THE JOURNAL.

WEDNESDAY OCT. 3, 1883.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

EDITOR JOURNAL: Please announce the name of Henry Ragatz as candidate for county clerk, subject to the action of the republican convention, and oblige,

MANY CITIZENS.

Wanted.

Persons knowing themselves indebted to Dowty, Weaver & Co. to please call and settle accounts. 22-3

Republican Co. Convention.

--School books of all kinds at E. D. Fitzpatrick's. 18-tf

—Lands bought and sold by Gus. G. Becher & Co.

—B. Stull, Esq., of Polk county, was in the city last week.

—The light-running, quiet Domestic is the machine to buy.

—J. C. Echols is selling wall paper 3 cts. double roll. Remnants. 9

WANTED.--A good clerk who can speak German, at Galley Bros.

—The best assortment of boys' clothing at the Star Clothing House.

—J. C. Echols is selling wall paper for less money than any one in town.

—John Wiggins, of the Columbus Packing Co., returned from his western trip Sunday last.

—Remember J. W. Early's cattle sale of high grades Monday, October 15th, at Platte Center. 1

—Plenty of old papers in bundles of ten each, for five cents a bundle, at the JOURNAL office. tf

—A sociable and supper will be given at the M. E. church next Friday evening. All are invited.

—Rev. J. Q. A. Fleharty will fill his pulpit at the M. E. church next Sabbath at the usual hours for services.

—We are now ready to take your measure for a first class suit of clothes, or an overcoat. Star Clothing House.

--It pays to trade at Kramer's.

—M. E. Newton was badly injured in the knee joint one evening last week, while climbing on a car in the U. P. yards.

—The republican county convention for the purpose of nominating a county ticket is called for Saturday, October 6th.

—The fall races of the Columbus Driving Park & Fair Association are announced to come off October 16th, 17th and 18th.

—Father Burke and son, of Chicago, were in the city last week. The old gentleman still holds landed interests in this county.

—Judging from present indications Columbus will experience next year a boom in building such as she has not yet known.

—Judge W. S. Geer has been confined to his bed by sickness for several days past. We hope to soon see him around again.

—Mrs. J. I. Paynter, of Omaha, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. L. Baker of this city, accompanied by her little daughter.

—Wm. Ryan came down from O'Neill City last week. He enjoys the opportunity of taking his old friends by the hand.

—Julius Rasmussen returned last week with his wife whom he went to meet at New York city on her return from her visit to Europe.

—Speice & North's platform scales were undergoing repairs last week and are now in good condition for the fall and winter work.

—F. W. Ott has purchased the confectionery and fruit business of H. J. Hudson, and has taken possession in the same old business stand.

—How does the honorable, unpretentious printer resemble the dishonest politician? The "devil" is always with him and "hell" not far off.

—Judge A. M. Post went to Fremont Monday evening, where he presides this week at a session of the district court for Dodge county.

--Jersey jackets at Kramer's.

—John H. Johannas, living near Platte Center, brought to the city last week four hogs, one of which weighed 465 pounds. The lot aggregated 1,600 pounds.

—James Cresap, our neighbor living a short distance east of the city, placed us under renewed obligations one day last week by presenting us with a splendid watermelon weighing 30 pounds.

—Major North and C. E. Morse are at St. Paul, Howard county, this week attending the fair which closes to-morrow. C. E. took "Bessie Turner" with him with a view to entering her in the races.

—Cupid has been getting in his work again with a couple of Columbus' young folks, and to-morrow evening hyman will consummate matters. Further particulars we are not at liberty to divulge.

—Lippitt, Leak & Co. had the box broken opened and robbed of part of the goods on the road, yet you can be supplied with the California Soft Buck Gloves by calling at Galley Bros. dry goods store. 1

--Nobby new hats at Kramer's.

—Big stock sale of high grade cattle at Platte Center, October 15th. See notice. 1

—Dr. C. B. Stillman, J. W. Early, C. A. Speice, and Dr. C. D. Evans, were visitors one evening last week at the hall of the Norfolk chapter of Royal Arch Masons, to aid in work pertaining to the chapter.

—J. W. Dickinson left at this office last week a nice specimen of sugar crab apples, the first of the kind we ever saw. They are a winter fruit, and were grown at his place twelve miles northwest of Genoa.

—The city was jammed full of people last Saturday--some as delegates to the Democratic county convention, others as interested spectators, and hosts of farmers with their wives interviewed our merchants with an eye to bargains.

--Public sale of 125 head of short-horn cattle (bulls, cows and heifers) and 100 Cotswold and Leicester sheep, on six months time, by E. R. Healy & Sons and W. R. Wilson, at Council Bluffs, Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 10th and 11th, 1883. 1

—The new bonnet, hood, helmet or whatever it may be called that our police have taken shelter under isn't a bit nice. It's not brave in appearance either--not even saucy, but has the dead beat droop and appearance of a whipped fighting cock.

—Mr. E. Mallory, of Steuben county, Indiana, was in the city one day last week. He has traveled considerably through the State and likes the country well. He invested $1600 in an unimproved 160 acres in Pawnee county, and thought it cheap.

—John Huber, auctioneer at Price & Hulst and Eyman's stock sales, reports that at Eyman's sale three-year-old steers brought $50 cash; two-year-olds sold for $36 cash; yearlings $25. At Price & Hulst's sale, cows averaged $36, and spring calves $18.

—Henry S. Armstrong, recently from Maryland, has located in Boone Co., Neb., post-office address St. Edwards. One by one—in the aggregate by hundreds—the older states are losing their citizens, and by the same rule Nebraska is gaining them.

—J. T. Nichol, a prominent citizen of Lasalle, Ill., was in the city Saturday in company with our neighbor Mr. Westcott who resides near the city, and whose family Mr. Nichol is visiting. Mr. N. has formed a very favorable opinion of Nebraska.

—The sincerity of the democratic nominee for county treasurer in his speech on receiving the nomination will hardly be questioned. He said: "Gentlemen, I thank you for the nomination, and will do all I can to be elected, and hope I shall succeed."

—Mr. Johnson of Baltimore, Md., in company with his son of this county, called at the JOURNAL office Wednesday of last week. Mr. Johnson left that day for his home in the east. He visited Nebraska about three years ago and was very favorably impressed with the country.

—Private letters to friends in this city announce the sad intelligence of the death of Frank Cain, at one time a resident of Columbus, and a much esteemed young man, who had scarcely arrived at the age of manhood's full maturity. We believe that his death was caused by typhoid fever.

—F. M. Cookingham is our authorized agent at Humphrey for soliciting subscription, advertising and job-work. Business entrusted to him will receive the same attention as if done direct with us. Call on him, give him your home work and your home news, use him well, and he will grow apace. tf M. K. TURNER & Co.

—Seward's police judge was recentcently found in a state of beastly intoxication and after spending a night in the cooler was taken before a justice of the city and fined $10.00 an costs. He can now pass sentence upon plain drunks in the light of experience, but whether it will be to the advantage of the malfactor or not, who can say?

--Horse thieving is getting to be of very frequent occurrence in north Nebraska, and some neck-tie parties may be expected soon if it does not cease. The people are becoming greatly incensed, and will not stand much more foolishness, and when they organize for their own protection, it is liable to be very unpleasant for horse thieves.

—Next Saturday, Oct. 6th, will be the anniversary of the first settlement by German citizens in the United States two hundred years ago. The day will be generally celebrated throughout the country. In this city preparations are being made for an appropriate observance of the day. The decoration of business streets with flags, etc., will be a prominent feature.

—Gus. G. Becher wants it understood that while he is a candidate for the nomination of county treasurer on the republican ticket he has his weather eye open to business, and will write you an insurance policy on the best companies in the world, or make you a loan on the best terms to be had, and at the same time will pleasantly talk over the political situation if you wish it. 1t

—John T. Mallalieu, formerly a citizen of this county, now of Kearney, was in the city Saturday. He received the nomination for regent of the university at the recent republican state convention. Mr. Mallalieu is a clever and very competent man for that position, having spent the greater portion of his life in educational pursuits. We wish him all possible success in the campaign.

—The property on 11th street, well known as the John Wiggins corner, lately owned and occupied by John W. Davis, has been purchased by the First National Bank. We are informed by Mr. Anderson, the president, that a first-class building, not less than two stories, will be erected thereon in the near future. This will be a valuable addition to business interests of the street and city.

—The ball game last Wednesday between the lawyers and doctors was broken up at the fifth innings by disagreement upon divers matters. We believe the umpire got away without being mobbed. When two disturbing elements like that meet, look out for trouble. We can't help but think the man a little rash—to put it mildly—who accepts the position of umpire in a game of ball between them.

—At the republican caucuses on Saturday last the following nominations were made for town officers:

MONROE PRECINCT.

For supervisor, Robert E Wiley; for town clerk, Geo. S Truman; for town treasurer, John E. Dack.

WOODVILLE PRECINCT.

For supervisor, William J Irwin; for town clerk, David L. Conard; for town treasurer, William Wright.

—It is asserted on good authority that the editor of the COLUMBUS JOURNAL will support the straight republican nominees this year. How is it, M. K.?—Boone Co. Argus.

In the absence of "M. K." the writer will take the responsibility of saying that the editor of the JOURNAL is a republican—always has been a republican, and in the future as in the past can consistently be expected on the side of "straight" republicanism. Can a friend be found who will make that unqualified assertion on behalf of our inquiring journalistic friend of the Argus?

—Dr. J. Laramer, of Toledo, Ohio, brother-in-law to Mrs. J. H. Reed, living a short distance from the city, arrived at Mr. Reed's on last Wednesday, and in the evening retired to rest, and next morning was found dead in his bed. Dr. Laramer was about 58 years old and in apparent good health. The belief was that he died from apoplexy. His funeral took place from the residence of Mr. Reed at 3 o'clock Sunday, and his remains were buried at the Columbus cemetery. His wife, two sons and a daughter arrived here in time to attend his funeral.

—The sign in the local political horoscope would seem to predict that the republican ticket which will be put in nomination by the republican convention next Saturday will be one that will be a credit to the party and also one that good men without regard to party can give their conscientious support. For the office of county clerk we have the name of Henry Ragatz announced in the JOURNAL this week as a candidate who will probably not have a competitor in the convention, and for treasurer Gus. G. Becher, the JOURNAL is authorized to say, will ask for the vote of the convention. Both of these gentlemen are staunch republicans, and will undoubtedly, if nominated, poll a strong vote in the county. Further than this with regard to the possible candidates for the different offices the JOURNAL has not been posted.

—The Platte county democracy met in convention Saturday last at the Court House and nominated a ticket for the county offices. The nominations for county judge, sheriff and clerk were remarkably unanimous, indicating that the machine was well oiled and the pins systematically adjusted. These nominations were all made by acclamation. On treasurer the balloting was very close, C. A. Newman taking the lead, followed by J. B. Delsman as a very close second. Mr. Newman was nominated on the first formal ballot, but one more vote than constituted the convention appearing in the count, a second ballot was ordered with a like result. The third ballot gave Mr. Newman the nomination by a bare majority. Following is the ticket: County judge, J. J. Sullivan; sheriff, D. C. Kavanaugh; clerk, John Stauffer; treasurer, C. A. Newman; clerk district court, G. Heitkemper; coroner, A. Heintz; surveyor, J. J. Maughan; supt. of schools, Thomas Hall; commissioner 3d district, Martin Maher; commissioner 1st district, Jacob Ernst.

By resolution the convention endorsed the platform of the state democratic convention. We give in full the following resolution, which seems to have some local significance:

Resolved, That we will permit no body of men, by whatever party name they may be known, to forestall our action by invading our party ranks to select their candidates, and we regard with suspicion the politics of so-called democrats who accept prior nominations, either openly or otherwise, from our opponents,—and from all such candidates we strenuously withhold our support."

Real Estate Transfers.

Reported for the JOURNAL for the week ending last Saturday, by Gus G. Becher & Co:

Caution.

All persons are hereby cautioned against negotiating for a certain note bearing date of Sept. 27th, '83, to J. M. Weatherbee of Lost Creek, for the sum of $225, payable in 12 months with interest at 7 per cent, and signed by Wm. E. Edwards and two others, as I refuse the payment of same, not having received value therefor.

WM. E. EDWARDS.

Platte Center, Oct. 1st, '83. 23-3

The Anglo-American Circus.

The circus season is at hand and the question most natural to arise is: "are we going to be humbugged again this season?" The public of this locality has been so often deceived of late that this journal feels it almost a solemn duty to proclaim the coming of the first genuine, meritorious circus and menagerie that has visited us in a year. As the date of the Anglo-American 4 Combined Rail Road Shows has already been fixed for Columbus, Wednesday, Oct. 10th, it will be in place to quote the opinion of that excellent journal the Green Bay Morning Advocate of August 23d last:

"The Anglo-American Circus exhibited in Green Bay on Tuesday afternoon and evening, the large tents being packed full on both occasions, which shows that this city may still hold its reputation as a 'big circus town.' Although the circus had passed through 30 storms this season, which take off a good deal of the glitter, its street parade was good. The show under the canvas was excellent in every particular, fully up to the highest standards. There was not an inferior act performed. We saw none of the rowdyism and thievery against which we had been warned and the show here leaves none but kindly remembrances in its wake."

Such unmistakable evidence of hearty approval leaves no opportunity for additional praise, and fully explains the cause of the universal praise that this institution is enjoying everywhere. It will have a tent stretched canvas at Columbus, Wednesday, Oct. 10. It will cost no more to go to the big Rail Road Show, than it would to a cross-road wagon show, worn out in service over bad roads and long drives, and of small dimensions.

Wait for the Big show and see a good one. 300 men and horses, 20 cages of living, choice animals, 22 loaded cars. All that is advertised is shown up. Count our cages; count our horses; see list of animals. 1

Humphrey.

Mrs. F. M. Cookingham is expected back from her visit in Iowa next Saturday.

The latest arrival was at F. H. Baker's—a lone traveler. I believe it is a girl and will make its home with Mr. Baker's family.

The incorporation can boast of two polls for election day--Humphrey precinct at the school house, and Granville at Justice Baker's office.

The sale of F. W. Tate drew out a large crowd Saturday. Cattle brought a good price; the aggregate of the sale was over two thousand three hundred dollars.

Mr. John Wagoner, having sold his farm will give up farming, and having bought three lots of Mr. Ottis will proceed to build upon them immediately. Mr. Wagoner is a live business man and we hope he will soon go in business here.

Oh! oh! limburger cheese! Jacob Steffis is the victim of much anoyance over the precious stuff. He got a large box of the article and it was at the depot a day or two, and the railroad agent came up and engaged rooms of Steffis, who wanted to know why he left the depot, and he told him his limburger cheese drove him out doors and he couldn't get back. So Jacob took his team and went after it. Either the cheese or Jake must have been stubborn, or they would not need the team, for the cheese certainly was strong enough to walk that short distance. C.
