Great Strength on Small Business Shown in the Chicago Cereal Pits.

CORN LED AND SENT ALL PRICES UP.

Wheat Was Fairly Active but Corn Was Booming—Oats Steady—Pork Products Rapidly Regaining Lost Values.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—There was less force to the leading markets this morning as far as the volume of business was concerned, but there was excellent strength even on the moderate trade. There was a little dip in prices for cereals after a firm and higher opening, and this was followed by a fair rally. Provisions noted much the same, but showed even more strength, with niess pork as a leader and showing force enough at the end of the hour to carry the price of May to $10 before the day ended.

The shutting off of much outside business by the storm interfering with the telegraph wires did not long impede business in the wheat pit. Local interest is so large that a big market resulted most of the morning. At the opening the talk was all regarding the effects of the sleet, snow and rain extending over the wheat belt. Opinions were pretty well divided until indications for a cold snap following developed and then the bulls had the advantage. The opening was firm and a trifle higher at once, with May at 95c and 95⅞c and July at 93⅛c. Lack of outside business, rather bearish talk on flour from the northwest and free selling by Cudahy started rather free offerings, and prices took a dip of ⅛c all around, May selling at 95⅛c and July at 92⅝c. These were the low figures of the day and were followed by a rally at once to the opening prices. For two hours the price of May was back and forth from 96⅛c to 95⅛c until about midday, when some private and bullish cables were received, and on good buying by George Smith and others the price moved up to 97⅛c, reacted to 97⅛c, sold again to 97⅛c and at 1 o'clock was ⅛c over yesterday's close at 95c. Then July followed up to 93⅝c and back to 93c, recovering again to 93⅝c. A local house reported a sale of 2,000 sacks of baker's flour for export. It will be a weather market in wheat tomorrow.

This was another big day in the corn market. The session opened with an uneasy feeling among the shorts, and the price of May ½c to ⅝c over the closing and high price of yesterday. The first flurry sent the price of May to 56c. This brought out a good line of corn from many local houses. Offerings continued until the price got close down to 55c, with 55⅛@55⅛c the lowest figure, where much changed hands. There was a gradual recovery from this point until 56c was reached again, when the same action was repeated. A second decline was to 55½c, and at 1 o'clock the market was quiet at 55½c. July ranged from 54⅛c to 53⅝c, to 54⅜c, to 53⅞, to 54⅛c. The feeling in corn at the close was easier and the last prices were the lowest of the day, with May at 55½c and July 54⅛c. February was quoted at 54c and 53½c at the close. March was the same as February. June sold close to 54½c. Receipts for the day were 190 cars and for Saturday 225 cars. Bryant was an open buyer and took 150,000 bushels at the top of the market. Hutchinson bought freely early. Schwartz-Dupee bought heavily at one time. Much of the selling was long corn around 56c and on decline Nash-Wright, William Dunn, Pattison, Bartlett-Frazer, Baxter and others offered freely. Partridge sold corn short. Corn privileges were quoted 54⅝c and 55⅛c.

The same parties who led the trading in oats yesterday were the leaders today. Hutchinson and Bartlett Frazer. They were good buyers. Selling was scattering and not very free, except on bulge. The market was within ⅛c range, opening 46⅛c, selling 47⅛c to 46⅝c, and closing steady with last night at 46⅞c. June 45⅝c and 46⅛c, closing at 46c; July 40⅛c and 42⅛c, closing at 42c, or a shade firmer.

The provision trade enjoyed another large volume of trade, the packers with the exception of Little, raiding early to test market, yet this did not interfere seriously with advance. This of itself made the short interest nervous and when corn went to 56c there was a very strong wave in the provision pit. Pork was bid up 5c at a bump and May, which opened at $9.85, rose to $10.00 and after selling back around $9.90 closed at $9.95. March was quoted up to $9.75 and closed at $9.65. July was marked up to $10.32½ and closed at $10.27½. Lard was also exceptionally strong and at the best figures sold low over close yesterday, touching $5.75 for March, $5.97½ for May and $6.20 for July, closing 2½c easier. Ribs were 5c up at the close. Prices appear below. The future of the market depends on the action of the packers.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—STOCKS—The storm of last night all over the west greatly impaired telegraphic service this morning, but as public interest in stocks at present is small, the effect on trade was not great. The opening was quite irregular, but showed a majority of advances and the tone displayed during the hour was firm within narrow limits. The only feature was imparted to the market by the continuation of covering of shorts in Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and Rock Island, the former rising ⅝ per cent and the latter ½ per cent. Besides these two stocks, St. Paul showed some animation, but the remainder of the list was almost completely stagnant. No other special feature was shown, however, and in the later part of the hour the best prices were not maintained. The market dragged along through the hour to 12 o'clock without animation or special feature. Union Pacific was weak and lower. Villards were not supported on very light business, and New England and Chicago Gas ruled somewhat higher. Silver again dropped down to 98¾. Money very easy and no change in the temper of stagnant speculation. The stock market showed more activity and more strength late in the day. Burlington continued to lead the advance and moved up to 84, closing at 83⅞. Rock Island followed to 67⅞, a gain of ⅝. Other western stocks showed gains of ¼ to ½ per cent. Chicago Gas was up to 73¼ and Cotton Oil rose 2 points over last night to 34. Silver closed at 97¾.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—CATTLE—Business was again only fair and prices steady only on the few loads of prime export and fancy steers among arrivals. About everything else in the steer line was slow from start to finish. The wires were out of order. Messages to buyers for eastern markets were delayed, and some of them, notably Eastman's outfit, were practically out of the market until late in the forenoon. Canning and common cow stock, and even medium cows, ruled slow, while prime heifers and good cow stock sold strong. Business in the stocker and feeder line was fair and prices steady. There was nothing on the market today that was worth over $5.10, that being the top price for steers; other quality, $4.50@4.95; helfers, $1.00@3.50; cows, $1.40@2.65; stockers, $1.65@3.40.

HOGS—Trade was active with an upturn of a strong 5c, and in some cases 10c, and the upturn, strange to say, brought out all classes of buyers, including speculators, shippers and packers, the combination taking about everything useful before the day closed, and the finish was almost as strong as the opening, yet there were few late sales that did not show up equal to those made earlier. Rough and common may be quoted at $4.40@5.50; prime packers and mixed, $5.55@5.65; prime heavy and butcher weights, $5.70@5.75; light, $5.55@5.70.

The Wool Market.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 20.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The demand for wool has been steady, and the sales of the week were 3,131,000 pounds of all kinds. The market is firm and prices show little if any change. Ohio fleeces are rather quiet and sales are reported of X at 32@33c. X and XX and above at 33@34, and No. 1 at 37@38c. Michigan fleeces are not much called for at 30@32c for X and 36@37c for No 1. Combing wools are firm at 40@42c for No. 1 washed, and 28c for one-quarter and 30@32c for three-eighths blood. Unwashed delaine wools sell at 30@35c for Ohio and 30@36c for Michigan. Territory wools are in good demand and selling on a scoured basis of 60@65c for fine, 58@60c for fine medium and 55c for medium. California wool has been selling at 12@24c for spring. Fall Texas and California wools are dull. In pulled wool there have been good sales of super at 30@34c and extra at 36@38c. Australian wools are active with sales at 60@62c. Foreign carpet wools are firm and in good demand.

Country Produce.

The produce market yesterday did not present any important changes, prices for the most part remaining in the same groove. Receipts were not large.

EGGS—The general price was 20c, but the market was not so strong and a few sales were reported at 19c.

POULTRY—Owing to more liberal receipts the market for chickens was weak yesterday and the number of sales above 8c were small. Other kinds of poultry were fully steady. Turkeys 10@12½c; geese and ducks 90@10c.

GAME—Very few rabbits are coming in now. Cotton tails sell at $1.00 per dozen.

BUTTER—The market did not present any new features yesterday, prices remaining at about the same point. Best country rolls, 15@18c; good, 14@16c; low grades, 6@12c.

HAY—Receipts have been very light for some days back and prices accordingly are high. Good hay was quoted yesterday at $8.00@8.25 per ton.
