BANKERS KNEW THEIR MAN

In His Customary Condition, and No Further Identification Was Necessary.

One day a big city bank received the following message from one of its country correspondents: "Pay $25 to John Smith who will call today." The cashier's curiosity became suspicion when a man came into the bank a drunkard "fart" who shouted that he was John Smith and wanted some money. Two clerks pushed, pulled and piloted the boisterous individual into a private room away from the sight and hearing of regular depositors. The cashier wired the country bank:

"Man claiming to be John Smith is here. Highly intoxicated. Shall we await identification?"

The answer read: "Identification complete. Pay the money."—Success Magazine.

Horrible Thought!

In an English town a gentleman and a countryman approached a cage in the traveling zoo from opposite directions. This cage contained a very fierce-looking kangaroo. The countryman gazed at the wild animal for a few minutes with mouth and eyes both open, and then turning to the gentleman, he asked: "What kind of animal is that?" "Oh," replied the gentleman, "that is a native of Australia." The countryman covered his eyes with his hands as he exclaimed in horror: "Well, well! my sister married one of them!"

Then They All Subsidized.

The farmers were sitting around the stove in the general store and telling how the potato bugs had gotten their crops. Said one farmer: "The bugs ate my whole crop in two weeks." Then another spoke up: "They ate my crop in two days, and then sat around on the trees and waited for me to plant more." Here the storekeeper broke in: "Well, boys, that may be so, but I'll tell you what I saw in this very store. I saw four or five potato bugs examining the books about a week before planting time, to see who had bought seed."

An Admission.

Fred—I proposed to Miss Dingley last night.
Joe—Don't believe I know her. Is she well?
Fred—Yes, I guess so. She refused me.

Still a Woman.

Hewitt—She is a maw in her enjoyment of baseball.
Jewett—But she showed that she is still a woman by refusing to sit through the thirteenth inning.

News to Her.

He—Concerning love, everything possible has been said and thought.
She (cooly)—But not to me.—Fliegende Blaetter.

It is never quite polite to contradict a girl, except when she says she doesn't want to be kissed, and then it can be done silently.

How can a woman be expected to have any regard for the truth when she is obliged to promise to obey in the marriage ceremony?

A cheerful man is a pessimist's idea of a fool.

MICHIGAN TO SET NEW RECORDS

Captain Benbrook.

Everyone who has watched Michigan football teams train in other years and then has taken a daily look at the squad while at work at Whitmore Lake recently, is convinced that the 1916 eleven is going to set some records. Yost thinks so, although as yet he isn't saying so; Coach Douglass of the freshman eleven thinks so, and has not the slightest compunction about saying so; while Athletic Director Bartelme, Assistant Coach Dave Allerdice and Trainer Kraenzlein are equally optimistic. That being so, the team could hardly keep from making some records and already one new mark has been established by the 1916 squad.

When Don Green, Herrington and Cornwell joined the squad at the training camp the other day it swelled the list to 25, and of the 25 no less than seven wore their "M" by playing on the team that dominated Pennsylvania and Minnesota last year.

For uniformity in size, this year's group of line candidates surpassed the teams of 1903, 1904 and 1905. Captain Benbrook easily towers above the others, but with that one exception the men are about equal in weight. When it is considered that the bunch of line-men will average more than 185 pounds, one can readily see why Yost is so well pleased with the prospects for a formidable set of forwards for this year's eleven.

Captain Benbrook is left at guard, where last year he showed so well that Walter Camp chose him for his imaginary All-America eleven.

STAGG SEVERE WITH MAROONS

Midway Candidates Treated to Strenuous Daily Practice—Ignorant of New Rules.

Capt. "Bill" Crawley has been busy recently lining up the candidates for the University of Chicago football team. At the start Crawley and Coach Stagg put the men through a severe course of practice. This was kept up for several days.

Coach Stagg departed long enough from regular practice one afternoon to give his entire squad a quiz lecture on the new rules, which lasted over an hour, and to his great surprise he found few of his men acquainted with them. The mentor of the university not only gave each man a formal introduction to the new code, but invited them, one and all, to get familiar with a rule book for this year at once. Some of the answers to his questions were amusing, and good-natured Old Man of the Midway could not help but smile at the ignorance of some of the regulars.

Capt. "Bill" Crawley.

MENTOR SAYS YALE IS WEAK

Walter Camp Declares Old Eli's Material is Lacking in Strength—Talks of New Rules.

Walter Camp, the football mentor at Yale, gave out an interview recently in which he stated Yale will not have as strong a football team next fall as in the last two or three seasons. The material is said to be not as good as in former years, and it is Camp's opinion that both Harvard and Princeton will have strong teams, but he would not say whether they would be able to defeat Yale.

Speaking of the new rules formulated last spring, Mr. Camp said: "I think we ought to have a great game this fall if the coaches and players are quick to grasp the possibilities. Of course, there are a number of technicalities in the rules which are going to make the work of the officials mighty hard. One of the hardest kind of tasks for the officials is to determine when one player is massed, it will be hard to designate the man who is pushing or pulling another. In this connection it might be said that one of the hardest problems for coaches to solve is to stop the players from pulling or pushing. Before this season the words pull and push were heard more than any others in practice, and the players have been coached so much in this that it will be a task to stop them.

NEULBACH HAD MANY STARTS

Crack Pitcher of the Champion Chicago Cubs Says College Training Assisted Him Greatly.

By ED NEULBACH.

(Copyright, 1916, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

My start in professional baseball is hard to find, as I had started several times. I am willing to tell the facts of the case now, and defend them, because I always thought a college pitcher had the right to pitch for money when not at his own college. I did not consider it wrong. I had pitched around Detroit and St. Louis as a boy, and, being strong and having a lot of speed, had made some little reputation among the fellows. I wanted to go to college and I did not want my family to have to bear all the expense. In fact, while they could have afforded it, I thought it better to earn my way. I could make money pitching baseball, and I was offered certain favors, which would materially reduce the expense, if I would go to a certain college and go in for athletics. I did not consider this as a salary or bribe, and as I would have gone to the college, anyhow, I thought it as legitimate for me to pay part of my expenses by playing ball as it would have been for a skillful student to keep books for the faculty and help pay his way.

Also determined to pitch during vacations and to make it pay my college expenses. Under the rules I did not dare use my own name, as that would have barred me. So I pitched under an assumed name. This might be considered unfair to pitchers for rival colleges, and taken to give me an unfair advantage, but the truth is that it was not so, for two reasons. In the first place the rival pitchers also were pitching all summer, whether or not they were paid for it. But the second reason is better. It is a fact that what I learned about pitching at college helped me more in the minor leagues than what I learned in the minor leagues helped me at college. So I did not gain any unsportsmanlike advantage at all.

My real start was with the Chicago

Ed Neulbach.

Cubs, and I guess it was about the warmest start ever a young pitcher made. I made my first two appearances against New York, had them beat each time and each time blew up in the ninth inning and threw away the game. That I stuck to baseball after what the old players said to me after those games showed that I was determined to succeed. They had seen on the point of jumping out of windows both times, but I got mad and determined to stick and show them I could pitch. I guess that was about all that kept me. They figured if I could stand what they said to me I would have nerve enough to stick through anything.

The only reason I write this is to defend summer baseball for college players. I think a college player ought to be permitted to earn money in summer playing baseball if he has the ability, and allowed a chance to earn his college expenses just as well as the student who sells books should be allowed to pay his way through school.

Fast Run by Charles.

The performance of Second Baseman Charles of the Milwaukee (American association) team, the former Cardinal, who went in exchange for Harry Mowrey, in the field meet in Minneapolis recently, when he encircled the bases in 13 3/5 seconds, created a great deal of interest in baseball circles. It is a new world's record. In the record book, Marty Hegann, a member of the Indianapolis team, encircled the bases in 13 1/5 seconds in 1895, but this mark is said to have been unofficial. Ty Cobb is credited with doing the stunt in 12 4/5 seconds in Chicago, October 18, 1908, and this has been considered the real official mark, as the trial was made under the sanction of the national commission. Hans Lobert of the Reds has a mark of 14 seconds for the trip around the bases.

McGann Wants Job.

Dan McGann, first baseman of the Milwaukee club, has applied to Maysville of the Blue Grass league for the position of manager for next season. McGann started his baseball career at Maysville in 1893 and since then has played in the major leagues and the association.

Hamilton Is Barred.

Hamilton, the star on last year's Notre Dame team who is charged with having played professional ball with the Louisville club, has been barred from football competition at Notre Dame. His loss will be a severe blow to the Catholic institution's football team.

Le Baron Injured.

Le Baron, a candidate for quarterback at Northwestern, was seriously injured the other day when fackled. His task was suspended and he probably will be out of the game for a month.

LEFT TO A WORSE FATE

Dynamiter, Himself a Married Man, Knew What Awaited Forgetful Husband.

The business man was sitting in his office, thinking of starting for home, when a suspicious looking person came in with a leather bag in his hand.

"If you don't give me $25," said the visitor, coming at once to the point, "I will drop this on the floor."

The business man was cool. "What is in it?" he asked.

"Dynamite," was the brief reply.

"What will it do if you drop it?"

"Blow you up."

"Drop it!" was the instant command. "My wife told me when I left home this morning to be sure and send up a box of flour, and I forgot it. I guess it will take just about as much dynamite as you have there to prepare me for the blowing up I'll get when she sees me!"

He threw himself back in his chair and waited for the explosion, but it did not come.

"I'm a married man myself," said the dynamiter, and quietly slipped out.

Childlike Ignorance.

Laura Jean Libbey, discussing in Brooklyn her successful appearance on the stage, said:

"I talk in my monologues about love, marriage and the other interests of the heart. On these subjects women, especially young women, are strangely ignorant.

"They really make me think, you know, of the little girl who was asked by her teacher:

"What can you tell us about Solomon?"

"Solomon" replied the little girl, "was very fond of animals."

"And how, my dear," said the teacher, "do you make that out?"

"Because," answered the little girl, "the Bible says he had 500 porcupines."

The Place of Honor.

Farmer Hodge was of the good, old-fashioned school, and he always gave a feast to his hands at harvest time.

It was harvest time and the feast was about to commence.

Giles was the oldest hand and the hostess, with beaming cordiality, motioned him to the seat by her right hand. But Giles remained silently unresponsive.

"Come," said the hostess, "don't be bashful, Mr. Giles"—he was just Giles on ordinary occasions—"you've a right to the place of honor, you know."

Giles deliberated a moment, then spoke.

"Thank you kindly, Mrs. Hodge," he said, "but if it's all the same to you, I'd rather sit opposite this pudding."

May Sell 100,000,000 Red Cross Seals.

Twenty-five million Red Cross Christmas Seals have been printed and are being distributed by the American Red Cross, and arrangements have been made to print 100,000,000 if necessary. It is expected that this number will be needed. While the sticker is perforated like those used last year, it is intended for use only as a seal on the back of letters. The seal is one inch square with the conventional Red Cross in the center and the words, "Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, American Red Cross" in a circle about it. The colors are red and green. The design is by Mrs. Guler Thompson, Waterbury, Conn., who received $100 as a prize for her sketch.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

CONVINCING PROOF

OF THE VIRTUE OF

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

What is the use of procrastinating in the face of such evidence as the following letters represent? If you are a sick woman or know one who is, what sensible reason have you for not giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? For 30 years we have been publishing such testimonial letters as these—thousands of them—they are genuine and honest, too, every one of them.

Mrs. S. J. Barber says:

"I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine for women, and I feel it my duty to let others know the good it has done for me. Three years ago I had a tumor which the doctor said would have to be removed by an operation or I could not live more than a year, or two, at most. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice, and took 14 bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today the tumor is gone and I am a perfectly well woman. I hope my testimonial will be of benefit to others."—Mrs. S. J. BARBER, Scott, N. Y.

Mrs. E. F. Hayes says:

"I was under the doctor's treatment for a fibroid tumor. I suffered with pain, nervousness, bloating, and could not walk or stand on my feet any length of time. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice, followed her directions and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. To-day I am a well woman, the tumor was expelled, and my whole system strengthened. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female troubles to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 1290 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Mrs. W. K. Housh says:

"I have been completely cured of a severe female trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and want to recommend it to all suffering women."—Mrs. W. K. HOUSH, 7 Eastview Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills.

No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge.

Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Mrs. George May says:

"No one knows what I have suffered from female troubles, neuralgia pains, and backache. My doctor said he could not give me anything to cure it. Through the advice of a friend I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the pain soon disappeared. I continued its use and am now in perfect health."—Mrs. GEORGE MAY, 86 4th Ave., Paterson, N. J.
