A CHANCE TO OBTAIN AN INTEREST AT Cripple Creek, the great gold camp of Colorado; five years ago a cattle pasture, today the greatest gold producing district on the American continent. Thousands of people would like to become interested in these great gold fields and secure a share of the golden riches, but cannot afford to spend the time and money necessary to go there and look up desirable mining properties.
We are on the verge of a great revival of gold mining; improved machinery and vastly improved facilities for handling the ores have simplified the methods of mining and reduced the risks until it has become a strictly business proposition, and carefully and judiciously conducted offers today the safest and quickest legitimate way to make enormous profits of any business in the United States. We can now offer those desiring a splendid chance to obtain an interest at Cripple Creek without the expenditure of any money for traveling expenses or taking time from their business; the amount required of each one will be very small, and liable to yield large returns. If interested write B 32, Bee office. Y—M729 29

SETTLES WITH THE DEFENDANT.

Mrs. Brown Dismisses Suit Against the Union Pacific.

Mrs. Dora B. Brown commenced suit against the Union Pacific Railway company to recover $5,000 damages for the death of her husband, Charles S. Brown. She alleges that in October, 1894, while employed as a switchman in the yards of the defendant at Columbus, in this state, her husband was struck by a switch target and sustained injuries from which he died. She alleged that she has one child, a boy, aged 9 years, and says they have been damaged to the amount claimed by reason of the death of her husband.

The Union Pacific offered to confess judgment in the case in the sum of $129 and the offer was accepted by the plaintiff.

FREE TO EVERY MAN.

The Method of a Great Treatment.

WHICH CURED HIM AFTER EVERYTHING ELSE FAILED.

Painful diseases are bad enough, but when a man is slowly wasting away with nervous weakness the mental forebodings are ten times worse than the most severe pains. There is no let up to the mental suffering day or night. Sleep is almost impossible, and under such a strain men are scarcely responsible for what they do. For years the writer suffered and toiled on the troubled sea of sexual weakness, until it was a question whether he had not better take a dose of poison and thus end all his troubles. Our providential deliverance came to him at the close of a combination of medicines that not only completely restored his general health, but enlarged the weak, emaciated parts to natural size and vigor, and he now declares that any man who will take the trouble to send his name and address may have the method of this wonderful treatment free. Now, when I say free, I mean absolutely without cost, because I want every weakened man to get the benefit of my experience.

I am not a philanthropist, nor do I pose as an enthusiast, but there are thousands of men suffering the mental tortures of weakness who would be cured at once could they get such a remedy as the one that cured me. Do not try to study out how I affect to pay the few postage stamps necessary to mail the information, but send for the remedy and learn that there are a few things on earth that, although they cost nothing to get, they are worth a fortune to some men and mean a lifetime of happiness to most of us. Write to Thomas Slater, Box 128, Kalamazoo, Mich., and the information will be mailed in a plain sealed envelope.

BOTH TEAMS ARRIVE TONIGHT.

Iowa and Nebraska Will Be Here Ready for Tomorrow's Games.

The talk of the town just now is the coming foot ball game. Everybody is getting ready for it. The florists are laying in a large supply of white and yellow chrysanthemums and red carnations, for scarlet and white are the colors of the Nebraska university, and without doubt those flowers will be very popular on that day. Old gold is the color of the Iowa university, and, according to reports, their team will be supported by a tremendous crowd of enthusiasts.

There is a great deal of interest in Council Bluffs in foot ball. They think that this is the opportunity of the decade to win the pennant, and they are going to come over in numbers to take a hand in the expected victory. A goodly number of Iowa's admirers will accompany the team from Iowa City. Heretofore Iowa's team has not been a great success, and it seems so nice to have a winning team. Manager Price of the Iowa team has telegraphed Mr. Crawford to secure accommodations for his men at the Dellone, that hotel being the old headquarters for Iowa during the past years. They will arrive in town by the Rock Island Wednesday night, proceed to their hotel and spend a quiet evening, take a rub-down, go to bed early and get in shape for the contest.

The Nebraska team will reach Omaha early Wednesday evening, and will probably put up at the Merchants. Manager Oury will only bring the eleven regular men with him, leaving the substitutes to follow Thursday morning, with the excursionists. Oury does not intend to have a repetition of the mishap of last year, which occurred in the Missouri game, when one of the University's best halfbacks, King, missed his train, and did not reach Omaha until the game was nearly finished, and Charlie Thomas, who was coaching Nebraska in '95, decided it was then too late to put him in the game. The members of the team can be seen at the hotel early in the evening by their admirers and friends, but none of them will be allowed to leave the hotel. One of Oury's main objects of bringing the team to Omaha is to keep the men from attending a promenade, which is to be held in Lincoln Wednesday night, and which affords many allurements to the boys.

Mr. Burgess of the Creighton theater has very generously offered boxes to the two competing teams; Nebraska has already accepted the offer, and Iowa is yet to be heard from. The theater will be decorated with the colors of the colleges.

Monday the University of Nebraska beat Wesleyan, 28 to 0. Manager Oury was criticised quite severely for allowing his men to play a game so shortly before Thanksgiving day,
