INQUIRY! IN THE YEAR 1882 OR BEGINning of '83 bought my brother, Eric Olsen Friswold, some farm land in the state of Nebraska, for which land he paid in monthly installments to an agent in Chicago, unknown to me. In November month, 1883, did my brother send a carload of lumber for building purposes and shortly after also himself leave Chicago for Nebraska. Directly upon his arrival here he sold the lumber and departed for New Orleans in search of work at his profession as a seaman. By that time I did receive a letter from him, but later I have had no information concerning his doings or whereabouts and on that account I must suppose him to be dead. If anybody may be able to give me reliable information about above mentioned farm land I will pay him $10 therefor, and if such communication may guide me to the lawful possession of the land, as my brother's heir, I will pay a liberal reward. Please address A. Olsen, 106 W. Huron St., Chicago, Ill. U—M921 15*
