CHICAGO MONEY MARKET.

CHICAGO, August 19.

The demand for money was on a fairly scale and by all classes of borrowers, but the supply more than kept pace with the legitimate requirements. A No. 1 paper passed readily at 5@6 per cent on call and 6@7 per cent on time. The calling of margins and the signing of margin checks was again lively, owing to the situation of the markets on the board of trade. The clearings of the associated banks were $7,800,000. Eastern exchange between city banks was quoted at 80@$1 discount on $1,000.

CHICAGO, August 19.

The activity on 'Change this morning exceeded anything that has occurred for three years. The grain markets opened firm in response to higher prices in New York and Liverpool. Later private and public dispatches from England reported the weather showery and the wheat crop greatly damaged. This created the wildest confusion in the wheat ring, and the price, which had previously crawled up 1c, instantly went up 2½@2⅞c higher, making an advance of 3⅞c from the opening. The scene that followed almost beggars description. Operators shouted and howled like maniacs, and at times there was a difference of ⅛@⅜c in the bids and offers of buyers and sellers at the same time, but the advance was only temporary. Prices took a downward turn and fell as rapidly as they advanced, and the same irregularity in offers to sell existed that marked the advance. Wheat opened at 1 23½ and closed at 1 24½ for September, though at one time it reached 1 26½. The opening price for October opened at 1 24, went up to 1 27⅞ and closed at 1 27½. Corn was also active and advanced 3c, but sympathized with wheat and closed with about half the advance lost. The October option opened at 64½c, crawled up to 66⅝c, and fell back to 65½c, at which it closed on the call. The other grains and provisions were active and higher, but all closed weaker. There were rumors of failures, but they could not be traced to any reliable sources, and it was generally thought that none of any importance occurred.

On 'Change markets were again wild at higher prices. The receipts of grain were 6,000 bushels by canal, and 1,362 c r loads by rail, embracing 172 cars of wheat, 1,081 of corn, 84 of oats, 17 of rye, and 8 of barley.

Flour—Firmly held but unsettled; common to choice western spring 4 25@6 25; do Minnesota, 4 50@6 75; patents, 7 00@7 75; fair to choice winter brands, 6 00@7 00

Wheat—A very active demand again existed for No. 2 spring, and prices advanced materially amid great excitement. Fluctuations were very rapid, and to-day's market was the most unsettled of any since the upward tendency set in. The excitement and buoyancy was due chiefly to speculative manipulations. The demand was very active on outside and local account, with shorts anxious to provide for outstanding contracts. Prices were advanced, with numerous wild fluctuations, 3½@3⅞c above the opening figures, settled back 2⅜@2⅝c, and finally closed at the call at 1 24⅞ for August, 1 24½ for September; 1 26½ for October; 1 27 for November; 1 24@1 24½ for the year; No. 3, in fair demand at 1 14; rejected, quiet.

Corn—The excitement in the corn market continued active, and was again unusually heavy. The market in a general way appeared to be largely oversold for future delivery, and mainly at prices ranging 4@5c below the current prices, when it was supposed that heavy operators had disposed of liberal quantities and the outside figures had been reached, consequently shorts were anxious to provide for outstanding contracts, and competition for offerings was unusually brisk. The market opened a shade under the closing prices on 'Change yesterday, and declined ⅛@⅜c under an active demand. The market gradually grew stronger and prices rallied 3@3½c, and then settled back again ⅜@2c after the bulk of the outside orders were provided for. The market finally closed on call at 63c for August; 63½c for September; 65½c for October and November; 66⅝c for December; 62½c for the year; rejected, 60c.

Barley—Opened firmer and higher, but closed quiet; No. 2, 97@97½c for September; 98½c for October.

Pork—Opened active and advanced 30@50c, but settled back 15@20c, and closed easy; mess, 18 05 for September; 18 40@18 42½ for October; 17 95 for the year; 18 35 for January.
