Social at the Buckingham.

Promptly at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Chinese boys began to file into the parlors of the Buckingham. Soon the rooms were filled with pupils and teachers with music on the guitar, violin and banjo. After which they were invited to the dining room, were refreshments were served, being waited upon by their teachers. Tea was served with second course, which the boys pronounced as good as tea in China. After the repast they all joined with the superintendent, Mrs. A. P. Woods, with singing. They again treated the teachers to Chinese music, after which there was a shaking of hands, and they separated for their respective homes.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 29.—The Dispatch's Fargo special says: United States Marshal Marratta has decided to resign soon. This announcement comes from Marratta himself. It is rumored he will be appointed territorial auditor by Governor Church.

A BLACKMAILING SCHEME.

What Juror Harris Thinks of His Arrest.

Some days ago, it may be remembered, W. H. Harris, a United States juror, was arrested and locked up in jail for intoxication. The matter created no little stir here at the time.

The Madison (Neb.) Chronicle, printed at Mr. Harris' home, publishes the following statement:

"Last week various articles derogatory to the conduct and character of Mr. Harris were printed in some of the Omaha papers, which were read by our citizens and furnished a sweet morsel for his enemies. In a letter to his wife, from which we are permitted to extract, Mr. Harris puts a very different coloring on the whole affair." He says:

"Do not worry about newspaper reports. I know you will hear about them, but you and all Madison people will be satisfied when you learn the truth. The last case I was on was between Andrew Crousey, of Beatrice, and Gage county. Well, the best men called out of all the jurors were retained on that jury myself included. I was a leader on my side and Judge Bartlett on the other. I held six men, he held four. Then we hung for two days and nights and could not agree. Judge Dundy discharged us, but held my side was right. Now I knew just what the papers said about Harris but they were paid for it by the Gage county side — blackmail, slander, lies without number. It is all because Gage county got left, and mostly on my account, hence all these newspaper articles. They did arrest me last night while I was in my bed, but there were four other jurymen in bed in the same room. The whole city of of Omaha is just howling over my arrest—Judge Dundy and all of the lawyers, Thurston, General Webster, "Judge Cooley" and all the jurymen except the four who were on the side of Gage county. I have been blackmailed because of my stand in behalf of A. J. Cropsey in the Gage county fight. But I say again, I am all right; do not worry. The judge and all the bar as well as the jury will stand by me. Judge Dundy says he cannot spare me until the term is out, which will be the first Saturday in January."

A horse attached to a cutter broke away from a hitching post on South Tenth street last evening and ran down the street. Near the Union Pacific depot the cutter was overturned and a buffalo robe, a blanket and the seat were thrown into the street. The horse continued on his flight and Depot Policeman Duff Green picked up the articles and has stored them away in the depot awaiting the arrival of the owner.

A Direct Application of the Remedy to the Diseased Portion of the System—A New Method and Treatment that Appeals to the Common Sense.—Sunday's Bee, December 26th.

SUNDAY BEE, Dec. 26th: There is no disease so prevalent in the United States as catarrh. It may be termed our national disease. It extends over the entire country, and has been increasing in its virulence and the consequent number of its victims for many years. Were it confined solely to the mucous membranes of the head, it would not be attended with so many deplorable results. But, unhappily for those who are afflicted by it, it generates other diseases in the system, and, if not checked it results fatally. The disease is caused by the presence of the vegetable parasite, amœba, which grow in the membrane that lines the interior of the nose. The atomic germs of this parasite are floating in the atmosphere, the same as the thistle down is wafted to the wind, and they are drawn into the nostrils with the breath. They will not germinate in a perfectly healthy nostril; but when a person has been subjected to the influence of a morbid condition of the blood, such as the blighted corpuscle of tubercle produces; of mercury, or toxœrna from the retention of the effete matter of the skin; owing to neglect of bathing, suppressed perspiration from sudden exposure, badly ventilated rooms, and the numerous other poisons that exist in the blood. It will be seen from this partial list of the conditions that lead to catarrh, that it is not to be wondered at that the disease is so universal. These vegetable amœba are scattered everywhere in our streets, in public halls and all places where the infected mucous is discharged upon the pavements, floors and grounds. When the mucous becomes dry, they are lifted by the wind and scattered broadcast through the air to be inhaled by the unsuspecting victim. These poisons create a continuous irritation in the nostrils, and by a discharge of the mucous present in them a lodging place for the fresh parasitical germs, which, when inhaled, produce an increased aggravation, and a rapid extension of the evil. If not timely destroyed the disease will terminate in inflammation of the eustachain tubes, or in pulmonary consumption, both of which lead to a fatal termination. Until very recently no positive cure has been discovered for this alarming evil. No cure can be effected unless the parasites are killed or removed from the nostrils. The "Carbolic Smoke Ball," by acting directly upon the diseased part, destroys the vitality of the amœba and eradicates the disease. No other known substance has this remedial effect. It also possesses great and perfect curative powers in the associate diseases of catarrh; which are Hay Fever, Bronchitis, Neuralgia, Headache, Croup, Sore Throat, Eyes, Ears, etc., all of which are speedily ameliorated by its application. It is the most beneficial medical discovery of the age.

The office is at rooms 1 and 2, over 101 South 15th, opp. P. O., Frenzer block. There are separate parlors for ladies and gentlemen. Those who are afflicted should lose no time in availing themselves of this positive cure. There is no charge for testing its effects. Circulars sent free on application. Carbolic Smoke Ball sent to any address on receipt of price $2, with full instructions for its use Address.
