SOCIETY

Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Sigma Phi Epsilon held its fall party at Knights of Columbus Saturday evening. Seventy-five couples were present. The hall was decorated with icicles, white streamers, and imitation snow to represent a winter scene. Ice cream, in the fraternity colors, and made in the shape of the pin and small white cakes, were served.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hollingsworth, Hastings; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Bell, Fairfield; Mrs. B. Ewing, and Mr. Lorry Rider, both of Omaha, were the out of town guests.

Sigma Chi.

Eighty couples were present at the Sigma Chi fall party which was given at the Lincoln hotel Saturday night. Cornstalks, autumn leaves, and pumpkins furnished an attractive Halloween motif. Cider, sandwiches, and pumpkin pie were served. The out of town guests were Wallace Hunter, Henry R. Hertal, and William Schedtman, all of Plattsmouth. Dr. and Mrs. Condra, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. O'Shea served as chaperons.

Kappa Alpha Theta.

A house dance was given by Keppa Alpha Theta last Friday evening for their freshmen. The rooms were very attractively decorated in autumnal manner. During the intermission refreshments were served for the forty couples who attended. Mrs. Stout and daughter, Mrs. Kennedy of Omaha, and Janet Atkins of Kansas were out of town guests.

Omega Beta Pi.

Omega Beta Pi gave a dance in Ellen Smith hall for about forty couples. Dr. H. H. Waite and Prof. and Mrs. E. B. Powers were chaperons. Seventeen last year's men, now attending the medical school in Omaha, were back. The fraternity colors crimson and white, were used as decorations. The orchestra was screened in with ferns. Refreshments and punch were served during the evening.

Norfolk Club.

The Norfolk club entertained twenty-five couples at a dance at the Bushnell guild house Friday evening. This was the dance of the season and it was well attended by the members of the club.

The house was decorated with red and white streamers. Refreshments were served during intermission.

The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Askey.

Pi Beta Phi.

Pi Beta Phi sorority entertained at their fall party Friday evening at the Knights of Columbus hall. The hall was decorated to represent a Japanese garden. About sixty couples were present. The out of town guests were Sarah Eischeid, Shenandoah, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Sonic and Elva Hanford, Plattsmouth; Mildred Rockwell, ex-'21, Omaha; Mara Saunchson, Bob Gist, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Scott.

Prof. and Mrs. Paul Grummann, Miss Alice Howell and Miss Edna Noble acted as chaperons.

Achoth.

The members of Achoth sorority entertained at dinner at their sorority house Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Florine Reed, whose marriage to Avery Pickering will take place soon. Covers were laid for thirty-six guests.

Phi Mu.

Phi Mu entertained thirty-six couples at a house dance that was given in honor of their freshmen, Friday evening. Lighted pumpkins, black cats and witches formed a Halloween decorative scheme. Light refreshments were served during the course of the evening. The chaperons were Mr. McGlassen, Miss Cleland, Fred Mahavek, Miss Ada Beckwith, Ida Wilson.

Gamma Phi Beta.

An atractive house party was given Saturday evening by the upper classmen of Gamma Phi Beta sorority in honor of their pledges. Halloween decorations were carried out in autumn leaves and pumpkins. Pumpkin pie, cider, and apples were served as refreshments late in the evening. The out of town guests were Ruth Scholes, Onawa Ia; Ruth Peterson, Minden; Ruth Irwin, Omaha, and Jean Felton, York. Mrs. Howard Hill chaperoned.
