Run to finance warm-ups

To earn money for new warm-ups, the UNL women's volleyball team will run to Omaha Sunday.

Team members are taking per-mile pledges for the 55-mile jog, according to Coach Pat Sullivan.

The idea of a run resulted from a brainstorming session by team members when they discovered the one set of warm-ups available for the team is too small for some players.

Sixteen volleyball players will leave at 10 a.m. Sunday from the Women's Physical Education Bldg. Cars will travel along the route to keep track of the runners and bring them back to Lincoln.

In competition, the volleyball teams will see action Saturday when they travel to Fremont to play Midland Lutheran College at 9:30 a.m. Both varsity and junior varsity are 1-0 for the season.

Answer to Thursday's crossword puzzle.

MEET YOURSELF And a lot of Other People, Too.

People who want to explore their limitless human potential.
That's what the human potential movement is all about. And that's what a "Weekend With Will Schutz" is all about. Dr. Schutz, a pioneer in the movement, author of best-selling Joy and Elements of Encounter, will afford an in-depth opportunity for you to discover more about yourself and the joy of being a unique human creature.
The weekend begins Friday with registration from 6:00-8:00 p.m. Dr. Schutz's opening session will be from 8:00-10:30 p.m. Friday evening followed by a social-time. Saturday sessions run from 8:30-Noon, 2:30-5:00, followed by a social-time. Sunday session is 9:00-Noon (Dr. Schutz will be available for informal chats in the afternoon). The $50.00 fee allows you to attend any or all sessions. "A Weekend With Will Schutz" is for professionals, for non-professionals, for YOU. So join us September 26-28, in Omaha, at the Holiday Inn, 72nd and I-80.
