STOCKS

The stock market to-day although irregular was generally a fraction higher in early declines and lower after the first board. The decline ranged from ¼ to ⅝ per cent., and was especially marked in Western Union, Wabash, Northern Pacific, Delaware, Lackawana & Western and trunk lines. During the afternoon a strong tone set in and the decline of the forenoon was not only recovered but a further advance was recorded, the closing prices being generally the highest of the day. The greatest advance was in trunk lines and Southwestern shares, the dealings in which were enormous.
