—For strictly first-class dental work, go to Dr. Hunt. Gold, rubber and celluloid plates made. Pivot teeth set on roots of natural teeth, and all branches of dental work done. Office over First National Bank. Best of references given. 1

—R. W. Perkinson, of Platte Center, was in town Saturday and gave the JOURNAL office a pleasant business call. During the recent freshet the water reached the depot at the Center. He reports that two new business houses will open up soon.

—Soliciting the patronage of all my friends who desire a life insurance policy from $500 to $15,000 at the lowest cost of assessment, I may be found in the office of Henry Ragatz, Fire Insurance Agent, on 11th street, Columbus, Neb. H. J. Hudson, Agent.

—The JOURNAL building is having a new tin roof put on, under contract by Wermuth & Bœttcher, Chas. Davis having contract for the wood work. In a few weeks we hope to have one of the neatest and tidiest offices in the state. Certainly our roof is a splendid job of work.

—On Saturday next, if the B. & M. bridge across the Platte shall be in readiness, the following gentlemen near Platte Center expect to ship twenty-two car loads of fat cattle to Chicago: Thomas Lynch, Pat. Gleason, James, David and Henry Carrig and John Deneen.

—J. S. Crawford, formerly of this city, has moved to Majors, Neb., and orders his JOURNAL to follow him. He says that is comparatively a new country, but is filling up very rapidly. Majors is 18 miles north by east from Kearney and in a very productive piece of country.

In Memoriam.

At a regular meeting of the Columbus Mænnerchor held March 21, '86, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, In view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and associate Fredrick Scheck, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn for one who was in every way worthy our respect and regard, as his character was noble in the highest degree, to all mankind.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased, on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best.

—The "W. Y. Bissell Hose Team" have received bill for their new tournament cart, built by Camp & Bro. of Lincoln. It weighs 512 lbs., is handsomely painted a bright carmine lake, striped with gold with W. Y. Bissell's name in gold leaf around the reel. The boys expect its arrival in a few days; it is now lying in the depot at Bellwood on account of the washout. A Lincoln paper speaking of the cart says it is a most excellent piece of mechanism. On its arrival here the members of the team will give it a hearty welcome and as soon as the weather will permit go into training for the annual tournament which is to be held at Fremont some time in August.

—The daily papers give account of the absconding from Norfolk of Chas. Matthewson, a banker of that place, and a politician of considerable prominence heretofore in Madison county, having even been much talked of for governor to succeed Dawes. It is conjectured that he is short in his money obligations through speculation in grain; that he was administrator of an estate, and had to account shortly for some $22,000 belonging to it; that he had lost heavily in gambling; that he has been dissolute in other ways besides. It would seem that he had property enough to satisfy all known liabilities, and his going is not wholly ascribed to money affairs.

—Since both wagon bridges across the Cedar river near Fullerton have gone down with the flood there appears to be a prevalent opinion that there should now be one good bridge built somewhere between the sites of the old ones and below the west railroad bridge near town. This will sufficiently accommodate travel both from up and down the river and will be just as well for travel from off the table land north of the village. The wreck of the two lost bridges is sufficient evidence that it is throwing away money to build cheap ones, such as they were, and one good bridge is all the burden the town is able to bear.—Fullerton Telescope.

—Mr. George Crossland and Miss Mary Schonlau were married Monday the 8th, in Omaha, at the residence of the bride's sister, at 5 o'clock p. m. They left the next morning for Hastings, where Mrs. Crossland will visit friends and George will look up a business location. They are worthy and estimable young people, and the JOURNAL hopes their wedded life may be blessed with good fortune—with few "crosses" and lots of "land."—Norfolk Journal.

Best in the World.

Ottumwa Lily Corn Starch has been brought to the highest attainable quality by employing the best skill and scientific aid that money can furnish. It is the most strengthening and health-giving food now before the public, and is especially recommended for children and invalids. Every package guaranteed strictly pure. Remember and ask your grocer for Lily Corn Starch.

—Mr. Winterstein, traveling for Seaman of Omaha, while in the city one day last week, received a telegram announcing the death and burial of an infant son at Omaha. Mr. W. had been west on a long trip, and while gone a son had been born to him, lived six weeks, sickened, died and had been buried. Telegrams sent him had failed to reach him until he got to this city.

—The railroad committee appointed to confer with the authorities of the Chicago & Northwestern went to Missouri Valley yesterday for that purpose, expecting to return today. We shall soon hear what it is proposed to do. It is probable, too, that the public meeting to which they will report will also discuss the policy of a permanent bridge across the Loup.

—We notice that D. Frank Davis has assumed the editorial chair of the Democrat. Mr. Davis comes highly spoken of as a newspaper man. As such, the JOURNAL extends the hand of welcome, and assures the new editor that in everything which makes for the material prosperity of the city, county and state, we can work heartily together.

—Those who are opposed to granting a license for the sale of liquor in the city will hold a convention at John Hammond's office, Saturday evening, April 3d, for the purpose of nominating city officers. A committee of Good Templars have been canvassing the city the past week to find the sentiment of citizens.

—Mrs. F. Scheck widow, and Mr. Wm. Scheck, brother of F. Scheck deceased, desire to thank our friends for the untiring attention during his sickness, and hereby express our gratitude and appreciation of the fraternal and social relation of the Odd Fellows and Mænnerchor societies at his burial.

For Rent.

The store building known as the "Sheehan Saloon," near the U. P. depot; also the Bar Fixtures. This is a fine chance for a live man. It is the oldest saloon stand in Columbus. Inquire of Becher & Co. 47-tf

Bismark Township.

W. H. Swartsley, who is teaching in Dist. 2, has been sick the past week.

The following were the visitors at the Bismark Academy last week: Rudolph C. Mueller, director; Thomas M. Wilson, moderator; John G. Dreher and John Luchsinger.

The high water made havoc with the bridges in this vicinity. A slough bridge, just south of Mathis's bridge, went out last Friday, Gerhold's bridge went out last week, and Lucius's bridge is expected to go out.

The Bismark Academy closed on the 19th. There was an exhibition in the evening, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the house was full. Everything passed off splendidly, the program being as follows: Song, "I'll paddle my own Canoe; remarks by L. H. Leavy, teacher; selection of president, J. C. Swartsley being unanimously elected; song, "Mount Vernon's Bells"; select reading, C. D. Wilson; declamation, Martin Dreher; reading, Martha Craun; declamations, Frederick Karline, Louis Nounburg; reading, Mary Craun; declamations, Wm. Craun, Ella Swartsley, Daniel Nounburg, Jacob Dreher; dialogue, Edwin Butler and Otto Heiden; declamations, Alvin Butler, Alice Swartsley, Mary Craun, C. D. Wilson, Edwin Butler, Bertha Hodel, George Swartsley; song, "Little Eva"; dialogue, subject, "Keeping up an appearance"; declamations, Emma Wilson, Martha Craun, Jessie Swartsley, Forrest Butler, Otto Heiden, C. D. Wilson, Johnie Nounburg; an address by the teacher; essay, W. H. Swartsley; dialogue, subject, "Changing Servants"; speeches, J. C. Swartsley, T. M. Wilson, Rudolph C. Mueler and W. H. Swartsley; remarks by teacher, and closing with "Parting Song."

CHARLES.

District 44 and Vicinity.

Roads are bad, and getting no better fast.

The winter term of school closes next Thursday.

Michael Killoran is now possessor of the Jumbo mule.

Three weddings on the tapis will be announced by the officials.

Nick. Johnson has returned from his old home in Burean county, Ill.

During a recent blizzard, the teacher remained in the school house all night.

Last Friday one of Mr. Griffin's horses was gored in the side by an unruly cow.

Every one bear in mind that on Monday, April 5th, is school meeting day, and on Tuesday 6th, is town meeting day.

Fred. Stenger is coming onto his upland farm this spring, when he will move the house recently vacated by Mr. Rice, upon the upland of sw. ¼, sec. 10, 17 n, 1e., where he will make his future home.

A supposed huge drift of snow one day last week in D. Sheedy's corn field, belched forth thunder and smoke, just as a flock of geese were passing over that way. It proved to be Mr. Vogel, one of Columbus's bakers; nobody hurt.

Those holding Columbus Township orders bearing interest, will remember that they cease bearing interest when there is money in the treasury belonging to the fund upon which they were drawn; there is plenty of money in the treasury now.

R.

School Matters.

Last week we happened upon a copy of the report from this district to the State Superintendent which shows, among other things, the following, for the year ending July 13, 1885:

Money on hands April 7, '84	$ 1435 83
Received from County Treasurer April 7, '84 to July 13, '85	6000 00

Shell Creek Items.

Miss Nellie Potter will soon close her term of school at Postville with a good record. The district will have quite a number of new scholars for the next term.

Mr. H. S. Elliott bought Robin Adair, 53,600. Sensible men are coming around from all the different fancy breeds to the good old reliable short horns after all.

The writer has been looking at the new fence made by Messrs. Taylor & Jenkinson, another new factory in Columbus that deserves patronage, and has recommended it already to a friend who wants to fence in a yard. I would much prefer it even to a six-wire, barb wire fence, if it only could be furnished at reasonable figures. If the slats could be tarred or primed it would be still more valuable.

The air is full of railroad talk. Railroads develope the country; they cost and they bring money. The writer remembers the time when the teamsters opposed the railroads as taking away their bread, but time has shown that the railroads gave them work and bread. Railroads, too, are helping each other—the more roads the more travel and freighting. "It magnifies as many times as you look through it," said the little boy when a gentleman, to puzzle him, asked him how many times his magnifying glass magnified. Every railroad helps to increase the business of other roads—therefore, "the more the merrier."

X. Y. Z.

Monroe Items.

Mr. Willis will leave for Cheyenne county in two weeks.

Mrs. H. H. Eyman and daughter, of Genoa, are visiting friends at this place.

Miss M. Pugsley, of Genoa, spent several days with friends here, being snow bound.

Marcus Judd has acted upon Horace Greely's advice to young men, and gone west.

Our bachelor friend, Sipple will dedicate his new house by entertaining the ladies sewing society on Saturday of this week.

Quite a large company assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Southard and gave them a very agreeable surprise; the evening was pleasantly passed, with music, games, etc.

This part of Nebraska is fast losing its reputation for having good dry roads, as the mud is so deep it is almost impossible to get about but it gives the farmers a good chance to stay at home and get rested.

T. D. X.

Dr. Powers, Dentist.

Teeth extracted without pain. The Dr. will make his celebrated $20 upper sets of teeth for $15. These sets are of superior workmanship and contain two gold fillings. Call on the Dr. if you want good work. In office every Monday, over Ernst & Schwarz's. 39-tf

BIRTHS

WILLARD—On Thursday, March 18th, to Mrs. George Willard, a daughter.

MARRIED.

REED—ERB—March 18th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Erb, near the city, by Rev. Scholtz, Harry B. Reed and Miss Lizzie Erb. A large number of invited guests were in attendance and the presents were numerous.

DIED.

SCHECK—In this city, March 18th, '86, of consumption, Frederick Scheck.

The deceased was born at Barmstedt, Holstein, Germany, Jan. 14th, 1850. He came to America in 1872, living in Iowa six years, then removing to Nebraska in 1878. April 3d, 1879, he married Miss Preiss, a worthy young lady of this city. About eight months ago, his fatal illness attacked him, since which time he has been failing rapidly. His brother of Chicago arrived a few hours before his death, bearing a last message from mother and sister of the same city.

Mr. Scheck was a quiet, unassuming business man, thoroughly upright in his transactions, and highly respected by all who had dealings with him.

The funeral was conducted Sunday last by the Odd Fellows, of which order he was a member, H. J. Hudson delivering a short address at the grave commemorative of the virtues of the deceased. Services in German were held previously at the Maennerchor Hall, the Maennerchor singing three burial songs and Rev. Scholtz making some remarks.

The mortal remains of Mr. Scheck were laid to rest in the bright sunshine of a warm spring day in the presence of a large number of his acquaintances, every one of whom was a personal friend, for he seemed to have no enemy in the world.
