Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

BROGAN SAYS IT IS BOGUS

Never Sent Out Letters Requesting Voters to Call on Ezra Millard.

MONEY SPENT FOR LEGITIMATE USES

Nothing Which Will Aid the Populists Brought Out in the Contest Proceedings at the Jacksonian Club Rooms.

The legislative contestants put in a dreary afternoon at the Jacksonian club yesterday. Several witnesses were examined at considerable length, but very few answers were secured that were of particular interest in connection with the contest. The first witness was F. A. Brogan, who was chairman of the executive committee of the non-partisan Sound Money league during the recent political campaign. His testimony was generally corroborative of that previously given by Dr. Miller. Mr. Brogan stated that the league expended about $600 during the campaign. Of this every dollar went for hall rent, music, printing and other legitimate expenses.

Mr. Brogan nailed one of the fakes sprung by the local Bryan organ during the last days of the campaign. This was the allegation that letters had been written to various individuals by Mr. Brogan, asking them to call on Alfred Millard at the Commercial National bank, the inference furnished by the popocratic organ being that it was for the purpose of receiving money. In reply to a question, Mr. Brogan swore positively that no such letter was ever written by him or by any person who had authority to act for the organization. He stated that the first he knew of the matter was when he read it in the Bryan organ. He immediately went to G. M. Hitchcock, editor of the paper, and told him that the letter was not genuine. He asked to see the letter, but Mr. Hitchcock refused to produce it. At that time Hitchcock declared that it was signed in ink. Later by telephone he called up Mr. Metcalfe of the same paper, and Mr. Metcalfe told him that the document, including the signature, was typewritten. Mr. Brogan testified that Mr. Millard was not even a member of his committee and handled no funds for it.

HITCHCOCK TOLD HIS BANKER.

On cross-examination the witness was asked if he had ever been told that Hitchcock had received large sums of money for converting his paper into a free silver organ and accepting Mr. Bryan as a nominal editor. Mr. Brogan testified that he had been told by a person who claimed to know that Mr. Hitchcock had told his banker, Herman Kountze, that he expected to receive the money in a few days.

Henry W. Yates testified that he had handled $1,400 during the campaign. Of this part was on account of the Cockran meeting and the rest for the Non-partisan league. The money was raised by miscellaneous subscriptions.

P. E. Her was called by the contestants with the evident intention of trying to prove that he had coerced his employes into voting for McKinley. Mr. Her swore positively that he had never asked a man in his employ how he was going to vote or to vote for any particular candidate. He had believed that most of them were going to vote for McKinley, for they talked that way. They wore McKinley buttons and sound money badges and almost without exception marched in the sound money ranks. On that occasion he had given them each money to buy their suppers after the parade and each a couple of good cigars to smoke. In reply to a question Mr. Her very candidly stated that he had not discharged any man for voting for Bryan, but if he found them out he would certainly do so.

Frank Pascale, a prominent Italian politician, was called and testified that he had received a small sum of money from Chairman John Lewis of the republican county central committee for working among his countrymen by the day. His work consisted in seeing that the men were registered and that they secured naturalization papers where they did not already have them.
