OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Thursday Evening, June 3.

CATTLE—Owing to the lightness of the receipts the market was quite dull. Good dressed beef steers are in good demand. Butchers' steers and shipping cattle inquired for to a limited extent, but then grassy cattle are not wanted and are hard to dispose of. Prices showed a slight disposition to drop but closed steady, as at yesterday's close.

HOGS—The market opened somewhat slow with yesterday's prices ruling. During the day prices dropped a point, and for a little while the market was quite brisk. Heavy rough hogs and stags are difficult to sell at lowest prices. The market closed quiet at 5c decline from yesterday's closing figures.

SHEEP—Sheep remain as yesterday, with none in the market and but slight demand.
