Mr. Early is one of those wide-awake business men who snap at good bargains like a hungry toad at a fly, and it would not surprise us if he got his irons into several fires before leaving this section. It is such men we need here."

—Mrs. O. T. Roen, children and servant, while out for a drive Sunday evening came nearly having a serious runaway. While crossing the railroad track on Olive street, the horse got scared at the noise from a locomotive, and although Mrs. R. held on to the reins heroically, the animal became unmanageable, and started on a lively pace down Olive street, but O. L. Baker being near the scene used his pluck and activity to good advantage and soon had all things to rights again.

Columbus to Have a New Depot.

Through the kindness of Mayor Kramer we are permitted to print the following correspondence which fully explains itself:

COLUMBUS, MAY 18, '86.

MR. S. R. CALLAWAY, General Manager U. P. R. R., Dear Sir:—As Mayor of this city I take the liberty of addressing these lines to you to ask if anything further has been done by you to give us the much-needed, new depot, and to earnestly request you to use your kind influence and give us a good substantial building at once. A good depot is a permanent improvement and would help your business here, as well as be a great convenience to us. Awaiting an early reply, I remain,

Yours, truly,
CARL KRAMER.

U. P. RAILWAY COMPANY.,
Omaha, May 20, '86.

CARL KRAMER, ESQ., Columbus, Neb., Dear Sir:—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of May 18th. The depot at Columbus will be built this summer.

Yours truly,
S. R. CALLAWAY.

—L. A. Clark, agent for the B. & M. in this city, showed us Monday last quite a novelty in the shape of a gavel, the wood for which he has been collecting during the past two years. The work has just been completed by Messrs. Murdock & Willis of this place and is perhaps the greatest mechanical curiosity in the United States. In the handle are 13 different pieces of wood obtained from and representing the 13 original states of the Union. In the ball of the gavel are different pieces representing 37 states and territories, including one piece from the District of Columbia, and one from Canada, the total being 50 pieces neatly finished and put together. A silver band will encircle the ball of the gavel appropriately engraved, and will be presented by Agent Clark on the 9th of June, at Indianapolis, to the National R. R. Agents Association, of which he is secretary. Mr. Clark will no doubt receive the hearty thanks of the Association for this unique memento.

—The Norfolk News gives a lengthy account of what it designates as the leading industry of that place—the Norfolk Brick Company's Works, an industry established there some seven years ago by J. F. Flynn, formerly of this place, and son of Thos. Flynn. The plant now includes a 25-horse-power engine, a Milwaukee pressing machine with a capacity of 45,000 bricks a day, and a Quaker pressing machine operated by horse-power, and capable of turning out 16,000 bricks a day. Dry sheds, kiln sheds, wind-mills, &c., constitute the remainder of the plant. The company are making 50,000 bricks a day, and have contracts for over 2,000,000 brick. They employ 50 men and boys, and their weekly pay roll foots up fully $500. A. P. Pilger last year became a partner in the business, but the entire work, says the News, is under the supervision of Mr. Flynn. And thus do the Columbus boys get ahead.

—All our Columbus readers know, of course, the circumstances surrounding the family of Aaron Cue. He met with an accident last winter by which he lost his fingers, and is yet so disabled that he cannot help himself. Not having been a capitalist before his injury, his little means were long since exhausted. We know that, when able, he was a very honest, industrious man, anxious to do well for his little family, and now we feel sure that the good people of Columbus who really desire to assist a worthy man in trouble will be glad of an opportunity to do so by donating cast-off clothing for his four children, ten and under, the three older being girls. Anything intended for the family can be left at the office of H. Ragatz on 11th street, or at Mr. Cue's residence, near Anderson's stock yard.

Pianos, Organs and Sewing Machines.

Those in need of either of these articles, and who expect to purchase during the coming year are hereby requested to send a letter to the address of A. & M. Turner, Columbus, Nebr., stating the fact. The letter will be placed on file and if a purchase is made within a year from its date, a deduction of $2 from the regular price of a sewing machine will be made, $5 on an organ and $10 on a piano, and the goods delivered. This deduction we can well afford to make because we will save more than this in traveling expenses. All articles sold fully guaranteed.

A. & M. TURNER,
Columbus, Neb.

—Some wide awake salesman is advised to give the residents of this vicinity an opportunity to examine and secure a copy of the latest and best Sectional Map of our Great State. Nice little points of geographical accuracy have received the most careful attention. Location of towns and lakes, and the exact course of streams and railroad lines are faithfully represented, as well as the irregularities of survey and deviations of section lines. The renowned Map Publishers, Rand, McNally & Co., 148-154 Monroe street, Chicago, have favored us with a copy of this fine work, and we remark that pecuniary success surely awaits the coming salesman. 5-3

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Texas, by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

Trial bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption free at Dowty & Heitkemper's.

Those who are afflicted with the tobacco habit, and wish to get rid of the desire to use it, either smoking or chewing, should canvass the merits of the tobacco taste-destroyer, which is an infallible cure. Sent by mail post paid at $1 per box.
