The Wayne Herald says that a very fine rain fell there Saturday. It was a decidedly coarse rain here, the drops being about as big as a bucket.

There is always some humorous cuss in a state convention. One of these had his vote counted for Bartley Wednesday, while two others registered their's for his savior, Governor Savage.

Governor Savage's administration was complimented with two votes at the republican state convention Wednesday. If he had cut out that Bartley pardon and the Norfolk hospital deal it might have been different.

The poor folks who could not burn hard coal anyway at the prevailing prices, were not greatly interested in the anthracit setrike but if it comes to the pass that soft coal is forced up in price it will be felt by the common people in more ways than one.

John H. Mickey.

John H. Mickey, who heads the republican state ticket as candidate for governor, is a man slightly below medium height, of rugged build and kindly expression. He is an Iowan by birth and 57 years of age. Asked to tell something about himself he modestly replied in response to pertinent questions:

"'I was born in 1845, near Burlington, Ia. My father was a farmer and I was raised on a farm. My education was obtained in the common schools of the place, but was finished off after I returned from the war by two years' attendance at Wesleyan college at Mount Pleasant. Although not yet of age I had enlisted in August, 1863, in company D of the Eighth Iowa cavalry, in which I served until mustered out under a general order in August, 1865. My career in the army was fairly active. Our first assignment was for scouting in central Tennessee. In the spring of 1864 we went through with the Sherman campaign from Chattanooga to Atlanta, laying the foundations for Sherman's famous march to the sea. In the fall of that year we were with Thomas in opposing Hood's expedition to Nashville, engaging the enemy at Frankville and at Nashville.

"'After the war I went back to Iowa, and then in 1868 came to Nebraska, taking a homestead in Polk county. Before leaving Iowa I had married in September of 1867. My wife was Miss Marinda McCray of Des Moines county, Iowa. Of my domestic life all I need to say is that I have nine children, five boys and four girls, all alive, three of them married. I lived on my Polk county homestead until 1872, when I moved my residence to Osceola, having been chosen county treasurer. They kept me in the office of county treasurer for ten years, from 1879 to 1890, and I served in the legislature of 1881. But I have never occupied any other public positions. I am now president of the Osceola bank.

"'I am farming a tract of 240 acres and am engaged in stock raising, making a specialty of fine shorthorn breeds. I was born and raised a Methodist and have been constantly identified with that church, active more especially in promoting its educational work. I am president of the board of trustees of the Wesleyan university at University Place. I believe in broad and liberal education for all the people. I would have no sectarianism in any public institution, although I believe that there is work for the sectarian colleges outside of and in addition to that of the state university.

"'In politics I have always been a republican. In my speech before the convention I recalled voting for Abraham Lincoln when I was only 19 years of age. I ought to have explained that this was under a special act of the legislature of Iowa providing that all soldiers in the field should be allowed to vote without regard to age and their ballots sent home. As I have said, I hope to make an active campaign and enlist the co-operation of every republican in Nebraska.'"—Omaha Bee.
