycee winning 7 and losing 3. The afternoon round, again 18 holes of match play saw the doubles matches being won by the local club 3 to 1 with Dr. Howell and J. W. Siler of St. Louis withdrawing.

Medalist honors for the meet were shared by I. Cash, W. Mallory, and S. Johnson with 69's. I. Cash, St. Louis ace, beat Mallory one up as they finished the morning round four over par.

At the conclusion of the day's play the visiting St. Louis team was guest at a dinner given by the Heart of America club at the Penrod Country club.

Leroy Doty, chairman of the tournament committee were assisted by Dowdal Davis and Morris Herndon in arranging the match.
