OMAHA MARKETS.

Wholesale Prices.

OFFICE OF THE OMAHA BEE.
Saturday Evening, October 13.

Business with both jobbers and commission men continues good with an advancing market as a rule. The trade in general produce and green fruits has been especially good and the supply about equal to the demand. Dry goods and groceries have been active and larger sales than usual reported. Lumber, hardware and building material generally are firm with a good demand.

The live stock market is rather quiet, but prices are firm with prospects of an advance in a few days. Flour and mill stuffs remain comparatively unchanged with only a fair demand, and about an equal supply.

Retailers report a good week's business and are confident of a good trade this fall. Merchants from the interior of the State are jubilant over the business outlook, and express a feeling of confidence in regard to business generally.

The following prices are charged retailers by jobbers, wholesalers and commission merchants, with the exception of grain, which is quoted at the prices furnished by the elevators and other local buyers:
