New York, August 21.—MONEY—Easy, ranging from 3 to 6 per cent, closing at 3@4 per cent.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—4@5 per cent.

STOCKS—The stock market had an "off day" to-day. It opened this morning generally firm, though a full half of the active list were unchanged from last evening's closing figures. After some activity, which, however, soon died away, the market became quiet and somewhat irregular, remaining until noon, after which a much better feeling prevailed and fractional advances were made, but realizations in the last hour again sagged prices off, and the market closed rather heavy at insignificant changes from the opening prices.

Notes.

Hog market slow.

J. J. Bridges, Cortland, marketed a load of hogs.

Jens Jergensen, Minden, was in with two loads of hogs.

Tom Powers, Sutton, had two loads of hogs on the market.

A. D. Ritchie, Ulysses, was here with two loads of hogs.

N. M. Pusey, Iowa, sold five loads of cattle on to-day's market.

Nine loads of horses were received from Houston, Tex., to-day.

The sun-down buyers are getting in their work again on the hog market.

C. E. Drubbs, Little Sioux, Ia., was here with a load of butchers' stuff.

M. S. Lindsey, Omaha, had in three loads of mixed cattle from Fullerton, Neb.

C. F. Way had on the market two loads of hogs, the first shipment by rail from Ord., Neb.

G. H. Hammond & Co., Kansas City, received seven loads of hogs, shipped in to them.

Query: Why does it take as long to get a load of cattle from Council Bluffs to Omaha, as it does from Council Bluffs to the Mississippi river?

The following parties were registered at the Exchange hotel to-day: C. F. Way, Ord; A. D. Ritchie, Ulysses; F. M. Gilmore, Fullerton; C. E. Welch, Papillion; J. W. Miller, Grand Island; J. J. Bridges, Cortland.

A Lavenburg, Council Bluffs, was in to-day and marketed eighty-four head of very choice corn-fed cattle that averaged 1,400 pounds. The cattle were bought at the Omaha yards as feeders last fall, and the average gain was 400 pounds.

On the market with hogs: C. E. Welch, Papillion; Hawks & Riley, Albion; Dowling & Purcell, North Bend; Hicks & Florin, Coleridge; T. J. Taylor, Shelton; S. R. Black, Cozard, Wright & A., Seward; G. G. Vreeland, Juniata; Spaid & Miles, Hartwell; Fisher & Wagner, York; A. D. Boyer, Malcolm; Bennet & Ewen, Exeter.

It is amusing to watch the manner of doing business on the hog market these days. The buyer makes an offer, the salesman wants more; then it is a standoff, they sit on the fence, hang around the scale house, go down to the exchange building, take a drink of ice water, play high five, try to talk each other to death, and at last, just as the sun is going down, one side or the other weakens, and the sale is made.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

General Produce.

Saturday Evening, August 21.

The following prices are for round lots of produce, as sold on the market to-day. The quotations on fruits represent the prices at which outside orders are filled.

BUTTER—There is an abundance of poor grades of butter coming in, but choice butter is very scarce. Even good butter is in very limited supply. Some dealers assert that all of nine-tenths of the butter received by them is sour and poor. Strictly sweet, solid and uniform color, packed in new clean tubs, commands 15 to 16c, or even more, in the market, but there is little or none coming in that can be graded as such. Fancy butter in stone crocks is bringing even better prices. Fair to good country butter is selling at 10@12½c. Poor at 5@8c, and slow. Creamery butter, not the very best, sold this week at 18@20c.

EGGS—The receipts are not large, but the demand is slow. The bulk of the receipts of fresh candled eggs are going at 9c. A great many stale eggs are coming in and dealers would find it to their advantage to candle closely before shipping, thus avoiding paying charges on rotten eggs.

POULTRY—There has been a slight falling off in the receipts and a corresponding stiffening in prices. Both old fowls and spring chickens are bringing better prices than last week. There have been a few ducks in the market but they are very slow sale. Old fowls, per doz., $2.50; spring chickens, large, $2.00; spring chickens, medium, $150@1.75; spring chickens, small, not wanted; ducks, $2.25@2.50; turkeys, not wanted.

CHEESE—Fancy full cream cheddars, 8¾c; fancy full cream flats, two in box, 9½c; fancy full cream Young Americas, four in box, 10c; fancy Swiss, 12½@14c; brick, 12c; Limburg, 11c.

ONIONS—Southern, per bbl, $2.50.

NEW POTATOES—There are no potatoes of any consequence in the commission houses and local gardeners are mostly supplying the demand. It is most too early to form any exact conclusion of what the potato crop will be, but reports gathered from some of the most important points in Iowa and Nebraska would seem to indicate a light crop on account of dry weather. The potatoes are small and only a few in a bill. Without doubt choice varieties of assorted stock, good size, will command good prices this fall. It is too early yet to begin shipping in car lots, as dealers are not ready to put in a large stock until there is less danger of their not keeping well. A few potatoes in small lots have sold above the following quotations: Home grown, per bu., 50@60c.

CELERY—There is not really enough coming in to supply the demand, but it will not be handled very extensively until next month. Celery, like oysters, sells the best in the "R" months. Shipping stock, per doz., 40@50c.

OYSTERS—There are no oysters of any consequence in the market yet. The season here does not open as a rule until about the 1st of September. The market will probably open at from 35 to 60c., according to the grade.

LEMONS—The market is about steady here. The warm weather of the past few days has brought in a good many orders from the country. Messina, $9.75@10.00.

BANANAS—There are not many in the market at present. As the weather becomes cooler, so that dealers can handle them with safety, there will be a better supply on the market. Bananas, yellow, per bunch, $2.00@3.00.

CALIFORNIA PEARS—The Bartletts are becoming scarce and there are very few on the market. There is a liberal supply of other varieties. Bartletts, $3.00; other varieties, $2.50.

CALIFORNIA PLUMS—The receipts of plums have been very liberal and they have been coming in very fair shape. Hungarian prunes will be in the market in a short time and will be worth about $2.00. Shipping stock, large fancy, $1.75; shipping stock, smaller varieties, $1.25@1.50.

CALIFORNIA PEACHES—The peaches coming in are for the most part very good stock, but they are only received in limited quantities. Peaches, $2.00@2.25.

CALIFORNIA GRAPES—The receipts are not heavy and home-grown are beginning to compete with them. Muscats, $1.50@1.75; Muscats, choice and fancy, $2.00@2.25; Tokays, $2.00@2.25.

HOME-GROWN GRAPES—Home-grown grapes have put in an appearance and are coming in faster than ever before, so early in the season. They are being received from Kansas and Missouri as well as from the immediate vicinity. Reports from all directions indicate a larger crop than for years, and at the same time of a very good quality. The market usually opens at 7 to 8c, but this season they are starting in at 5c. Prices will probably decline somewhat in a week or so, but fancy stock will not go down as fast or as low as inferior. Parties should insist on getting only good shipping stock. Shipping stock, 20lb basket, per lb., 5c.; shipping stock, 10lb baskets, per lb, 6c.

MELONS—The market has been comparatively bare of watermelons for a few days back, and there has been a good demand for them. Several cars are reported to arrive in a few days. There have been only a few musk melons in and they are handled mostly by the gardeners. Muscatine watermelons, $22.00; inferior and smaller sizes, $15.00@18.00; musk melons, per doz., $1.00@1.25.

SWEET POTATOES—Iowa home grown are in the market and selling at 5c per lb.

BEANS—Hardly any coming in now. Demand fair at $1.25@1.50 per bushel, for clean stock.

COCOANUTS—Cocoanuts, per 100, $5.00; less than hundred, per 100, $5.50.

HONEY—California, 15c; California, strained, 10c; Nebraska, choice, 14@15c; Nebraska, dark, 12½@13c.

MAPLE SYRUP—Bulk, 14 to 17 gallon kegs, per gal, $1.00; gal cans, per gal, $1.05; half gal cans per gal, $1.10.

CIDER—New York, per bbl, $7.00; do. half bbl, $4.00; Crab, per doz qts, $2.75; Michigan refined, per bbl, $6.00.

VINEGAR—White wine, 13@17c; cider, 13@17c; single strength, 13c; triple strength, 5@20c.

FIGS AND DATES—Figs, layer, 4 lb boxes, per lb, 16c. Dates, fancy fard, 12 lb boxes, 14c; dates, Persian, 50 lb boxes, per lb, 10c.
