The Review of Reviews

first, because it is a necessity—that is the rule in magazine buying of America's intellectual aristocracy. It is indispensable to the busy business man, who must keep abreast of the times, because it gives him the real news of the day in concise, readable form; it is invaluable to the thinking man, who demands only the truth, and then draws his own conclusions, because it gives him just plain, straight facts.

It is helpful to the whole family. In it you will find a monthly picture of men and affairs by Dr. Albert Shaw, in his comprehensive editorial, "Progress of the World"; a clever cartoon history of the month; book reviews; the gist of the best which has appeared in the other magazines and newspapers of the world; pithy character sketches; and interesting articles on the all-important topics of the day. Authoritative, non-partisan, timely and very much to the point, "it's a liberal education," is the way subscribers express it.

OUR 1909-10 CATALOGUE

of all American magazines is a money-saver. You can't afford to order for next year without first seeing it. If you appreciate superior service, and demand maximum magazine value for the fewest dollars, write for it—today. It's free to you.

PRICES UP IN ALL COUNTRIES.

Statistics Show Advance in Meat Figures Throughout World. The advance in the price of meats in the United States in recent years seems to correspond, in a measure at least, with conditions which have caused increases in meat prices throughout the world, not only in those countries which do not produce much meat, but also in Argentina, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and other countries which produce a surplus for export. The government has gathered some interesting statistics upon the subject. It is found that the advance in the price of fresh meats is less than in salted and preserved meats, and in nearly all cases the advance has been less in beef than in pork or mutton.

In Australia beef preserved by cold process advanced in export price from $5.23 per 100 pounds in 1899 to $5.40 in 1908, mutton and lamb from $3.82 per 100 pounds in 1899 to $6.47 in 1908. From Canada the value of fresh beef exports advanced from an annual average of 6.1 cents per pound in 1898 to 8.2 cents in 1908, that of mutton from 6.1 to 11.2 cents; pork from 3.3 to 9 cents and butter from 18.1 cents to 24 cents.

All the European cities show, wherever statistics are available, higher wholesale prices in the local markets. In Moscow, Russia, beef of the first quality has advanced in price per pound from 8.5 cents in 1903 to 12 cents in 1908. Berlin shows an advance in beef from 13.2 in 1899 to 15.5 cents in 1908, pork from 12.9 to 16.3 cents.

GENEROUS JOHN D.
Oil Magnate Said to Be Planning to Give Away Money. John D. Rockefeller has asked the aid of Congress in disposing of a large part of his wealth for the benefit of mankind. The first step was the introduction of a bill to incorporate the Rockefeller Foundation in the District of Columbia. The bill was introduced in the Senate by Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, of New Hampshire. It was referred to the committee on Judiciary. The scope of the foundation is broad, although its purposes were embraced in a short section of the bill introduced. This section reads: "That the object of the said corporation shall be to promote the well being and to advance the civilization of the peoples of the United States and its territories and possessions, and of foreign lands in the acquisition and dissemination of knowledge, in the prevention and relief of suffering, and in the promotion of any and all of the elements of human progress." Mr. Rockefeller is silent for the present as to the purposes of the incorporation.

KILLS 92 RAILROADERS.

Avalanche on Canadian Pacific Road Buried Scores of Workers. Ninety-two Canadian Pacific train men, track men and laborers were buried by an avalanche in Rogers Pass on the summit of the Selkirk range of the Rocky Mountains. All probably are dead. Only five bodies have been recovered. They are those of Roadmaster Fraser, Fireman Griffith, Conductor Buckley, Engineer Phillips and a Japanese. Work of recovering the dead and opening the track was greatly impeded by a blizzard raging in the pass. There was another big slide of snow and rock a mile east of the spot where the men were overwhelmed. It destroyed a portion of a snow shed and buried the track for 400 yards to a depth of sixty feet. There were no victims in the last avalanche.

IDENTIFIED AS TORTURER.

Aged Victim Accuses a Prisoner 14 Years After Robbery. "This is the man that bound me and my wife and burned out feet until we told where we had hidden our money," said John Wagner, 80 years old, as he picked Frank Donahoe out of a line of eight men at the Elma police station, Pittsburgh. "It was fourteen years ago, but I shall never forget his face." Donahoe was sent to jail to await trial for burglary. Two companions are serving terms in prison for the crime, but Donahoe fled and was captured on his return home. As the prisoner was being led away the aged man wept and said: "I have prayed that the guilty one would be captured, because those men were responsible for my wife's death."

POLITICAL COMMENT.

Former Governor Elrod, of South Dakota, has formally announced his candidacy for the governorship of his State on a platform of rigid economy in administration. By a vote of 100 to 3, the House of Representatives of South Carolina passed a resolution favoring an amendment permitting Congress to lay an income tax without apportionment among the States according to population. The Central Federated Union of New York has decided to ask President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor to issue a call for a national convention of representatives of the unions to organize a labor party along the lines of the British labor party. In the last issue of the Commoner, Editor Bryan has an editorial on the "Liquor Question in Nebraska," declaring that the Democratic party must divorce itself from liquor interests, as an alliance with the saloon is an "alliance with vice."

The federal incorporation bill which was introduced in Congress recently is not to be pressed for passage at his session. If the bill should be passed President Taft has stated his willingness to stand as its sponsor, and to take the responsibility for having recommended it.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., will be a candidate for the Legislature of New York from the Oyster Bay district, or from one of the districts of New York City. His friends regard it as a positive fact that he will be elected if he enters the race.

President Taft is alarmed over the situation in Congress, and has recently expressed some concern over the least legislative program. He continues to receive assurances from Republican leaders in the House and Senate that everything is progressing satisfactorily, but the President wants to be shown.

INDIANS BLOW OUT GAS.

Leader of Chippewas, Aged 95, One of Victims at National Capital. One of the most picturesque chieftains of the Indian race, and his nephew, both members of the Chippewa tribe in Minnesota, were found dead in a hotel in Washington, the victims of asphyxiation. The dead chief was Pay-Baum-We-Che-Wai-Kung, more than 95 years old, and his unfortunate companion was A-Ne-Way-Aush. Accustomed to the light from the camp fires of their primitive life and later to that from the candle and the lamp, it is believed one of the red men blew out the gas which ended their existence and sent them to their "happy hunting ground."

23 KILLED IN ALASKA MINE.

Powder Magazine Explodes in Gold Property on Douglas Island. Twenty-three miners were killed at midnight the other night by an explosion of a powder magazine in the 1,100 level of the Mexican mine, one of the group of Treadwell gold properties on Douglas Island, Alaska. Eight men were seriously injured, of whom it is feared four will die. The last shots had been fired by the shift of men twenty minutes before the explosion took place, and the men had assembled at the landing on the skip and were arranging to enter it and go on top. The magazine, which contains 275 pounds of powder, was thirty feet away from the place where the men were standing, and every man was killed or injured.

EFFECTS OF A SNOWSLIDE IN THE MOUNTAINS.

MOB RULES DALLAS, TEXAS.

Takes Aged Colored Man from Court and Put Him to Death. Snatched from before the bar of justice, where his trial on the charge of criminally assaulting a 2-year-old white child was about to begin, Allen Brooks, an aged negro, was lynched in Dallas, Texas, by a mob of 5,000 men. Brooks was seized in the courtroom by fifteen leaders of the avenging mob and was tossed through a window to the main body, which waited like a pack of ravening wolves for their prey, in the street below. His broken body was dragged through the streets and he was hanged to the Elks' arch, high above the heads of the avenging citizens. The mob was led by an old negro. With it all hardly a loud word was spoken, not a shot was fired, and above the dull murmurings of the mob could be heard the aged negro's piercing shrieks for mercy.

After Brooks was hanged Dallas for nearly three hours was in the hands of the mob. The jail was stormed and death was threatened to three other negroes, held on charges of murder. They had been spirited away, however, and after searching for them in vain the mob dispersed.

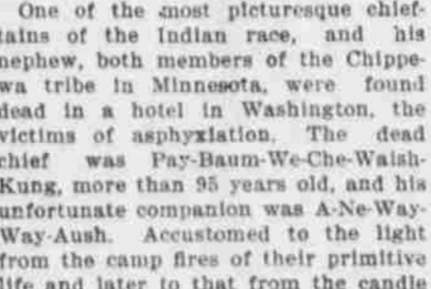

The crime for which Brooks paid the penalty was one of the most brutal in the history of Dallas. His victim is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Buven.

SAVES THREE; LOSES OWN LIFE.

Crowd Watches Pittsburgh Man Slowly Die of Electrocuton. Before the eyes of several hundred horror-stricken promenaders who were enjoying the sunshine in the pretty little Pittsburgh suburb of Fair Oaks, Charles Rommel was electrocuted while attempting to save two of his young daughters and a young playmate from meeting the same fate. Rommel had just started from his home when, crossing the street, an electric light wire dropped and the children became entangled in its meshes. He succeeded in extricating them, but in throwing one end of the broken wire, which was dead, he inadvertently came in contact with the other end. This completed a circuit, and the sparks darted from the man's face and body by the thousand. It was fully half an hour before the deadly current was turned off, and in the meantime the horrified crowd stood helpless, watching Rommel die.

ROBBERS LOOT EXPRESS CAR.

Nearly 1,000 Packages on New York Central Train Broken Open. When train No. 27 on the New York Central reached Rochester the other day it was discovered that one of the ten American Express cars, a through car, had been looted. Nearly all of the 1,000 packages had been broken open and their contents scattered. Just how much the robbers got will not be known until an inventory is taken at Buffalo. It is the belief of the express company officials that the robbery was the work of a gang that is supposed to have boarded the train at Utica, getting off at Syracuse.

Because of a shortage of wheat in Mexico, the rate of duty has been reduced by the Mexican government from 3 cents a kilogram to 1 cent.

A dispatch from Constantinople to a London news agency states that the powers will propose that Turkey sell Crete to Greece as the best solution of the difficulty.

The municipal election in Philadelphia resulted in a complete knockout for the reform movement, the entire William Penn ticket being overwhelmingly defeated. The regular Republican organization swept the city. Not one reform councilman was elected.

Tremendous applause greeted the statement of Gov. Hughes during the banquet that Taft would be renominated and re-elected. He said: "The American people are fair enough to recognize a great man doing his duty with absolute fidelity."

In the civil chamber Harold Vanderbilt, the young New York millionaire, was condemned to pay a workman named Guignard $4,550 for injuries suffered by him in 1907, when he was struck by Vanderbilt's auto. Guignard sued for $14,000. The court decided that he was entitled to $2,250 for medical and doctor's bills and $2,400 for damages.

Dr. Louis Klopsch Dies.

Dr. Louis Klopsch, editor of the Christian Herald, who has been ill since the first of the month in the German Hospital at Park avenue and 71st street, New York, is dead. He underwent an operation for stomach trouble.

LIVE-STOCK RECEIPTS FALL OFF.

Government Figures Show Drop from Previous Years in January. Internal-commerce movements in January, according to statistics of the department of commerce and labor, showed heavy movements of coal and coke in the east, increased grain receipts at the interior markets and light movements of live stock in the middle west and of cotton in the south.

At seven primary interior markets live stock receipts during the month aggregated 3,084,892 head, compared with 3,709,892 and 4,520,338 head in January of 1909 and 1908. Receipts of hogs were 31 per cent below those of January, 1909, and 48 per cent below the January, 1908, total, all the cities sharing in the decline.

Shipments of packing house products from Chicago aggregated 187,350,123 pounds, compared with 189,884,534 and 213,298,423 pounds during January of 1909 and 1908.

KANSAS TO OPPOSE HANGING.

State Officials Will Ask Taft to Commute O'Neil's Sentence. Governor Stubbs and Kansas State officials will appeal to President Taft to commute to life imprisonment the death sentence which was imposed by a jury in the federal court two months ago on Charles O'Neil, an army officer. Kansas has not had a hanging since it became a State. Two years ago capital punishment was wiped from the statutes. None of the Governors of Kansas ever ordered prisoners hanged who were sent up for murder. They were permitted to serve life sentences. When the verdict of guilty was rendered in the federal court Judge John C. Pollock ordered that O'Neil be confined in the Leavenworth County jail until March 29, when he should be executed. United States Marshal Mackay is preparing for the execution.

KNOX'S SON TOO YOUNG TO WED.

Balked in Elopement, He Rides on "Milk Train" with Bride-to-Be. After vainly trying for two days to obtain a marriage license and get some one to wed them, Miss May Bolter, of Providence, R. I., and Philander C. Knox, Jr., son of Secretary of State Knox, who ran away from the Rhode Island capital the other day, passed through Plattsburg, N. Y., in a day coach on the "milk train" on their way back to Providence. Mr. Knox, who is under age, is a student in the Morris Heights school, where he is preparing to enter college this fall.

Two Bombs Were Hurled Into a Room.

in which a party of clerical candidates were dining in Lisbon, Portugal, and the explosions killed two of the diners and wounded seven others, including the priest who was presiding.

Georgin Ponce Lynches Negro. C. H. Mann, Jr., of Cedar Crossing, Ga., was fatally stabbed by a negro, whose name has not been learned, who entered the Mann home and attacked Mrs. Mann. The negro was pursued by a posse, captured and lynched.

American Held in Mexico. Oscar B. Wood, postmaster at Chamberlain, N. M., is held by the Mexican authorities at Juarez on a charge of assaulting a Mexican official and a Mexican policeman. He attempted to escape on a train, but was captured.

GENERAL STRIKE TIES UP ALL PHILADELPHIA

General Walkout in Sympathy with Street Car Men Takes Effect at Midnight.

MILITIA IS HELD IN READINESS

Labor Leaders Assert 100,000 Union Workers Will Obey Order—Impartial Estimate 40,000.

A general strike of the unions in sympathy with the striking street car men went into effect in Philadelphia at midnight the other night. Simultaneously it became known, despite the denial of Gen. Clay, head of the police force, that every national guard regiment in the State of Pennsylvania has received orders to be ready to entrain for Philadelphia at an hour's notice.

The labor leaders are shouting exultantly that 100,000 men have lined up with the striking motormen and conductors. The police canvassers make the figure less than 21,000. An impartial estimate is 40,000, a little more or a little less.

While the labor leaders are receiving moral support from their fellow workmen in all parts of the country, many associations of employers have sent letters and telegrams to the officials of the Rapid Transit Company and the city officials commending the stand taken and urging them to remain firm in their determination not to submit to the strikers' demand for union recognition. The struggle of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company against the car men's union has broadened into a fight between employers who insist on their right to run open shops and labor unionism. From now on the issue is the life or death of labor unionism in Philadelphia.

All policemen, firemen and specials who have been on duty since the strike began received orders to remain at their posts. The emergency automobiles in the city hall courtyard were increased in number and measures taken to send a force of men to any section of the city at a moment's notice. Many of these machines are driven by their owners, wealthy men, who have volunteered for police duty and have been sworn in.

The outlook is ominous, even to the most cheerful observers. So much bitterness has developed in the last few days that the people of Philadelphia are preparing for any kind of trouble.

FIVE DEAD IN RACE RIOT.

Negro Slayings of Deputy Sheriffs Lynched by Florida Mob. With three negroes dead as the result of a race riot in the neighborhood of Palmetto, Fla., the wrath of the residents in that section seems to be assuaged. The sum total of deaths is three negroes and two white men, with one white man in the emergency hospital in Tampa with a bullet hole through his head. The last of the three negroes implicated in the murder of two deputy sheriffs and the fatal wounding of the third was lynched by a posse at dusk in the palmettos on the banks of the Manatee River. He had fallen asleep, and when he awoke he was gazing into the barrels of a dozen rifles and shotguns. Even then he showed resistance and reached for his rifle. In a second he was riddled with bullets.

MORE LANDS FOR FARMERS.

Irrigated Tracts in South Dakota Are Opened for Entry. The Secretary of the Interior has announced the completion of the second unit of the Belle Fourche, S. D., irrigation project, embracing 10,000 acres, divided into forty and eighty acre farms. These farms now are available for entry. No lottery system is to be employed, settlers being required, after making choice of a farm, to file their entries in the local land office, with a cash payment of $3.40 per acre. The entire cost of water right for a forty-acre farm is $1,200, payable in ten annual installments.

Hundreds See Acrobat Fall.

Fifteen hundred persons were horror-stricken at a Cincinnati theater the other afternoon when a performer named Augusta Fassio, while perched on her brother's head eighteen feet above the stage, lost her balance and fell to the floor, breaking her neck. She has little chance of recovery. The man was on tables piled twelve feet above the stage.

Louis James in a Collapse.

Louis James, the actor, was stricken with heart failure in his dressing-room at the Helena theater in Helena, Mont., and for several hours his life was despaired of. The performance was canceled and Mr. James was removed to his hotel, where it was stated that his condition was slightly improved.

Carolin Breaks Down.

The Empress of Russia has been suffering from a severe nervous attack and her condition is considered exceedingly unsatisfactory.

"More power to the interstate commission," was urged by United States Senator Albert B. Cummins in an address before the Traffic Club at Chicago recently.

Boy Snapped; Burns Sister.

Enraged because his 5-year-old sister Doris slapped him, Morris Blond, 8 years old, deliberately set fire to her dress in Kansas City. When the mother ran in the child was fatally burned.

Engineer and Miner Killed.

William Douglas, engineer of the McAlester Coal Mining Company at Buck, Okla., was killed, and Paul Thinner and Case Manual, miners, were fatally hurt when a cage they were in dropped to the bottom of the shaft. Thinner died later.
