

Desperate Coughs

Dangerous coughs. Extremely perilous coughs. Coughs that rasp and tear the throat and lungs. Coughs that shake the whole body. You need a regular medicine, a doctor's medicine, for such a cough. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Any good doctor will tell you that a medicine like Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cannot do its best work if the bowels are constipated. Ask your doctor if he knows anything better than Ayer's Pills for correcting this sluggishness of the liver.

To My Patrons

I have been in business in Dakota City now for the last fifteen years, and during all this time I have tried my best to please you all with my goods and prices.

Now that I am moving into my new location, Fifteenth and Broadway, I will now have to ask you to come with your pocketbooks, and I will endeavor to sell to you for cash as cheap or cheaper than you can buy anywhere on earth. Cash will always be as good as a liberal discount.

Bear in mind that I need the money to do business with, and by doing a cash business I will consequently be able to divide the profit with you.

For all these fifteen years that you have patronized me, I wish to thank you most sincerely, as no one appreciates a favor more than I do, and I will also appreciate a continuance of the same pleasant business relations; but I must ask you to come with the cash, as I need every cent in my business.

Remember the center table in our new store will be loaded with goods marked to sell at 50 cents on the dollar.

I invite you to come and see what we have—you will be pleased and will appreciate it, because I will endeavor to do the very best I possibly can for my customers. Your Merchant,

VAN DE ZEDDE, Dakota City, Nebr.

Lincoln Centenary at Jackson

The faculty and pupils of St Catherine's Academy and the students of the public high school gathered in the assembly hall of the academy on February 12th to recall the life and services of the great man whose name was being spoken in praise on that day throughout the length and breadth of the mighty Union he had preserved.

The memorial exercises began with the singing of "The Red, White and Blue"; the earnestness and spirit of the young lady vocalists was an evidence that the patriotic devotion of American women, so helpful to Lincoln in the darkest hours of his great struggle "has not perished from the earth."

Then Editha Kearney recited in her clear, well-modulated voice Lincoln's favorite poem, "Oh Why Should the Spirit of Mortal be Proud?" The heart-subduing sentiments, so well expressed, explained much of the magnanimity of Lincoln's character, for how could a mind that dwelt frequently on the inherent littleness of man as compared to the vastness of destiny, fail to discern clearly the pettiness of malice and revenge, and the sorry pathos of human pomp and circumstance.

In answer to "Roll Call" by Gertrude Hall each pupil gave a quotation from Lincoln; that so many choice sentiments could be culled from the writings of a man noted for extreme brevity of speech proves that excellence in literature is pre-eminently of quality rather than quantity.

The graduates quartette rendered "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" in a way that would have stirred deep memories in any one who had worn the Blue or Gray from "Sumpter to Appomatox."

The chief feature of the entertainment was an informal lecture on "War Times and Lincoln," by the Very Rev P F McCarthy. Those who have ever had the pleasure of hearing the rever-speaker will admit his power to portray logically and simply, while he instructs and delights with word-picture, humorous incident and witty conclusion. The deep, almost strained attention of his audience would be a flattering tribute to a lecturer less gifted in the art of interesting, but it is doubtful if one of the boys present—and boys are proverbially inattentive—could be made believe that they had been listening so closely for more than an hour.

If making Lincoln's birthday a national holiday would insure so enjoyable a treat each year on February 12, it is not difficult to predict how many votes would be cast in favor of the measure in Jackson.

The exercises closed with a full chorus of "Columbia."

John Mullins now has his ice house filled and is ready for the hot weather.

Capt. RA Talbot is confined to his home with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Clay Howard leaves this week for his claim in Rock county. His son Clarence accompanies him.

Miss Edna Pearson left last week for Chicago where she will post up on the latest thing in ladies millinery.

Miss Kate Hard returned Monday to her home at Tilden, Nebraska, after a visit with Miss Fay Tollinger.

John Manning left Tuesday evening for Enid and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma for a months visit with a brother living there.

Miss Blanche Mutz, of Pender, is a guest at the J M Johnson home this week. Her father is sick and in a Sioux city hospital.

Miss and Mrs. Harry Foye, who returned two weeks ago from Union Oregon, are now settled down in the log cabin at Crystal Lake Park.

Mrs Mary E Armour has commenced the erection of a new $3000 residence in Sioux City at 1309 Palmer street. It is to be two story and have seven rooms with all modern conveniences.

W T Curry who is a caulker at the Armour packing plant, fell from a twelve-foot scaffold Monday afternoon, severely bruising his left thigh. He was removed to St Joseph's hospital in the police ambulance, where his wound was dressed. The attending physician looks for no serious consequences, and states that Curry will be able to leave the hospital in a few days. Curry suffered considerable pain and it was at first thought that he had broken his leg.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

EDITED BY THE SENIOR CLASS

Verda Von Hagen and Anna Evans are on the sick list.

Those absent for at least one day this week were: Harold Gribble, Walter Miller, Majorie Spencer, and Esther Leamer.

Two book agents called on Mr Josiassen at the high school Monday morning.

Wilfred Kinkle has re-entered school after a three weeks' absence.

Messdames Evans, Barnett, Sherman, Graham and Mr Kramper attended the Washington program given by Miss Wilson's pupils.

Mr and Mrs S A Stinson visited the high school room a few minutes Monday evening. Before leaving, Mr Stinson gave us a short talk, telling how he was when in school. This talk was appreciated very much by the scholars and they hope Mr Stinson will call again soon.

Charles and Currence Fisher re-entered school Monday morning after a two weeks absence.

The 9th, 10th and 11th grades were among those taking state examinations at the court house Friday and Saturday.

The tenth and part of the eleventh grades are taking a review in history, the tenth grade having finished their algebra.

The fourth and fifth grades gave their Washington and Lincoln program Monday afternoon.

Verna and Harry Brodyhill were absent from school Monday.

Mr and Mrs S A Stinson and Mrs Dierking were fourth and fifth grade visitors Monday afternoon. The latter was a visitor in the grammar grades also.

A very interesting program was given by the second division, Friday. The "Fun Flasher," edited by the Misses Kathaleen Neiswanger and Myrtle Bouton, of the eighth grade was especially good.

Think About Your Boy!

Mr. Farmer—By the time your boy grows up and becomes old enough to take up in his own name one of the new Government Irrigated farms in the Big Horn Basin it will be too late for him to get one. Will you let his chance go by? Is this fair to the boy? What will he think of your foresight when he seeks for land and finds out that you neglected to take in 1909, almost as a gift, an Uncle Sam Irrigated Farm that in 1919 will cost him $150 per acre? Of course, if he has the price, all right, but what if he has not?
