160-ACRE FARM, one mile from Millard, twelve miles from Omaha on macadamized road; it is a fancy tract of land, located not only in one of the richest and most progressive farming communities in the United States, but the most advantageous, being in the immediate vicinity of one of the three greatest markets in the world and connected with it by a paved public highway. The price is no price at all; it is only a nominal sum for this farm. Who has a few thousand dollars idle? Come and talk business with us Monday morning.
Homes will not be as easily obtained the next 25 years anywhere in Douglas county as in the past 25 years. A bargain like this will not pass unnoticed.
