News Received at Sea.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—How the news of the Russian-Japanese peace agreement was flashed about the Atlantic ocean and received by vessels still several days out of port and hundreds of miles beyond direct communication with wireless telegraph stations on land was reported by the steamship La Lorraine, which arrived here today. Last Thursday, while La Lorraine was about 900 miles east of New York the message was suddenly caught on its wireless instruments and the sender was learned to be the steamship Kron Prinz Wilhelm, bound for Europe and already about two days out of New York harbor.

A defect in one of La Lorraine's shafts caused the steamer to make part of the passage at reduced speed.

Preparing for Peace in Asia.

GUNSHU PASS, Manchuria, Friday, Sept. 1.—The first intimation of an agreement between the peace plenipotentiaries was printed in today's issue of the army organ, but M. Witte's message to Emperor Nicholas, received today, was held over for tomorrow.

From various sources the news of the agreement percolated into the communities of Kochiatien and Gunshu Pass August 31, but comment was withheld, pending military sanction for its publication, and the news is yet too vaguely known or realized to note its effect. Arrangements, however, have already been instituted for the establishment and maintenance of a neutral zone between the armies, pending the demobilization. The army has had ample time to accustom itself to the idea of peace. The men have followed the discussion as closely as the delayed dispatches permitted and it is evident that the idea of paying an indemnity was the most unwelcome of the Japanese conditions.

The foreign military attaches are expecting to be recalled and are arranging formal leave-taking of the commanders. The industrial and missionary interests, disorganized by the war, are already preparing to resume their enterprises.

The news of peace, as contained in Witte's message to Emperor Nicholas, was communicated to the troops today and produced a good impression. The possibility of soon returning home awakened sincere feelings of gratitude toward M. Witte, who has so well defended the honor and dignity of Russia in the far east, saving, at the same time, thousands of Russian lives particularly valuable to the country at the moment of the awakening to better things.

The hope was expressed that the peace would be lasting and satisfactory to both combatants. The opinion here is that the ending of the eighteen months' war, so disastrous to Russia, was due to M. Witte's energy and firmness.

No Orders for Armistice.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 2.—6.30 p. m.—The Associated Press was informed at the War office at 4 o'clock this afternoon that no formal orders have yet been given regarding the armistice, that no steps have yet been taken to terminate the movements of troops going to the far east and that no recent mobilization has been discontinued. In fact no steps whatever have yet been taken toward putting an end to the regular work of shipping men and supplies to Manchuria or any other business connected with keeping the Manchurian army on a war footing. The explanation was that no orders would be given to these ends until the details of the formal announcement of the armistice were fully understood with the Japanese after formal orders have been sent by Russia and Japan to their respective commanders, who will meet in the field and arrange the details, such as determining the dividing line, etc.

Saloons Not Under Military Control Make Trouble for Officers and Men.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The War department has just received the annual report of Brigadier General Theodore J. Wint, upon the military affairs of the Northern division. The general in this report repeats the complaint about the many saloons which were always to be found around the posts, over which the military authorities have no control whatever, and it is stated that a saloon in connection with the canteen or post exchange, run by some responsible person under fixed rules, would be of great advantage.

The annual inspection of the National Guard noted a general improvement, and it is said there is an honest effort on the part of state officials to improve matters. The report also advises that several of the small posts, especially Fort Washakie, Wyo., be abandoned, as they are very expensive and of no particular use.

He was highly respected and a good man in every way. The funeral was largely attended and the business houses were closed out of respect to his memory. The funeral was in charge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of which order he was a member, and took place at the Congregational church, Rev. H. P. Young speaking the funeral discourse.

WELLINGTON, Kan., Sept. 2.—A private message received here tells of the death at Plainview, Tex., of John T. Stewart, a multi-millionaire, who was found dead in bed at a hotel.

YELLOW JACK UNDER CONTROL

Only Three Deaths in New Orleans Against Eighty-Eight Same Day in 1878.

ITALIANS IN PATTERSON IN UGLY MOOD

Report Spread that Physicians Are Killing Members of the Race—Attack on Hospital Feared.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 2.—Report of the yellow fever situation to 6 p. m. Saturday:

New cases	27
Total cases to date	1,096
Deaths	3
Total deaths to date	284
New foci	10
New cases under treatment	536
Cases discharged	1,373

In 1878 the number of deaths on September 2 was eighty-eight. This year the number is three. That proves the statement that the fever is under control now.

Passed Assistant Surgeon Rucker's case has been pronounced not yellow fever, and he will be on duty tomorrow.

According to the official report of Dr. Horton, the State Board of Health physician in charge at Patterson, serious trouble is brewing with the Italians there, who seem to think the doctors are killing off members of their race.

Reports of new cases from the country are still discouraging, and are as follows:

Patterson, 2; Kenner, 2; Hanson City, 2; Prospect plantation, 3; St. Rose, 4; Alexandria, 1; Lafayette, 1; Lake Privince, 1; Terre Bonne parish, 9; Naches, 1; Gulfport, 8.

Italians in Ugly Mood.

In a telegram to the State Board of Health today Dr. C. L. Horton, who is representing the board at Patterson, sent news of an ugly situation which prevails there, involving threats against the emergency hospital and possible harm to the physicians who are fighting the disease. Dr. Horton wired that the fever fighters were having trouble and that rioting by Italians was feared. Several of the Italians, he said, had died of yellow fever and the doctors had warnings conveyed to them to be on their guard. Dr. Horton immediately ordered a guard to be thrown about the hospital, apprehending that an attempt might be made to burn it. A meeting of citizens was held and an organization perfected to protect the hospital, the physicians, the nurses and the town itself from violence.

Fourteen Cases in Mississippi.

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 2.—Mississippi's yellow fever summary of new cases tonight is as follows:

Gulfport, 8; Vicksburg, 1; Pearlington, 2; Natchez, 1; Mississippi City, 2.

Mississippi quarantined tonight against Florida, on account of the Pensacola infection to which Atlantic case is traced. There will be no quarantine by the state against Atlanta.

One Case in Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 2.—The city health department announces one case of yellow fever in Atlanta. The patient came from Pensacola here Thursday. The patient is at the detention camp and all precautions have been taken.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Atlanta is not regarded as infective territory for yellow fever by the marine hospital service, and no spread of the disease there is anticipated. This view is based on the experience of the last, as cases of yellow fever have several times appeared in Atlanta, but have never produced a new case. Dr. Wyman said tonight that the yellow fever mosquito does not breed in Atlanta and for that reason no spread of the disease need be feared.

Sixth Case in Pensacola.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Sept. 2.—One new case of yellow fever developed today within the infected district and within two blocks of where the first case was discovered. This makes six cases developed within the last five or six days.

MANIAC COMMITS SUICIDE

Man Who Terrorized a Large Section of Northern Ohio Kills Himself When Brought to Bay.

LORAIN, O., Sept. 2.—On the point of capture by a sheriff's posse, Peter Pitts, the maniac who terrorized the countryside from Avon Beach to Lorain for three days, is dead by his own hand. He shot himself in the head today in full view of the band of armed farmers who were pursuing him.

The three days in which he ran amuck through a territory twenty miles in extent, firing on men and women, burning farmhouses and driving the population from their homes to places of safety in the city, marked one of the strangest and most sensational episodes in the history of the county.

Friday night 100 men patrolled the highroads, waiting for Pitts, their guns cocked and loaded. The climax came when word was received that Pitts, still armed and raving, had been seen at his grandfather's home at French Creek. Thither a posse of 100 galloped without delay. At a turn of the road they saw Pitts in the distance and they formed ready to fire. He turned, watched the squad a moment, drew his revolver, vaulted a fence and then, while the posse grimly watched, shot himself four times and fell a corpse.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Sept. 2.—The committee appointed by the recent constitutional convention of the Five Civilized Tribes to draft a constitution for the proposed new state has completed its work, and the draft is now in the hands of an editing committee. The convention as a whole will reconvene on Tuesday next, when the draft will be taken up and voted on, section by section. The constitution, as drafted, divides the territory into forty-eight counties. This section will be fought by delegates from some of the larger cities. Aside from this contests are expected over the adoption of sections providing for a county dispensary for the sale of liquor and the election of congressmen-at-large.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS MEET

Second Annual Reunion Begins at Milwaukee Thursday—President Sends Regrets.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 2.—The second annual reunion of the United Spanish War Veterans will begin its meetings Thursday, September 7, in Light Horse squadron armory in this city and the sessions will take up the greater part of three days. Besides the 317 regular delegates who will attend, it is said there will be a large delegation of visitors. The ladies' auxiliary of the organization will meet at the same time.

Many guests of military distinction will be in attendance, including, among others, General W. T. Dugan, commander of the Department of the Lakes; W. W. Robinson, assistant quartermaster, U. S. A.; General Sherman Bell of Colorado and General Charles King, who is a member of one of the local camps. Governor LaFollette of Wisconsin will probably be present and address the gathering.

A letter has been received from Secretary Loeb expressing the regrets of President Roosevelt because of his inability to attend the reunion. The president says it is his wish to be present and take part in all such conventions, but pressure of public business prevents his attendance this year.

DENVER BANKER CONVICTED

President of Defunct Fidelity Savings Association Found Guilty of Publishing False Report.

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 2.—E. M. Johnson, president of the defunct Fidelity Savings association, which failed about a year ago, owing over $1,000,000, was found guilty by a jury today of making and publishing a false report of the financial condition of the association. His attorneys argued a motion for a new trial, and should this be refused the case will probably be carried to the supreme court on an application for a writ of supersedeas. Johnson may be sentenced to from one to ten years' imprisonment. This was his third trial, the two former trials having ended in disagreement of the jury.

Judge Mullins, in the district court today, ordered Receiver Guy Leroy Stevick of the Denver Savings bank, which closed its doors August 19, to pay depositors immediately a dividend of 10 per cent.

TAGGART HEARING PROCEEDS

Arguments in Army Scandal Case Begin on Labor Day by Consent of Parties.

WOOSTER, O., Sept. 2.—The attendance at today's hearing of the Taggart divorce case was the smallest since the trial began. Odds and ends of testimony were gathered up. Wertz took the witness stand and read the deposition of Nora Murphy. This was finished quickly and related to the alleged slumming trip in San Francisco as told by this witness, but denied by Mrs. Taggart.

The story of the Filipino boy, Andres Degane, was taken up and re-read, as was also a part of the testimony of Colonel Van Hoff. No new facts of importance were brought out.

Just before noon the matter of holding court on Labor day was discussed, and as attorneys did not care to observe the day, Judge Eason decided to adjourn for today and hold court Monday, when arguments are to start.

SERMONS ON LABOR TOPICS

Presbyterian Preachers in United States Will Discuss Some Phase of Problem Today.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Practically every Presbyterian minister in the United States will preach on some phase of the labor question tomorrow, as the result of an appeal from the department of church and labor of the denomination, which has its offices in Chicago. Besides these 7,000 Presbyterian preachers, thousands in other denominations have taken up the question, so that more labor sermons will be heard on Sunday than on any other day in the history of the church.

Over 1,000 requests for special literature to be distributed after the sermons have come to Superintendent Stelzle, so that millions of pages of printed matter will be issued presenting appeals to both church and labor as to their respective duties in relation to this problem.

HOOSIER BANKER BREAKS JAIL

Says He Will Return and Pay Debts in Less Than a Year.

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Sept. 2.—Oliver O. Jones, former cashier of the defunct bank at Arlington, Ind.; O. S. Bowman, in jail charged with embezzlement growing out of the failure of his canning plant at Carthage, and an Italian under arrest charged with burglary, broke jail early today by sawing the bars from a window on the second floor. It is believed they received outside help. Jones left a note behind for the press, in which he said:

In order to save myself and my reputation I have to go to a place, not far off, where I may soon be able to satisfy and protect those that were the cause of my being in jail. If I am given my liberty for a few months, in less than a year from this time I will be able to return and make good the claims against me.

MANY VETERANS ENROUTE

Commander King and Party Have Reached the Convention City.

OFFICIAL HEADQUARTERS ARE OPEN

Thirty-Ninth Annual Encampment of the National Grand Army of the Republic is Bringing Large Crowd to Denver.

DENVER, Sept. 2.—Arrivals of civil war veterans and of tourists who have taken advantage of the cent-a-mile rate made by the railroads for the thirty-ninth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, to be held in Denver September 4 to 9, were very heavy today on all lines entering the city. Commander-in-Chief John R. King and party, who came west in a special train over the Burlington road, arrived today, and were escorted by a band and the local reception committee to the Brown Palace hotel, where official headquarters were opened.

"From reports I have received," said Commander-in-Chief King in an interview today, "I believe the Denver encampment will be one of the most successful and memorable in the history of the Grand Army."

One of the most important works of the encampment, in which the Grand Army of the Republic and all its auxiliaries are equally interested, is the revival of the plans for a new national soldiers' and sailors' home at Washington, D. C. The most enthusiastic supporters of the movement are members of the Department of the Potomac.

Nearly 10,000 strangers arrived in the city during the twenty-four hours ending at midnight tonight, and the arrivals during the last three days are estimated at 30,000. The decorations and illumination of the city's main streets in honor of the old soldiers are elaborate and handsome.

PROBLEM FOR BURLINGTON

Immense Crowds Going West and State Fair Coming On.

Special trains, regular trains and extra sections still continue to pour through Omaha for the Grand Army of the Republic encampment at Denver, which will be held next week.

The Burlington has the same run of regulars, in numerous sections, as heretofore, and the organized parties from the east are beginning to arrive. A hard problem confronts the operating department of the Burlington. Not only are trains of extras being hustled east to be reloaded, but the state fair is coming on at Lincoln next week and all of this equipment will have to be used to handle the immense crowds which are sure to be attracted to the fair. After these cars are used to haul the people of the state to and from the state fair they must be hustled back to Denver, to bring the returning veterans home.

The Canadian Hoo-Hoos, with Dr. Ferguson and Dan Ferguson in charge, were at the Union station Saturday enroute to Denver, and numerous other specials kept the depot officials on the qui vive all day.

The New York delegation will arrive with 200 people over the Northwestern and leave today at 3 p. m. over the Union Pacific.

The Massachusetts department, in eleven cars and 250 people, arrive on the Milwaukee at 1 p. m. and leave over the Union Pacific at 2 p. m. today.

The Milwaukee will deliver to the Union Pacific this afternoon a mixed train from all sections of the country, one car from Olean, one from Vermont, one from Owoso, Mich., and four from Wisconsin.

The Northwestern Chicago special will arrive at 1 o'clock today and leave at 2:30 over the Union Pacific.

The Massachusetts club special will leave over the Union Pacific at 2:10 this afternoon.

From present indications there will be a big delegation of Ohio people resident of this vicinity at the Burlington depot this afternoon at 3:55, to greet the special train carrying the Ohio contingent of veterans to the national encampment at Denver. The train will have aboard the Ohio department officers of the Grand Army and Woman's Relief Corps and Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic. General Robert B. Brown of Cleveland, who is one of the leading candidates for national commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, will be with this train, as will be Past National Commander-in-Chief John B. Kountz of Toledo, "the Drummer Boy of Mission Ridge," who was elected national commander of the Grand Army at the last national encampment in Denver, in 1883.

DEAD LETTER CLERK LET OUT

Charles A. Moore of Colorado is Caught Stealing Railway Tickets from Letters.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Charles A. Moore of Colorado, for ten years a clerk in the postoffice department has confessed to taking railroad tickets from letters in the dead letter office and has been dismissed.

Besides taking railroad tickets Moore is also accused of taking foreign stamps from letters and selling them. He was in charge of the minor branch of the dead letter office and received a salary of $1,400 a year.

Many letters which reach the dead letter office contain railroad tickets. These are kept on file for a certain time and then destroyed. In his confession Moore said there was no chance of the tickets reaching the persons for whom they were intended, that they had been paid for and he thought that he might as well reap the revenue from them. The inspectors missed tickets from envelopes marked to contain them and traced the theft to Moore. When he was confronted he confessed and when the case was laid before acting Postmaster General Hitchcock, Moore was dismissed. It is said at the Postoffice department that Moore will not be prosecuted.

INDIAN SCHEME TO GET LAND

Squaws Will Secure Divorces and After Apportionment Remarry Former Husbands.

APPLETON, Wis., Sept. 2.—Stockbridge Indians, it was asserted today, are taking advantage of divorce laws to secure additional government lands. Under the law all Indians except married squaws can get forty-acre allotments of land. Many squaws are now obtaining divorces, it is said, with the intention of securing forty acres while widows and then remarrying former husbands. A number of divorces have already been granted in Shawano county and several are pending.

up into the boat, however, wrapped in a blanket and rubbed vigorously while being taken ashore, where a skillful physician had to work over him for some time before he could be brought to.

Water Too Cold.

The reason why he gave out so soon was that the water was very cold—only about 60 degrees Fahrenheit—and there was a strong current from the river which forms the outlet of Lake Malar. In the jumping and diving contests, the Englishmen did the best work on the whole, but in water polo they met with rather more than their match in the Swedish swimmers. This, it is claimed, was due to the fact that the Swedish polo players do not play by exactly the same rules as the English, and the little differences to which the Englishmen had to conform confused them.

Cavalry in Competition.

One of the most interesting features of these swimming contests was the prize swimming of cavalry. The course was laid across the lagoon aforesaid, and was taken part in by the officers of the Swedish cavalry in uniform, but without swords. Some of the horses became frightened in midstream and floundered and kicked viciously and shook off their riders, but most of the riders succeeded in clinging to their horses till they reached the opposite shore. All competitors rode bareback. This is the first competition of this kind ever held in Sweden.

NEGOTIATIONS AT KARLSTAD

Sweden Does Not Recognize Acts of Norway Since It Left Union.

KARLSTAD, Sweden, Sept. 2.—The Swedish and Norwegian delegates appointed to discuss the dissolution of the union between Sweden and Norway continued their deliberations today.

The session lasted until 5:15 p. m. Absolute secrecy was observed in regard to the proceedings. It is said that at the session of September 1 the Swedish delegates took the stand that they were treating with the Norwegian delegates, not in their capacity as representatives of the government in existence, but as representatives of the cabinet appointed by King Oscar, thus emphasizing the fact that Sweden does not recognize Norway's claim that the union has already been dissolved. This is denied by Norwegians here, but the report is published by the Aftenposten of Christiania.

The Swedish delegates are assisted by three military experts. The feeling here this evening is that if the conference fails to reach an agreement within a week the negotiations are likely to be suddenly broken off.

The Norwegian delegates are not as optimistic as they were on their arrival here.

Premier Michelsen of Norway predicts that the negotiations will perhaps last for weeks.

FRENCH ULTIMATUM TO SULTAN

Peremptory Note Demands Indemnity and Punishment of Official Who Took Algerine.

PARIS, Sept. 2.—The government has addressed to the sultan of Morocco another peremptory note amounting to an ultimatum. This note says that the release of the imprisoned Algerian citizen, Bouzian, is not sufficient, and demands in addition: First, the payment of an indemnity; second, the punishment of the caid who made the arrest, and third, a public apology.

If all these demands are not granted within a brief time the French minister will be ordered to leave Fez, preparatory to the adoption of coersive measures.

Duke Finds New Land.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Sept. 2.—A letter from Reikjavik, Iceland, written by a member of the duke of Orleans' Greenland party, says the expedition discovered a new and unknown land, which was named Terre de France, and also discovered that Cape Bismarck is a part of a large island and not on the mainland as hitherto assumed.

New Ecuadorian Ministry.

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, Sept. 2.—President Garcia has approved the formation of the following ministry: Minister of the interior, Senor Gonzalo S. Cordova; foreign affairs, Senor Carlos R. Tobor; public instruction, Senor Angel Espinosa; finance, Senor Juan F. Game; war and marine, Colonel Tomas Larrea.

DOCTORS FOR MEN

YOUNG MEN Youth is prone to weakness, and weakness allied with ignorance of the consequences which are sure to follow makes indiscretions and folly inevitable.

We have observed the terribly blighting influences of abuses and indiscretions in the young and middle-aged; sapping the vital forces, undermining the foundations of manhood; clouding the brightest minds and destroying all noble thoughts and aspirations; family circles disrupted and the poisonous fangs reaching out and blighting even succeeding generations.

There are thousands of partially and totally wrecked constitutions among young men today from abuses and indiscretions in early life. Their weakened vitality, shattered nerves and exhausted energies tell a pitiful story. Multitudes have brought upon themselves the horrors of a life-long disease or weakness through excesses, abuses and unnatural drains, which sap the very foundation of life, destroying their health and strength, leaving them a mental, physical and sexual wreck.

Are you one of the many thousands of WEAK MEN, and do you wish to be cured? We have devoted many years exclusively to treating this class of troubles, attended with the greatest success, and we are thus enabled to give this class of sufferers the benefit of our extended experience in treating diseases of this nature. The specialists connected with the Electro Medical Institute are eminently qualified to advise, direct and treat such cases. We are thoroughly conversant with every minute detail connected with such cases, and encourage and counsel the patient by good advice, while skill and medicines restore him back to health, strength and happiness.

We have investigated and tested all known methods for the treatment and cure of private diseases and weaknesses of men, which gives us the right to judge between the false and the true—between shallow pretension and solid worth—between substance and shadow. Musty theories cannot stand out against our mode of treatment, against progressive medical science, new discoveries and undisputed facts of diseases cured to stay cured by our method of treatment.
