WHEAT UP AND CORN DOWN.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

CHICAGO, August 16.—[Special Telegram to the BEE.]—The unusual spectacle of an advancing wheat and declining corn market was presented on the open board this morning, where September wheat was quoted at 77⅝c, about ⅜c over Saturday's figures, and September corn at 42⅝c, ⅜c off from the close on that day. The fresh receipts were 148 cars of winter and 60 cars of spring wheat, 912 cars of corn and 335 cars of oats. The regular board opened September wheat at 77⅝c and corn at 43c, with a fair trade at each. The even figure, 78c, for September wheat brought out a considerable number of sellers, and the price quickly dropped to 77⅛c, but the offerings were readily absorbed, and values as sharply reacted to 78⅛c, which was the top for the day, the close being firm at 78⅛c. The last hour's trading was as heavy as the rest of the day put together.

Corn advanced to 44@44⅛c and closed at 44c. Just at the close Secretary Stone announced the increase in corn 1,141,000 bu, and the increase in wheat 1,748,000 bu. As subsequent events proved, corn opened square on the bottom, or practically so, for it only sold 1 1-16c under the first quotation of 43c. There was an almost unlimited supply of small orders on the floor, from all imaginable quarters. Robert Warren and Pickering were very heavy buyers all day. There was comparatively little for sale, and this fact helped to stiffen the market. The receipts, though 912 cars to-day, are running lighter than the crowd generally expected, and added its quota of strength. The "country" appears to be under corn and are buying small lots. The opening was firm at 43c, but soon became even firmer and sailed up to 43⅝c; then it halted a moment, eased back to 43⅜c, took a fresh grip and bulged up to 43⅞c. Here the market stood at 12:30 o'clock.

The complexion of the wheat market changed completely during the day. As quoted above, the opening was barely firm and the tendency was downward, the market receiving no support whatever, and prices dropping from 77⅝c to 77⅛c. But at this point orders seemed to come in more plentifully, and a sympathetic feeling became established between this pit and corn, putting the price of September up to 77⅞c. Later it eased back to 77⅝c, but after noon advanced quite sharply to 78c.

A moderate business was done in oats and small grains at varying discounts from Saturday, rye and barley falling off further than oats and all ranging dull.

Pork was a prime favorite, and under light offerings and restricted receipts of live hogs, advanced substantially 25c per barrel. Less interest centered in lard and meats, but the whole list was firm and some higher.

ON CURB, 2:30 p. m.—September wheat, 78c bid; puts, 77⅝c; calls, 78⅝c. September corn, 43⅞c bid; puts, 43⅝c, sellers; calls, 44⅜c.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, August 16.—[Special Telegram the the BEE.]—CATTLE—The market was strong for all desirable kinds of cattle and prices were 5@10c higher than late transactions of last week. The movement was rather active and salesmen felt that the week's market was opening favorably for them. Some cattle sold at $4.80 averaging less than 1,200 pounds, but some 1,196 pound steers sold Saturday at $4.75. Four cars of 1,529 pound steers sold to an exporter at $5.10. Prices were generally 25c higher than one week ago to-day. Shippers bought more cattle last week than in any week but one during the year, and to-day they were not buying quite so freely. The cattle, however, were all sold. Shipping steers, 950 to 1,500 pounds, $3.80@5.10. Range cattle offerings to-day were moderate and the demand fairly good. Only two lots of Wyoming rangers were here. They were comparatively thin and sold at $3.50@3.60. The $3.50 lot, all but two cars of the tops, go into a distillery. The $3.60 lot sold the other day at Omaha. Values were strong and in some cases prices were quoted 10c higher. The receipts of Texas cattle were about 2,000 head, against 3,800 last Monday.

HOGS—The market was rather slow and prices uneven, especially at the opening. There was a good demand for common light. In some instances sales were made at a slight advance, but in a general way there was little or no change as compared with Saturday. Fair to good corn-fed mixed sold at $4.80@4.95, and best heavy at $5.00@5.10, with one lot at $5.17½; light corn-fed yorkers, $4.80@4.90, and grassy stock of same average at $.400@4.60.

FINANCIAL.

NEW YORK, August 16.—MONEY—On call easy, ranging from 1 to 6 per cent.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—4@5 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Fairly active but weak: actual rates $4.82½ for sixty day bills and $4.85¾ for demand.

GOVERNMENTS—Governments were dull but steady.

STOCKS—To-day's stock market was extremely dull, especially after the first hour. First prices showed insignificant changes only from Saturday evening's close, and they were about evenly divided between gains and losses. After midday there was no activity except in Lackawanna and St. Paul, which made further declines. The general list, however, showed some slight improvement in prices during the afternoon, but the market closed heavy at or near the lowest figures reached.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Monday Evening, August 16.

GENERAL—The cattle market the past week has averaged very dull and weak. The receipts have been very light, only 2,000 for the week. While prices here have been low, they have been fully up to other markets. The run of range cattle has commenced and a more active market is anticipated.

The receipts of hogs have been much lighter the past week than during the week previous, there being only 5100 hogs in last week. The market closed on Saturday about 20c stronger than the opening price on Monday. The light receipts have had a tendency to force prices up.

Cattle—The receipts of range cattle yesterday and to-day were heavier than on any previous day of the season. The market was more active. Values continue steady.

Hogs—The receipts of hogs have fallen off very suddenly, and there were not enough in to make a market to-day. The demand is good and the packers are unable to get enough to keep them going.

Sheep—No demand.

Notes.

A good demand for hogs.

Not hogs enough in to make a market.

The heaviest cattle receipts of the season.

Ora Haley, Rawlins, had fifteen cars of cattle in to-day.

L. M. Gallop, Emerson, Ia., was a visitor at the yards to-day.

The Ogallala cattle were sold at private terms, no price being given.

The Pine Tree Live stock company, Laramie, had six loads of horses in.

Alter & Glover, Grand Island, were in with 188 head of corn-fed cattle.

The Carter Cattle Co., Granger, were on the market with fifteen loads of cattle.

The past has been a remarkably steady week in the general cattle market.

The War Bonnet Cattle Co., Soda Springs, had fifteen loads of cattle at the yards.

Solid corn-fed hogs are in good demand, and are selling much better than last year.

The Bay State Live stock company had four cattle at the yards shipped from Brownson.

On the market with hogs: C. F. Wyandt, Milford; A. J. Williams, Tamora; Black & Jorgenson, Minden.

During the last three years hogs have sold higher in January, February and March than in September.—Drovers' Journal.

Mr. Hancock, of the firm of Keenan & Hancock, live stock commission dealers of Chicago, was at the yards to-day looking after the firm's branch house here.

The Ogallala Land and Cattle company had twenty-two cars of cattle at the yards to-day. They sold 316 head to G. H. Hammond & Co., 200 head being natives.

There's a good time coming in the stock business, but it is not for those who are easily discouraged and lack grit to take a fair proportion of bitter with the sweet.—Drovers Journal.

It is one of the most short sighted things that a salesman can do to refuse to report his sales. If any one is determined to find out the terms of a sale he can most always succeed by some means or other. When a salesman attempts to keep a sale private it always produces suspicion in the minds of others that there is something wrong. The more openly business is conducted, the more confidence shippers will have in the market, and nothing will injure the market more than an undue secrecy in the transaction of business.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

General Produce,

Monday Evening, August 16.

The following prices are for round lots of produce, as sold on the market to-day. The quotations on fruits represent the prices at which outside orders are filled.

EGGS—The market is weak at 9@9½c.

BUTTER—Table butter is very scarce and in strong request. Lower grades are more plentiful again and a good deal of them can be placed at better prices now, but cannot be relied upon. Creamery, choice, 20c; choice dairy, 13@15c; fair to good dairy, 10@11c; inferior grades, 4@6c.

CHEESE—Fancy full cream cheddars, 8½c; fancy full cream flats, two in box, 9c; fancy full cream Young Americas, four in box, 9½c; fancy Swiss, 12½@14c; brick, 12c; Limburg, 11c.

POULTRY—Although receipts have fallen off considerably, it has still been impossible to work off the overstock that had accumulated last week, and sales are still dragging at the same low prices. Spring chickens not going above $2.00 per dozen and below that if small, and old chickens $2.25@2.50. Ducks also continue slow at $2.25@2.50.

GAME—With next month the season will open. There is already some demand for prairie chickens, but the weather has been too hot to ship with safety from any distance.

ONIONS—Southern, per bbl, $3 50.

POTATOES—Choice southern, per bush, 40@45c; home grown, 30@40c.

SWEET POTATOES—Iowa home grown are in the market and selling at 5c per lb.
