

A Hair Dressing

If you wish a high-class hair dressing, we are sure Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will greatly please you. It keeps the hair soft and smooth, makes it look rich and luxuriant, prevents splitting at the ends. And it keeps the scalp free from dandruff.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

Ayer's

At the same time the new Ayer's Hair Vigor is a strong hair tonic, promoting the growth of the hair, keeping all the tissues of the hair and scalp in a healthy condition. The hair stops falling, dandruff disappears. A splendid dressing.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Mrs R L Broyhill leaves next week for Dalton, Neb., to visit her mother, Mrs Sarah Kinkead, who is making her home with a daughter, Mrs R L Fegley, at that place.

Grethele Rollock and Verna Broyhill visited over Sunday at the Will Broyhill home below Homer. Mabel Broyhill accompanied them home for a visit with relatives and friends hereabouts.

Remember the Lutheran Conference meeting in the Lutheran church next Tuesday evening, and all day Wednesday and Wednesday night. A good program has been prepared and you will enjoy hearing it.

Remember we handle a full and complete line of overalls and jackets, and it will pay you to call and look over our stock, whether you wear overalls or not. Prices are what talk, and our goods speak for themselves. Van de Zedde.

Scott Rockwell came home Monday evening from Akron, Colo., suffering with bloodpoison in one of his thumbs. The trouble started from a slight scratch and gradually grew worse until he became alarmed and came home to have the member treated. He is somewhat improved at this writing.

The medicine show which has been laying here for two weeks waiting for the clouds to roll away gave its first entertainment Monday evening to a fair sized audience. Their show was not very highly appreciated by those who attended the first two performances, consequently they folded their tents and departed for pastures more productive.

The funeral of the late Capt Richard A Talbot, who died at his cottage home at Crystal Lake Saturday evening, was held Tuesday from the Presbyterian church in Sioux City, Rev Geo Bray preaching the sermon. The services were in charge of the Sioux City choir of Eagles, of which the deceased was a member. Interment was in the Floyd cemetery.

Exercises were held in the cemetery here on Monday (Memorial Day), in honor of the soldier dead. A carload of people came from South Sioux City, Pender was offered by Rev Voo Hagen. A short address was given by Rev Oberholtzer, after which a nice program was rendered by members of the G. A. R. post and others. After the singing and speaking the graves of the soldiers were well decorated with beautiful flowers.

J F Leddom and wife received a letter Saturday announcing the marriage of their son, George Washington Leddom, at Gregory, S. D., on May 27th, to Mrs Anna G Tennant. They will reside at Wamblee, S. D., the home of the groom. "Wash" is too well known to Dakota county people to need any introduction through the columns of The Herald, and the well wishes of his many friends are heartily extended him in his new relations.

Frank Haase was home from Emerson over Sunday.

Claire Spencer arrived home Wednesday from Seattle, Wash.

Mrs George Pranger went to Lincoln this morning for a week's visit.

Mary Easton closed a very successful term of school near Winnebago last Friday.

Mrs Harriet Walden came down from Wakefield Monday for a visit at the Schmidt home.

A display of fine glassware, that looks as nice almost as any cut glass, and sold dirt cheap; your choice on the center table for only 10 cents, at Van de Zedde's.

Don't forget the musical entertainment this (Friday) evening in the Salem church. It will be under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Boals and her sister, Mrs Georgia Boals Reed.

Miss Blanch Africa returned Sunday from a ten days' visit at her former home in Goodell, Iowa. Her mother, Mrs Louisa Africa, accompanied her here for a visit at the Joe McElphre home.

I have now, with my new stock, a fine assortment of queensware, and anyone who wants anything in that line can get it as cheap or cheaper than they can buy it in Sioux City. Try me and see. Van de Zedde.

W L Strong formerly of this precinct, but now residing at Wilmont, Minn., came down last Friday to attend the graduating exercises of the Dakota City schools, his daughter Ethel, being a member of the class.

The Campbell Bros circus drew a small crowd to their show in Sioux City last Friday and Saturday. The show was given under the auspices of the public playgrounds association, but was not very liberally patronized by the home people. Nevertheless the show was good.

The Burlington railroad has put into effect a new time card and made radical changes in the numbering of the trains. On the Lincoln-Sioux City line the changes are only slight. Passenger trains Nos 10 and 11, are now known as 16 and 17. Their time here is the same as before. Nos 85 and 86 accommodation trains heretofore extras, will run on schedule time.

Rev Combs and wife, of Potter, Neb., visited at the Lutheran parsonage last Saturday. They were on their way east to Richmond, Ind., and Jefferson town, Ky. At the former place Rev Combs will attend General Synod about a week and then join his wife at the latter place for a visit with his mother and other relatives. They expect to be gone about four weeks.

The Iowa STEEL Gate for the farm. Not made of iron or gaspipe to bend and out of shape, but of high carbon steel tubing with heavy wire fabric. A gate that your children can open with one hand, that your stock can't open at all. We deliver them to you here at Dakota City at the same price you would have to pay were you to buy direct from the factory. Sold on trial and fully guaranteed by the Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

Rev Jesse S Leamer of Clinton, Ia., preached a most helpful sermon at Salem on Sunday last. He was on a visit to the old home, just having come from Midland college, Atchison, Kan., where he filled a place as one of the speakers on the commencement program. Salem may well be proud of what her sons are accomplishing in life. He and Rev Oberholtzer were friends and fellow students in the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, Pa.

Memorial services were held in the M E church Sunday morning and the pastor preached an appropriate sermon. The church was especially decorated for the occasion at no small expense and effort, and yet only two of the old soldiers who reside in this community thought it worth while to turn out to the services. If the old soldiers do not take an interest in services of this character when special efforts are made in their behalf, they certainly can have no reason to kick if interest in Memorial day dies out on the part of the general public.

Sweet potato plants, in any quantity desired. Wesley McPherson.

Ernest Triggs has been laid up with the rheumatism several days the past week.

The remains of a still born child were found by the side of the railroad track near Nacoma Wednesday morning about 9 o'clock by the section men. The child was wrapped in a piece of oil cloth, and had evidently been dropped from the closet of the Omaha passenger train. It was taken to Emerson by the village marshal of the place, who notified coroner Sawyer to come and take charge of it and start an investigation.

In the list of federal jurors drawn to act on the trial of the bandits who held up and robbed a mail train on the Union Pacific between Omaha and South Omaha on May 22, appears the names of Carl Anderson, a prominent merchant of Hubbard; Seth P Barnes, insurance agent of Homer; John Harty, a Hubbard precinct farmer, and M S Mansfield, a merchant of Winnebago. The case is called for June 9th, at Omaha.

Fred Blume, who since his term expired as county treasurer a year and a half ago has served as county commissioner from the 3rd district, comprising the precincts of Emerson and Omaha, on Saturday tendered his resignation, to take effect June 1st. Mr Blume has made a faithful and conscientious county commissioner and his many friends regret to see him retire from the office to which he had been elected. His reason for relinquishing the office is the lack of time to give it the proper attention. The county clerk, treasurer and judge, on whom falls the duty of filling the vacancy by appointment, have tendered the office to Ben Bonderson of Emerson precinct, who, if he accepts, will undoubtedly make an excellent officer, as he is a thorough business man in every way.

The damage case of J W Gray vs the C, St P, M & O railroad company which occupied the attention of the district court for two weeks, terminated Tuesday night when the jury, which had been deliberating for about four hours, returned a verdict for the plaintiff, Gray, allowing him damages in the sum of $5361.00. The case was brought by Gray against the railroad company to recover damages to the plaintiff's land lying west of Coburn Junction in what is known as the "swamp," by reason of the company's grade holding the flood water from Elk creek back and damaging the plaintiff's crops. The case was started May 18th, and for thirteen days was bitterly fought and every inch of ground contested. Nearly one hundred witnesses were summoned, some of them being expert engineers, to give their opinion on the situation. The case was given to the jury at 5:15 p m Tuesday and at 9 o'clock they had reached a verdict. Judge Guy T Graves, before whom the case was tried, received the verdict, thanked the jury men for their patience in the tedious and long drawn out case and discharged them. The case will be carried to the supreme court for a decision from that tribunal. The case of Jas King vs Mrs Jas Foltz, for the possession of King's 4-year-old child, was continued to the adjourned term, which was set for June 21st.

COMMENCEMENT

GRADUATES:
ESTHER LEAMER, ETHEL STRONG,
MARJORIE SPENCER.

The commencement exercises at the M E church Friday evening were a decided success in every way. Esther Ross, our rising and talented young musician, presided at the organ and played the processional, to the delight of strains of which the graduates marched in headed by Prof J S Josiasen and followed by the speaker of the evening, the Rev E H Stevens D D, of Sioux City, and our townsman Mr S A Stinson, president of the board of education, all of whom took seats on the platform.

Miss Ada G Hart delighted her hearers with her sweet voiced singing and her clear and distinct enunciation. The quartette composed of Messers F A Wood, H H Adair, Paul Pizey and Prof J S Josiasen executed one of the finest selections ever given in the church and the praise which was so unattainingly lavished upon them on every hand was indeed duly merited.

Dr E H Stevens gave a ringing address full of wit, humor and instruction on the subject, "They That Tarry by the Staff." We can not go into a detailed report of this masterly and inspiring address, suffice it to say that those who missed hearing it certainly missed a great treat.

The exercises closed with a short and appropriate address by S A Stinson, president of the board of education, before presenting the diplomas to the graduates and he proved to the pleasure of all who heard him that he was not only a successful merchant but also an orator of more than ordinary ability and eloquence.

The decorations were quite elaborate but exceedingly appropriate and tasteful. The arch was festooned with the class colors, blue and white, and suspended below was the class motto "Essa Quam Viden." The back ground was draped in blue and white bunting, a few potted plants, and two large bouquets of pink and white carnations, the class flower, completed the decorations. The committee certainly deserves great credit for their work in producing so artistic and highly pleasing effect.

CALLED HOME
Mrs Catharine L Duggan, one of the best known pioneer ladies of Dakota county, passed away Tuesday morning at her home in Sioux City. The following obituary is taken from the Journal of June 2:

"After a sickness of but one day Mrs Catharine L Duggan, aged 87 years, who settled at St John's, Neb., in 1856 with the Father Tracy colony, which established the first Catholic church in this part of the country, died early yesterday morning at her home, 1624 Summit avenue.

Few women were better known and more universally loved in Dakota county, where Mrs Duggan lived the greater part of her life. In Sioux City also, where she spent her last days, she had hosts of friends who admired her for her strong Christian character and her kindly nature. To the last she was bright and mentally active and always was an interesting and charming companion.

Mrs Duggan was born April 22, 1822, in Cork, Ireland. There she married Daniel Duggan February 18, 1846. They came to America in 1852 and settled in Boston. Attracted by the stories of a promising empire in the west, they settled in Nebraska in 1856.

Passing through Sioux City with the colony of hardy Irishmen, they found it less than a village, a mere collection of wigwags and huts. St John's, Neb., now deserted, was chosen by its colonists as an ideal spot for a settlement and there were built a church and homes.

A few years ago at the semi-centennial of the establishment of this first Catholic church at Jackson, Neb., which was the successor of St John's, Mrs Duggan was one of the few survivors of the original Father Tracy colony. She always was loyal to Dakota county and year after year attended the annual reunions of the pioneers and old settlers, from whose gatherings she will be sadly missed.

Nine children were born to Mr and Mrs Duggan, two dying in childhood in the east, the other seven growing up in the western country, all a credit to their parents. The surviving children are Jeremiah F Duggan, 1902 Douglas street; Cornelius Duggan, 919 Jennings street; John C Duggan and Michael J Duggan, Goodwin, Neb.; Miss Catharine Duggan, 1624 Summit avenue. Daniel Duggan and Dennis Duggan, both well known citizens of Sioux City during their lifetime, died November 17, 1891, and January 25, 1905, respectively.

The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning at the Cathedral of the Epiphany, Sioux City. Interment was at St John's cemetery at Jackson, Neb., the former home of the deceased.
