ALBERT G. POTTER SAID:

The young man who starts out in life writing a plain and legible hand starts with a great advantage. If I were a young man and had to make my choice to graduate at a Classical College and stop there, or to graduate at a Business College and stop there, I would take the Business College in preference.

ACREAGE.
There is no better property to buy than suburban acres. Many a man has grown rich because his business required him to invest in broad acres near a great city. The pieces we offer ought to double in value within a year, and they will if Mr. Stickney's plans do not miscarry, and we do not think they will.

Five acres lying near Center st., paved road on 53d st., $800, lies high, smooth and sightly and is a bargain. Present nonresident owner paid a higher price for this, but is obliged to sell.

66 acres a little farther out than the above, held by a national bank, which must dispose of it. Has good trackage and is suitable for a South Omaha stockman; $100 an acre for this is very cheap.

40 acres near Mr. Hurt's great sheep ranch, $175 an acre; has some improvements, lies on a main road and is accessible to South Omaha and trackage.

20 acres less R. R. in S. W. part of town, not far from where the N. W. railroad has made such heavy improvements putting in round houses, etc.; $7,000. A slightly less offer might be considered.

90 acres a little farther west, lies well; $150 an acre, possibly a little less, would buy it.

Some scattered 5-acre lots in this same locality, $125 an acre.

35 acres, a large portion set out to fruit and in bearing; has most excellent improvements in the way of buildings. An ideal place for a man who is not willing to wait to let things grow, but wants them already grown. This place is north of the Country club; price $10,000.

20 acres near 36th st., between Omaha and South Omaha, $10,000; lies beautifully, not a bad lot in it. This is a close-in piece of acreage well located.

BOULEVARD LOTS.
A gentleman said to us the other day in regard to a very sightly and desirable corner: "I have watched that corner for 7 years." He finally bought it and immediately after he did so it doubled in price. If you have in the same manner watched the choice east front lots on Florence boulevard, hoping some day to secure one, we would say to you now it is time to quit looking and go to buying. We offer property here that you will not get as cheap again.

Corner opposite Mr. Morrison's "Edgewood," 62x130, fronts east and north, $1,000.

82½x300, a little further up, fronts east, near Mr. Gratton's fine residence, $1,250, or we will sell double the frontage, 165 feet, the same depth, for $2,500. This would give purchaser more than an acre of choice east front boulevard property very cheap.

82½x300, with small cottage, now renting for $90 a year, has city water and gas, can be used while one is building a better house; nice trees. Will sell this for $2,000. You might look a long time and not find a better thing to buy. It is a home or a speculation, or both.

We have several other pieces which we think are even better than anything we have advertised. We will be glad to show any persons interested these also. We have one elegant improved piece that it is not generally known can be bought at all, but owing to certain changes owner would sell. This, we think, would please most any one, and the price is right.

BUSINESS PROPERTY.
22x132, on Farnam, between 13th and 14th, with good 3-story brick building, renting for $1,800 a year; nonresident owner desires to close it out. Price, $21,000.

44x132, vacant, on Farnam, between 10th and 11th, most desirable for wholesale business, requiring a prominent location on the principal thoroughfare, running from the depot to the residence portion of the city—open to an offer. The nonresident owners of this lot would improve it to suit any good tenant who would take a 5-year lease at a fair rental.

HAWTHORNE.
47x108, near 33d, on Davenport—$525 if you buy it as soon as you read this ad.

JEROME PARK.
We offer 95x132, east and south corner, on Farnam, at $65 a foot. We do not know of any corner better than this for the money.

KOUNTZE PLACE.
We offer a full lot on Sherman Ave., paved, $800. We think this very cheap.

KOUNTZE & RUTH'S.
We have a nice lot on 20th, backing up to the Great Western; nonresident owner wants an offer.

FARMS.
78 acres 20 miles from Omaha, handy to local town, $70 an acre.

150 acres 19 miles from Omaha, one of the best Sarpy county farms, $75 an acre, adjoining 200 not quite as good, can be had at $60 an acre.

200 acres near LaPlatte, pretty close to the river, but well worth the money, $30 an acre.

140 acres 5½ miles straight west of Hanscom Park, $100 an acre.
