OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Cattle.

Tuesday, Feb. 15, 1888.

The receipts were 898 head and among the offerings were some very choice steers which sold at $4.50@4.60. Taken as a whole the market was not any higher than on yesterday. The class of cattle sold was better which accounts for high prices. Common stock was about steady. Trading was very active, the local and shipping demand each being good.

Hogs.

The receipts of hogs were heavy and the general run good. The market opened 10 cents lower than yesterday and closed steady at the decline with everything taken. One bunch of choice stock sold at $5.60. The local packers were all heavy purchasers.

Sheep.

The receipts of sheep were 318 head, among which was one bunch of which were good, fat natives which sold at $4.00. All grades are about steady.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS.

Produce, Fruits, Nuts, Etc.

Tuesday, Feb. 15.

The following quotations are wholesale and not retail. Prices quoted on produce are the rates at which round lots are sold on this market. Fruits or other lines of goods requiring extra labor in packing cannot always be supplied on outside orders at the same prices quoted for the local trade. Rates on flour and feed are jobbers prices. Prices in grain are those paid by Omaha millers delivered. All quotations on merchandise are obtained from leading houses and are corrected daily. Prices on crackers, cakes, etc., are those given by leading manufacturers.

Business could only be classed as fair in the produce market. Receipts, with the exception of eggs, were light and everything found ready sale. Eggs were in liberal supply and prices were quoted lower. The supply of butter was equal to the demand and prices unchanged, with choice country stock asked for. There was not enough poultry to supply the demand, and prices were firm, but heavy receipts and warm weather would undoubtedly weaken them. Chickens are mostly called for just now. No change is noted in potatoes, but prices are firm and there are indications of them moving up a cent or two. Fresh receipts of cabbage are reported, but they came to hand frosted, and are selling below quotations. In a day or two other consignments will come to hand, and it is hoped in better condition.

Gun Club Meeting.

The Omaha Gun club held a regular meeting at Penrose & Hardin's sporting headquarters yesterday. Present Messrs. Hughes, Worley, Field, Ellis, Cotter, Thompson, Parmalee, Brucker, Brewer and Penrose.

The board of managers submitted their report with reference to enforcing the game laws. In this report they stated that every shipper and dealer in the city had been duly notified that if caught handling any game out of season that they would be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Also, that they were busily engaged looking up evidence against divers parties throughout the state for killing chickens and grouse unlawfully. Report adopted.

Mr. Penrose made a motion that all members of the club who failed to attend one regular meeting out of three successive sessions should be dropped from the club's roster. Carried.

There was much other business of a miscellaneous character transacted and the club adjourned.
