WYMORE EASILY WALLOPED

Originals Have Little Difficulty in Beating the South Nebraska Wonders.

TURNER'S PITCHING BADLY PUNISHED

Erstwhile Mystery from Missouri Valley Solved with Some to Spare by the Keith Tribe of Base Ball Marvels.

Wymore was given a few needed pointers on playing base ball yesterday afternoon by Buck Keith's Originals, who won out easily in the first of the series for the base ball championship of the state of Nebraska, by a score of 13 to 7.

The thrilling contest was something of battledoor and shuttlecock contest—a case of now you have it and now you haven't. The Originals started out with a great lead which the Wymore aggregation overcame—and went one better. They would have been going ahead yet if Buck Keith had not tumbled to the fact that his twirling find, Rodman, knew as much about pitching as the average hired girl does about the dans du ventre, even though he has dabbled in Western association affairs. When Monseignor Taylor took his place on the slab things were different. The Originals kept on piling up tallies, but the Wymoreans were able to unravel only two of Twirler Taylor's benders and connected for only one score.

The Originals won because of superior fielding, batting and ball playing. At certain stages of the game the visitors acted as if they were afraid of the bounding sphere and they were able to find the ball only when it was tossed over the way Rodman sent it. On the other hand the band of Originals, whom Turner dubbed a lot of "rummies" before the fight commenced, took all sorts of liberties with the curves of this erstwhile aspirant after twirling honors in the Western league and dropped him hard, not one of the local aggregation failing to line out the leather safely.

The four tallies of the Originals in the first inning resulted from three hits and an error by Midgley. The one in the second was the result of a single and another miscue by the midget. In the fifth Dolan was hit and was scored on a three-bagger by Lewis, who in turn was brought home by Rodman's single. In the sixth a hit and another error added another. The catastrophe occurred in the seventh when five hits and an error piled up four tallies. The two in the last inning were the product of Taylor's single and Bowman's two-sacker.

A three-bagger by Midgley in the second developed into a run as a result of a single by Lowe. In the third after Fox got a base on Lewis' error, Crawford banged out a beaut of a home run. With two men out Midgley doubled and was brought home on a single by Turner. A three-bagger by Tell and a single by Fox grew into two scores in the fourth. Along in the seventh Crawford got a base on Dolan's error and scored on a dropped fly by Whitney. Score:

Game This Afternoon.

Although trounced by the Originals yesterday, the Wymore team remains game and will try it again this afternoon. Crawford will be in the box and he is said to be a lolacooler. They will make a mighty effort, for if they lose again they will not dare to show their handsome physiognomies within the limits of the home town, therefore, the game ought to be a good one, for Buck Keith says it belongs to him already. The lineup will be:

Originals.	Position.	Wymore.
Lewis	first base	Fox
Bradford	second base	Lowe
Bowman	third base	Midgley
Dolan,	short stop	Pickard
Whitney	middle field	Tell

EVENTS ON THE RUNNING TRACKS.

Sir Gawain Beats Out Sly Fox for Nautilus Stakes.

NEW YORK, July 16.—The half holiday took a large crowd to the Brighton Beach track today. In the Nautilus stakes Sly Fox was a favorite, with Swiftmas and Sir Gawain second choice. Simms took Sly Fox out with Gawain to make the running and they ran head and head for six furlongs. Then Swiftmas began to move up and as they reached the stretch Sly Fox began to fall back. Sir Gawain then drew away and won cleverly by half a length. Results:

Goodrich, the derby colt, belonging to Lauderman of Cincinnati, ran a mile and a half in the Great Western handicap in 2:30¾, the fastest time ever made by any horse over the distance. The victory of Goodrich was a surprise to the crowd, which had played almost every horse but the right one. Results:

OMAHA WINS THE LAST MATCH.

Zingaris Defeated in a Lively Batting and Bowling Contest.

The return game of cricket between the Omaha club and the Zingaris resulted in a victory for Omaha by fifteen runs. This game is the last of the practice games previous to the tournament which begins Monday. Neale and Taylor started well for the Zingaris and it looked as if they were set. Simms and Bate, however, were bowling well and after the first break was made wickets fell rapidly until Captain Francis and New came together, and then the score materially increased. The captain received rather a severe injury to his knee, which compelled him to retire with twelve figures to his credit. Harry New played in his old form for thirteen figures, Bate was very successful with the ball and Simms bowled well, but had very poor support in the field, several chances being missed off his bowling.

E. H. Sprague deserves the credit of the win for Omaha, for he played in most brilliant style for a quick thirty-six figures. Lawrie played steadily for his nineteen figures, while the others did little to swell the total. George Vaughan was the successful bowler on his side. Scores:

TOM LINTON DEFEATS MICHAEL.

Wins the Twenty-Mile Race and Breaks Six Records.

NEW YORK, July 16.—For the second time this year Jimmy Michael, the once invincible bicyclist, has had an opportunity to drink the bitter cup of defeat. His old schoolmate, Tom Linton, was the one to lower his colors today, and at the same time he broke the world's record.

Linton accomplished the feat in a twenty-mile paced race at Manhattan Beach in the presence of 15,000 people.

For four miles it was a pretty race, Michael leading by a few yards. Suddenly Michael's tire collapsed. Naturally Linton pursued him and after riding two laps of the fifth mile Michael stopped and pedalled slowly to his "corner," where he changed his damaged wheel for a new one. In the meantime Linton kept going like the wind and before Michael came back on the track he was a mile ahead.

When Michael left the track he was greeted with a storm of hisses. He met with another slight drawback on entering his fifth mile, when his pacing team broke a chain.

After Michael let up there was little interest in the race outside of Linton's efforts to reduce the record. Although he tried hard, he could add no new agures until the fifteenth mile, when he started in clipping five and one-fifth seconds off the record. He continued ahead of the record every mile until the finish, breaking the twenty-mile record by exactly seven seconds. He could have made better time had he not lost his pacemakers while rounding for the last lap.

Michael at once challenged Linton for another race at twenty-five miles. Linton accepted and the race will be run at Manhattan Beach track Saturday next. Summary:
