DE LUXE STUDIO,

The fifth annual convention of the Dakota County Sunday schools was held in the ME church beginning Wednesday afternoon at 2 o clock.

The opening praise and prayer service of twenty minutes was conducted by ReviGlenney, and President Kryger of South Sioux City took the chair and gave greetings. Miss Margaret E Brown and Paul Dietrick, state officers, were present and gave several fine addresses. Miss Brown gave an instructive talk to a large class of children who came from the public school and followed with an address to the convention on the subject of the "Elmentary Hour." Rev G E Von Hagen conducted the song service on Wednesday evening. Miss Brown delivered a most carnest and effective address on the subject Carl Ream was here from Homer "What is in Thine Hand?" The great Monday and Tuesday, visiting rela- responsibilities that rests upon all Sunday school workers were clearly and forcibly set forth.

Thursday morning the secretary, Miss Elizabeth S Haase, made a very comprehensive and complete report C L Culler and wife were down showing general progress has been
