X—DO YOU WANT MONEY?

If so do not fail to get our rates before borrowing.

We make loans, without removal or publicity, on furniture, pianos, horses, wagons, etc., at the lowest possible rate.

There is no unnecessary delay, but you get the money on the same day you ask for it.

We will carry the loan as long as you desire, giving you the privilege of paying it in full or in part at any time to suit your convenience, and any part paid reduces the cost of carrying the loan in proportion to the amount paid.

Our offices are centrally located and are so arranged that parties calling on us can be waited on quickly and courteously.

If you have a loan with other parties, or have bought a piano or other furniture on time and find the payments a little larger than you can meet conveniently, we will pay it for you and carry the loan as long as you desire.

It will be to your advantage to see us before securing a loan.

OMAHA ITALIANS GO TO WAR.

Titled Representatives of the Sunny Nation Differ on Many Points.

In the language of holy writ, a house that is divided against itself cannot stand. It is in this divided condition that the Italian legation in this city finds itself.

For years the head consulate has had his headquarters in Denver, but a branch has been maintained in Omaha. During all of this time Military Consul Venuti has been in charge. By paying strict attention to his business and advising for and with the erstwhile residents of Sunny Italy, he has made money.

Some three months ago Albert Edward Conti drifted in from Sioux City. Being of a striking appearance and a smooth talker he soon convinced Venuti that he ought to have a partner in the consul business. Venuti was convinced and the two opened up in the Creighton block. Everything went along smoothly for a time, but at last Conti, seeing that Venuti stood well with the Italians in Omaha, concluded to do a little work on the side to bring himself into favor.

Venuti had arranged to banquet the Italian nobility last Monday night and had sent out many invitations. Conti discovered that the movement was a master stroke upon the part of Venuti and to counteract its influence gave it out cold that he would banquet the Omaha Italians at Council Bluffs on the same evening, and in addition thereto would give all who attended a free excursion on the Omaha and Council Bluffs motor line. The two banquets were held with the larger crowd dining and wining Conti.

Neither of the gentlemen spoke about the banquets, and as sullen as thunder clouds they occupied their office until yesterday. At noon time Conti went out to lunch and when he returned he found the office vacated. Venuti during his absence had moved the furniture away and locked the door. Fearing that he was to be ousted, he unlocked the door of the office and entered, but was met by a bewhiskered Italian who, knife in hand, drove Deputy Military Consul Conti into the street, crying murder.

Conti states that the end is not yet, as he is the scion of a royal family and will resent the insult. To show that blue blood runs in his veins he takes pride in showing a paper which states that his father occupies no less a position than chief justice in the court of appeals of Italy.

"Life has been a burden to me for the past fifty years on account of great suffering from very severe and frequent headaches. Bradycrotine has done wonders for me. I am now a new man and shall proclaim the merits of your medicine to all I can reach." George P. Fowler, attorney at law, Palatka, Fla.
