OFFICER SHOT FOUR TIMES. Omaha Detective in a Dangerous Condition. City Detective Michael Sullivan was shot four times and dangerously wounded by Albert Prim. a negro, whom he attempted to arrest in a saloon at Omaha Monday evening. Sullivan asked the negro a question or two, whereupon Print drew a revolver and fired four shots at the officer before the latter could protect himself. One bullet entered Sullivan's breast, two bit his arm, and one went through his shoulder. J. M. Antokarl, the bartender, went to the officer's assistance and succeeded in holding Prim until assistarrived. After being placed under arrest a belt full of cartridges was found bukled around the prisoner's body. Among his belongings was found a cocaine outfit and a supply of opium Prim speaks Spanish fluently and ad-

HIT THE WRONG PARTY.

Trainmen Turn on Them with Shovel, a Brick and Hot Water,

Detective Gorman, of the Union Pacific, arrested Charles Suffa and James Craddock, whom he found in Grand Island, on the charge of holding up a freight train crew. The two and a third crook, Ed S. Knappler, tackled the men as their train came to a standstill two miles east of the city and ordered them to throw up their hands. The trainmen resisted, one using a scoop shovel, the other a hose with a stream of hot water, and the third a brickbat.

Suffa shows the result of the brickbat operations and Craddock was scalded in spots. Both men admit their participation in the attempted holdup of the crew and are lodged in the county jail. None of the trainmen was injured.

NO DECREE IN GOINGS CASE.

Mary Comment of the second Judge Dungan Refuses to Release Parties to Marriage Contract.

The most important case tried dur ing the recent session of the district court at Minden was the divorce suit of Ida Goings against Joseph G. Goings. It was bitterly fought on both sides, something like thirty witnesses being eyxamined. It was the most sensational case of its kind, probably, ever tried in Nebraska and took three and one-half days for trial. Judge Dungan decided neither of the parties were entitled to a decree.
