FINANCIAL.

New York, March 23.—MONEY—On call, easy at 2@3 per cent.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—4@5 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Unchanged; actual rates $4.86¼ for sixty days and $4.88¼ on demand.

GOVERNMENTS—Dull but steady.

STOCKS—The stock market opened strong for coal stocks, soon became decidedly weak, and with only occasional interruptions continued weak and declining all day. The early weakness in the general list was due to unfavorable reports regarding the strike in the southwest, and this matter is daily assuming importance in the minds of operators. The news of the day was all of an adverse character, and materially aided in the decline that took place. The market closed irregular but generally heavy.
