An old gentleman about seventy years of age was run down by a horse and buggy on the corner of Harney and Sixteenth streets at 7:30 yesterday morning. He was cared for by friends, and his injuries could not be ascertained.

J. E. Preston, contracting freight agent for the Northwestern, left yesterday for the east and will catch the thunder of the billowy Atlantic upon his tympanum.

Irish Protectionists.

A gentleman in a position to know says there are 132 members of the Irish-American club who had been life-long democrats previous to this campaign.

"Many of them don't fancy the idea of being called republicans," said he. "They are protectionists, and they are going to vote the protection ticket."

Internal Revenue Collections.

The collections at the internal revenue office for the month of August were as follows:

Penalties, $147.61; beer, $16,309.83; spirits, $166,651.20; cigars, $5,520.68; tobacco, $192.88; special tax, $3,964.15. Total, $192,783.45.

The Heir Dies Too Soon.

Coroner Drexel has received a letter from A. D. Baille, a lawyer at Storm Lake, asking for proof of the death of the writer's brother, Irwin S. Baille, who was found dead in a boxcar under the new bridge several weeks ago. The deceased was heir to a legacy of $1,000, but lacked a few days of his majority at the time of his death.

Struck by a Train.

Peter Taylor, a seven-year old boy, was struck by an incoming Union Pacific train Sunday afternoon, and received severe internal injuries. He was brought to the city and placed in St. Joseph's hospital, where he now lies with but slight hopes of recovery.

Used For Immoral Purposes.

Jules Bonzan was made the subject of a suit in Justice Morrison's court for the possession of the houses, 208 and 210 Eleventh street, for non-payment of rent. The houses belong to D. R. Edwards and are used for the purpose of prostitution. Bonzan rents them at a nominal figure and rerents them at an extravagant figure.

Fell From the Bridge.

Augus McKay, a bridge man employed at the new bridge, took a holiday yesterday. He was at work on the scaffolding that now stretches half way across the river when he lost his balance and fell a distance of thirty feet into the river. He was not stunned, however, and swam ashore before the rescuing party could come to his aid. He fell from almost the identical spot from which Ed. Calkins fell a week ago and was drowned.

To be Paved.

Property owners in paving districts Nos. 123 Seventeenth street from Dodge to Davenport; 170, Eighteenth street from Nicholas to Cuming, and 198, Webster street from Thirteenth to Union Pacific grounds, have been notified by the board of public works to make all necessary sewer, water and gas connections preparatory to paving before the 20th of this month.

A West Omaha Victory.

An exciting game of ball was played Sunday afternoon, between the West Omaha's and the Park Avenues on the grounds south of Hanscom Park, resulting in a victory for the West Omaha's, by a score of 23 to 13. The batteries were Barrett and Patterson, Crow and Bowes. The principal feature of the game was the batting of Patterson. Nelson umpired the game to the satisfaction of all.

Injured at a Funeral.

The funeral of the child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sawyer took place Sunday afternoon from their home in South Omaha.

While on the way to Laurel Hill cemetery, a wagon containing eight persons was upset, and a little child named Charles Garrett was trampled upon, and badly bruised and hurt. His left arm was broken, his thumb badly smashed and he was otherwise cut and bruised about the body. His parents reside at the corner of Pacific and Twenty-sixth streets.

A Crimean Veteran.

Major George E. Cole, of Pacific Junction, of which town he is mayor, was with his wife noticed at the Sebastopol representation Saturday night. The major was through the Crimean war, and stated to a Bee reporter that many of the representations were so forcible as to bring back vividly to his mind the scenes, incidents and battles of that memorable war with Russia by the allied forces. Mayor Cole also served in the late rebellion, and is a member of Abe Lincoln post, G. A. R., Council Bluffs.

Yesterday's Fire.

A fire occurred on the corner of Fifth and Dorcas streets at 2:20 yesterday afternoon. The story and a half residence of P. C. Johnson was reduced to ashes, and the cottage of John Jacobson was almost destroyed. It is not known how the fire started. The fire department was on hand promptly, but the buildings were veritable tinder boxes, and such headway had been made by the flames that little could be done with Johnson's house. Mr. Johnson is insured in the Home company for $300 on his house and $300 on his furniture. Mr. Peterson is insured for $300 on his house.

Kissed and Made Up.

August Ressing refused to make complaint against his wife in police court yesterday afternoon, and she was released upon payment of costs. Mrs. Ressing was arrested here for having eloped from Kansas City with James Platt. She was residing at the house of Ressing's mother in this city, when her husband appeared on the scene in search of her. Platt skipped out before he could be apprehended. Mrs. Ressing says her husband abused her when they were living together, for which reason she left him. They "made up" and left the police court together after the matter had been settled with the judge.

"Snake River Charlie."

A swarthy, desperate-looking individual was run in yesterday as a suspicious character. He said his name was Henry Gerardy, and that he was on his way to the Black Hills. However, when he was being arraigned Detective Ormsby recognized him as Snake River Charlie, one of the parties who burglarized the gun store of J. J. Hardin some two years ago. He denied that he was the man the detective took him for, but indisputable proof was produced and he was remanded to his cell to await the action of the county attorney.

Beauty Without Paint.

"What makes my skin so dark and muddy?
My cheeks were once so smooth and ruddy!
I use the best cosmetics made,"
Is what a lovely maiden said.

"That's not the cure my charming miss,"
The doctor said—"remember this:
If your skin would keep from taint,
Discard the powder and the paint.

"The proper thing for all such ills
Is this," remarked the man of pills,
"Enrich the blood and make it pure—
In this you'll find the only cure."

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will do this without fail. It has no equal. All druggists.

MUST PAY INTEREST.

A Banker Administrator Ordered to Make the Payment.

A question in the administration of the estate of Joseph Barr, was heard by Judge Shields. John L. McCague, who was appointed administrator of the estate at the death of the original administrator, drew $2,500 of money belonging to the estate from a savings bank in the city where it was drawing 5 per cent interest, and deposited it in his own bank. The question at issue was as to whether he should pay interest on the money after he had placed it in his own bank. The court ruled that the administrator must pay the same interest the money was drawing in the savings bank.

The case of Gardner against the city for damages involving the question as to whether appraisers are compelled to notify property owners of the time and place of their meeting to assess damages for city grading was tried before Judge Shields. Gardner claimed $1,000 on account of the grading at Twenty-fifth and Leavenworth streets. He was given a judgment for $371.

The will of Hans C. Nielson was filed for probate. He bequeathes his property, amounting to $500, to his brothers and sisters and names his brother Rasmus his executor.

The call of the docket in the county court will begin at 9 o'clock this morning.

The county court will be closed Thursday.

District Court.

Philander W. Fobes has sued Larmon P. Pruyn for $3,000 on two unpaid notes given to the Hotchkins carriage works.

Charles Corbett sold a South Omaha lot to Douglas Palmer on contract, which was subsequently assigned to Henry Beal. The first payment was not met. Corbett has begun suit to regain possession of the lot and clear its title.

The suit of E. H. Corbett against Charles Withnell on a note of $110 has been appealed to the district court.

William H. Rawley has sued Thomas D. Condon for $1,000 damages. Condon had the plaintiff arrested and tried on a charge of embezzling $50, but Rowley was acquitted.

Had a bilious attack and one of those indescribable cases of constant weariness. Took quinine and other remedies without relief. Took Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic; am strong and well. Asa Thompson, Logan, Ohio. Goodman Drug Co., agents, Omaha.

A POINT OF ORDER.

Will Rev. T. M. House Be Returned to His Present Charge.

The pastor of the First M. E. church of this city may have some doubt about his return from the conference, now so near at hand, to his present charge. Of late it has been known that there is some opposition to him by officers of the church, and it has been pleaded by them that, for his own interest a removal would be best, as well as for the interests of the church which he has served for the past two years.

A spontaneous movement was made more than two weeks ago intended to effect his removal. This eruption was reported to him, pro mptly and quietly, by a committee appointed for the purpose, which led to his making a counter-exertion to be reappointed for another year. The efforts were carried on in good order, provoking very little of feeling common to such strifes, but with a determination on the part of his adversaries to maintain their point, and, in the end, carry it.

The fourth and last quarterly conference of his church was held on Monday evening, August 20, Presiding Elder Ciendenning in the chair, at which substantially the following was offered:

Whereas, In the opinion of this quarterly conference, as well as for the success of the cause of God in this church, it is thought best that there should be a change in the pastoral administration.

Resolved, Therefore, That this action is intended to be the same as requesting the presiding elder to represent this church at the approaching annual conference.

Before it was offered the resolution was signed by at least thirteen members of the quarterly conference. But a motion prevailed to lay it on the table, by a vote of 9 to 8, because of there not having been an understanding as to the best method of disposing of the question in respect to the removal of the pastor. The quarterly conference had agreed before this to adjourn to meet on Saturday evening, September 1, and the pastor was appointed to preside.

At the adjourned meeting a motion was made to take the resolution from the table. The chair arbitrarily ruled the motion out of order. After this ruling a motion was made to appeal from the decision of the chair to the members present. This motion the chair refused to entertain. This action on the part of the pastor was construed as a sitting down on the majority, and the conference was powerless in its attempt to accomplish anything further in this direction, and at once adjourned sine die. This reformation of points of order is not acquiesced in by the members.

CUT IN TWO.

An Unknown Man Found Dead, Run Over by Cars.

The body of an unknown man was found yesterday afternoon on the B. & M. transfer track at the foot of Jones street. The car wheels passed over the abdomen, nearly cutting the body in two. The right leg was also broken in two places. As far as can be learned no one saw the accident, although the body was within a few feet of a house. The remains were taken in charge by Coroner Drexel, and an inquest will be held at 10 o'clock this morning.

The dead man is about thirty years old, has a light moustache and light brown hair. In his pockets were found $14.15. His name is supposed to have been Robert A. Hartwell of Albion, Orleans county, N. Y. That name and address were found in a little book on his person. There was also a letter beginning "Dear Robert." These were the only clues to his identity.

Mr. E. R. Ballard, with Omaha Oil and Paint Co., is the agent for Beescuer, Wy. T. Room 625, Paxton Bldg.

She Exonerated Him.

Lena Condrega, the French girl who brought suit in Justice Anderson's court, yesterday signed a paper exonerating Morris Golden. In her communication she says that Mr. Golden was not guilty of her seduction, and she withdraws her suit and all claims upon him. She also signed a receipt for all claims to date. The suit was compromised in some manner, and the papers were all witnessed by the brother of the young lady whom Mr. Golden is soon to wed.

Beating the Union Pacific.

Aaron Moberly, an inoffensive looking countryman, walked into the U. P. ticket office at the depot yesterday and purchased a ticket for North Platte. He got hold of the ticket before laying his money down, and putting it in his pocket, refused to pay for it at all, saying that the railroad could stand it better than he could. The agent came out, and the two had a tussle for the pasteboard, and Moberly seeing that he was getting the worst of it, tore the ticket to fragments. His case was continued until this afternoon.

FALL ANNOUNCEMENT.

At the beginning of the Autumn Season we offer our greetings to our friends and customers with the pleasing conviction, that they will give a ready attention and kind reception to our offering.

Our patrons know that our advertisements are always well worth reading, in fact that it pays to read them carefully. We never advertise or promise impossibilities. We don't try to humbug people as is done in many clothing advertisements; we appeal only to sound judgment and reason. We adhere in our advertisement strictly to the truth, and whenever we do announce some special bargain the people are always sure that it is something extraordinary, and no every day affair.

We are now ready for the new season with a new stock. We have made every effort to the selection of a stock, which, in all respect should have no superior; not even an equal in this part of the country and we think that in this we have succeeded. When we say that it is without exception the largest display of goods for Men's wear, ever exhibited in any one establishment outside of New York or Philadelphia, we mean exactly what we say. Our trade is constantly increasing and we have prepared this fall for a larger increase than ever. Though we have only recently added considerable space, we have again not room enough to display this seasons stock properly. Every table on our three immense floors is fairly groaning under its weight of goods.

The clothing for all ages which now lies upon our counters is the best proof of the well directed efforts we have made to win and deserve your patronage.

And not only in clothing do we make such a display, every department of our large establishment is equally well stocked. Our Hat Department contains more hats than any two of the largest exclusive Hat stores together. Our Underwear, Hosiery, Glove and every other department is crowded with new goods.

About prices we only have this much to say. COME AND SEE HOW OUR GOODS ARE MARKED. Old customers need not be told how much they can save by trading with us. OUR GOODS ARE MARKED THIS SEASON WITH THIS GREAT OBJECT IN VIEW—OF RETAINING ALL OUR OLD CUSTOMERS, AND GAINING FOR US MANY THOUSAND NEW ONES.

STRICTLY ONE PRICE.

BOOK TO MEN FREE.

Upon Private, Special or Nervous Diseases, Impotency, Syphilis, Gleet and Varicocele, with question list.

My Reason for Writing a Book Upon Private, Special and Nervous Diseases.

I have for many years made a specialty of diseases of the urinary and sexual organs, have become a recognized authority upon the subject, consequently I receive an immense number of letters from physicians and afflicted persons, asking my opinion and advice upon individual cases. For the benefit of such persons, I have written a book giving a general description of the most common diseases and conditions, my treatment, success, advice, etc. After reading it, persons will have a cleared idea of their condition and can write me more intelligently and to the point. It will therefore be seen that our object in writing these pages is not to furnish reading matter to a class of persons who read out of mere idle curiosity, but for the benefit of the many who are suffering to a greater or less degree from diseases, or the effects of diseases or abuses, of the sexual or urinary organs. Not a day passes but we receive many calls or letters from persons suffering from this class of diseases, or their sequal. Many of them are ignorant of the cause of the difficulty that has wrecked their constitutions, thrown a cloud over their bright prospects and in shortening their days.

EYE AND EAR DEPARTMENT.

We claim superiority over any oculist or aurist in the west, and the thousands whom we have cured, after others have failed, substantiate our claims. Our book, describing the Eye and Ear and their diseases, in plain language with numerous illustrations, are written for the benefit of patients and physicians who write us in regard to cases; by readings them carefully physician and patient will have a clear understanding and can discribe cases to us more intelligently.
